ELECTION ESTIMATES.

Claims Made by Both Parties in Many States.

READY FOR BALLOTING TOMORROW

The State Chairmen of the Different Political Parties Forecast the Probable Vote and Feel Sanguine of the Election of Their Candidates.

TRENTON, Nov. 2.—The campaign in New Jersey has practically closed and the leaders of both the Republican and Democratic parties are claiming the state.

Colonel L. Price, chairman of the Democratic state committee, claims the state for Bryan by from 10,000 to 12,000, and says the Democrats will get three or four congressmen, five state senators and a majority of the lower house.

Ex-Senator Winton, chairman of the National Democrats, concedes the state to McKinley, and asks all gold Democrats to vote for Palmer, so as to give a total vote sufficient to permit hereafter the nomination of candidates by convention instead of by petition.

Fusionists Claim Montana for Bryan.

HELENA, Nov. 2.—The campaign just closed has been remarkable for the absence of anything like vigor. The Republican candidate for governor met with an accident early in his speaking tour which compelled his withdrawal from active work.

Estimates of Texas' Vote.

ATLANTA, Nov. 2.—Democratic State Chairman Blake says there will be 500,000 votes cast in the state, of which number Bryan and Sewall will get 275,000, Bryan and Watson 90,000, McKinley and Hobart 125,000 and Palmer and Buckner 10,000.

Both Sides Claim South Dakota. SIOUX FALLS, Nov. 2.—South Dakota is claimed by both sides with equal confidence. The Populistic and Democratic state chairmen unite in claiming the state for Bryan by 6,000 to 8,000.

Rival Claims in North Dakota.

FARGO, Nov. 2.—It is predicted that tomorrow will be the liveliest day that North Dakota people have ever known. The vote this year, it is said, will be larger by at least 3,000 than the year before, and it is thought the 45,000 mark will be reached in the state.

Women to Vote in Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 2.—The campaign has closed without any sensational features. It is estimated that a vote of the state will be over 60,000, as the women will vote for the first time.

Conservative Estimate in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 2.—Both Republican and Democratic committees claim the state. Democratic Committeeman Coleman says Bryan will carry the state by 25,000 to 30,000. The Republican committee claims McKinley will carry the state by 15,000.

Both Parties Claiming Victory. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 2.—The campaign in Wyoming closed with both parties claiming the victory. The Republican state committee has made a thorough poll of the state by precincts and claim the McKinley electors will receive a majority of 1,500, the justice of the supreme court and congressman.

Virginia Claimed for Bryan. PETERSBURG, Nov. 2.—The regular Democratic managers claim that Bryan will carry Virginia by a large majority, some estimates placing the figures as high as 50,000. The Republicans also appear to be confident of carrying the state, but they give no figures.

Democrats Claim Florida by 10,000. JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 2.—The Republicans and gold standard Democrats have finished their campaign in this state. The regular Democrats will have their final rally tonight. Claims are made by the chairmen of committees on each side that they will have majorities, but there is little genuineness except on the Democratic side.

Fusion Will Carry Idaho. BOISE, Nov. 2.—The People's Democratic party, being a fusion of Populists, Democrats and the silver Republicans, will probably get 18,000 votes. The People's Democratic party claim they will have 14,000 votes for their state ticket and elect it.

Estimated Result in Oregon. PORTLAND, Nov. 2.—The Republican state committee, after a careful canvass in every county in the state, place the minimum majority for McKinley at 4,500. The latest estimates given out by the Populist state committee computes the majority for the Bryan electors at 2,200.

Louisiana Claimed for Bryan by 20,000.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—The Australian ballot system will be given its first trial in Louisiana. The state will give Bryan a majority of between 15,000 and 20,000. The Democrats expect to carry all six congressional districts, but the Republicans claim to have excellent chances in the First, Second, Third and Sixth districts.

Both Sides Claim South Dakota.

SIOUX FALLS, Nov. 2.—South Dakota is claimed by both sides with equal confidence. The Populistic and Democratic state chairmen unite in claiming the state for Bryan by 6,000 to 8,000.

SERMON BY CARDINAL GIBBONS

Upon the Approaching Presidential Election—An Impartial Discourse. BALTIMORE, Nov. 2.—Cardinal Gibbons in his sermon at the cathedral yesterday morning took occasion to touch lightly, and in a thoroughly impartial way, upon the approaching presidential election and its results.

