THE ADVANCE,
Wilson, N. C.

The River and Harbor bill has passed the House of Representatives over the of the President.

The same old game of bluff is to be played in State politics. One would imagine that the Democratic leaders would arrange a new plan of campaign.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has vetoed the River and Harbor bill. The bill carried with it $75,000,00. The President says he will not endorse any more bills calling for the expenditure of money until congress has made some provision for the government debts already incurred.

CONGRESS will soon adjourn. The present congress has done nothing to end the financial strain. Both parties have talked a great deal about a "non partisan" financial bill, but talk began and ended the business. Each seems to have been afraid that the other would gain some political advantage and hence nothing has been accomplished.

HAD HIS EYES OPENED.

A Northern Man's Disgust at the Republican State Convention.

The Fayetteville Observer tells of a Northern man's disgust at the recent Republican State convention in Raleigh, and what he says his feelings were after calmly observing things. It says:

A Northern man and a Republican, a Mr. Baker, of Fall River, Mass. arrived in the city Monday with his eyes opened. Mr. Baker was sitting in front of the LaFayette hotel, listening to a number of gentlemen discussing politics. He suddenly arose from his seat and said: "Gentlemen you are all strangers to me, but if you will allow it, I want to unburden my mind of an humble thought. I was born and reared in Massachusetts, the hotbed of abolition, and have been taught to believe all my life that the Republicans and negroes were badly treated by the Democrats of the South, in fact that they were still little better treated than slaves. Last Friday I stopped in a Southern city, the city of Raleigh, for the first time in my life. I heard that there was a Republican State convention in session and I went, charged with sympathy for the oppressed Republicans. I stood and gazed at that howling, seething, cursing mob, and but a few moments was sufficient to convince me that if this was Republicanism in the South, then God deliver her from it. Boys, I am a Southern Democrat in heart and spirit if not by residence."

In each precinct there shall be an executive committee, to consist of five active Democrats, who shall be elected by the Democratic voters of the several precincts in the meeting first called by the County Executive Committee. And said committee so elected shall elect one of its members as chairman who shall preside at all committee meetings.

2. The chairmen of the several precinct committees shall compose the County Executive Committee, which shall meet at the same time and place as the county convention first held in each election year, and elect a chairman of said county committee, who need not be a member of the committee, and he shall preside at all meetings of said committee and shall hold his place until his successor shall be elected. A majority of said precinct chairmen, in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum. The county committee shall likewise appoint a central committee of five, who shall act in its stead when the county committee is not in session. Wherever a township contains two or more voting precincts, the chairmen of the several precinct committees shall compose the township executive committee, whose duty it shall be to call all necessary township conventions and the chairman of the township committee shall preside at all township conventions. The township committee shall elect its own chairman. Should any township committee fail to call a township convention, when necessary, the chairman of the County Executive Committee shall call the same.

3. In case there shall be a failure on the part of any precinct to elect its executive committee for a period of thirty days, the county executive committee shall appoint said committee from the Democratic voters of said precinct.

In case no meeting shall be held in any precinct in pursuance of said call, or no election shall be made the precinct executive committee shall appoint such delegates.

PRIMARY.

The chairman and secretary of the precinct meeting shall certify to the township and county conventions the vote received by each candidate at the precinct meeting.

At every precinct meeting before delegates to the township convention and at every county convention, before delegates to State, Congressional, Judicial, Senatorial or other conventions are chosen, there shall be a vote taken for the different candidates for office, whose names may be presented, and the delegates shall vote their respective precincts and counties in accordance with this vote; that is to say, each candidate shall receive in the State, Congressional, Judicial, Senatorial or other convention, the proportion of the vote to which he received in the county convention, and in township conventions he shall have his proportion of the precinct vote. The chairman and secretary of the precinct or county convention and another instruction shall be given: Provided, That where only one candidate is presented it shall be lawful to instruct for him.

At all State and district, county and township conventions the delegates from the different counties and voting precincts may disregard the vote of their respective counties, or voting precincts to any candidate, provided two thirds majority of all his votes from the county or voting precinct consent thereto.
