Congress having successfully gotten through the winter without doing anything, adjourned Thursday morning at 3 o'clock, and the members are on their way home to explain to their constituents how they did it.

Ashe of Anson and Jao. H. Dillard of the evil under witch we labor, Guilford, Associates. How this ticket was nominated our report of the proceeding of the Convention, published in another column abundantly show.

Of the gentlemen who compose our ticket, it is unnecessary for us to speak at length. They are known to the people of the State and their nomination on the 13th day of June is merely the precursor of their triumphant election on the 1st day of August. But while fuls me culogies are as unnecessary in the present case as they are repulsive to our tiste, we must be permitted to say that the gentlemen named for our next Suprome Court are upright, honorable gentiemen and good lawyers, and while we, h ving strengously advocated another gentleman's name for a place on the ticket, will not stultify ourselves by sayjug it is the best ticket which could have been framed, we will say that it is a very much better ticket than we feared might be selected under this infernal a stem of electing judges by the popular vote, and that we will give it the same hearty support, in case of organized opchosen by ourselves.

Supreme Beach should be given one to of San Stefano. and to the East nothing is, while not ers. generally matter for wonder, in the present instance a little astonishing. But the truth is that we of the East have allowed ourselves to be made mere bewers of woods and drawers of water for so long, that it ought no longer to cause us of politics falling to our share, but even without hope of having the shackles of a worse than Hyptian bondage removed from our limbs.

In the district for which the nomination was made the negroes are in a hopeless majority, and the nomination of Collins goes far to show that all hopes were futile, that by process of time the newly enfranchised citizens would be made alive to the duties and responsities imposed upon them by their investiture with the right of suffrage. In fact it appears that so far from being accented by a desire to nomicate and elect a fit

THE ROANOKE NEWS. man for the position which their preponderance of numbers rendered them alone able to do, the colored citizens have chosen to place a man without property as sole guardian of the rights of the property of the district, they have chosen to place a man who is so far as is known, utterly without legal learning in a position which only a lawyer of the highest attainments could fill satisfactorily, and they have chosen to put a man who has never been heard in the court house in a position the duties of which will force bim to meet in foreusic debate the ablest orators of the State. Such a course is error amounting to crime.

There is, however, one means by which the people of the district can be relieved from the incushs which the nomination of Collins for solicitor casts upon us.