Cycle Record Broken.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The New York Philadelphia and return cycle record has been broken. Albert Peitchee, of the Yorkville wheelmen, left city hall yesterday at 3:55 a. m., rode to Philadelphia city hall and finished the return journey at 12:10 a. m., riding the distance in the elapsed time of eighteen hours and seven minutes.

Watson's Advice to Populists.

ATLANTA, Oct. 31.—Thomas E. Watson spoke at Sandersville yesterday in behalf of West, the Populist candidate for congress in the Tenth district. In the course of his remarks he expressed a sincere desire that Bryan be elected at all hazards. Respecting himself he said among other things: "I am out of the race in Georgia. There are two tickets you can vote next Tuesday, Bryan and Sewall or McKinley and Hobart, and if you can't stand either stay at home."

Three Children Drowned in a Buggy.

STUBENVILLE, O., Nov. 2.—Mrs. John Snyder and three children, of this city, were in a buggy on the upper ferryboat Saturday. The horse became unmanageable and backed into the river with the occupants. Mrs. Snyder was rescued, but the three children and horse were drowned.

LAST DAY DEVOTED TO NEBRASKA.

He Urges All Members of Silver Clubs Throughout the United States to Devote the Whole of Election Day to the Cause.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Bryan reached their home in this city at 10 o'clock yesterday, after an absence of several weeks' duration. In order to be able to spend the day with their children it was necessary for Mr. Bryan to depart from the rule which he has invariably followed since his nomination, of not traveling on Sunday.

There was quite an assemblage of personal friends at the Lincoln station, and the candidate and his wife were welcomed by many cordial handshakes. Immediately upon their arrival they were ushered into a carriage and driven directly to their own residence. Mr. Bryan might have been anything but a presidential candidate, so quietly was the day spent after reaching home. There were a few callers, but they consisted for the most part of fellow townsmen, and none of them spent more than sufficient time to inquire after the personal welfare of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan.

In the few words that he did speak to callers Mr. Bryan asserted his unshaken confidence in the success of his cause, and he has never since the beginning of the campaign appeared more cheerful or more hopeful than he was today. He believes the people are thoroughly aroused and will sustain him at the polls, but said that if perchance they should fail to do so he would by no means consider the cause of bimetalism lost. He thinks that in the contingency of defeat at this time immediate preparations should be begun for the campaign of 1900.

The last day of the campaign will be devoted wholly to Mr. Bryan's own state and will be a long and busy one. Leaving Lincoln at 6:30 a. m. this morning he goes westward as far as Grand Island, and from that point return over another railroad line in time to reach Lincoln at 5:30, making speeches of a few minutes' duration at all important points going and coming. He will stop at Lincoln on his return long enough to make a last address to the people of his home town, and will then proceed to Omaha, where, between the hours of 7 and 12 o'clock tonight, he is expected to make from five to seven speeches.

Immediately after the last speech in Omaha Mr. Bryan will return again to Lincoln, so as to be here to vote tomorrow. Mrs. Bryan will accompany her husband through the state, but will not go to Omaha with him. Mr. Bryan last night sent the following dispatch to Mr. Jones, chairman of the National committee, at Chicago: "I suggest that you urge all members of silver clubs throughout the United States to give the entire day, Tuesday, if possible, to our cause. In states where the holding Democrats have been allowed to use the party name it will be necessary for our people to warn voters against the deception and at all polling places they will be useful to meet the misrepresentations which may be circulated too late to be answered by our speakers or through the press. The gold syndicate and the trusts are fighting for existence and we must be prepared to meet them at every point."

Closely Followed by Gold Democrats.

OMAHA, Nov. 2.—One of the most exciting as well as immensely interesting features of this campaign will occur today when William J. Bryan, in his rapid flight through Nebraska will be closely followed by Hon. John P. Irish, of California. Shortly after Mr. Bryan has commenced his address the special train carrying Mr. Irish and other gold standard orators of Nebraska will follow him closely.

Cycle Record Broken.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The New York Philadelphia and return cycle record has been broken. Albert Peitchee, of the Yorkville wheelmen, left city hall yesterday at 3:55 a. m., rode to Philadelphia city hall and finished the return journey at 12:10 a. m., riding the distance in the elapsed time of eighteen hours and seven minutes. The record breaker's papers were properly checked. His time, therefore, supplants the old record of nineteen hours and fifty-six minutes, held by Charles Stanbach, of the Manhattan Bicycle club for over two years. Peitchee stopped half an hour at Philadelphia, twenty minutes at Trenton and fifteen minutes at Newark. He had a bad fall and was sick twice during his ride.
