MEMORIES.

Do you remember sister, The June when we used to play— The old gray rock with its rascal steps, And the tree we called our 'shay'?

SPEECH OF W. E. DANIEL.

It is told in history that the pangs endured by Mary, the beautiful Queen of Scotland, on leaving the vine-clad hills of sunny France, were greater than any this unfortunate woman was called upon to bear throughout her troubled life.

MANURES.

How can we maintain and increase the production of our farms? The formation of manures and their proper application to the soil so as best to promote the growth and maturity of our crops has for a long period been a prolific theme of discussion among our people.

TRAPS.

Under this caption the funny man of the New York Times—and a very funny man he is—tells a story, the pith of which is in the following extract:

THE HORSE AND HIS RIDER.

In the history of Rome it is related that in 361, B. C., a great chasm opened in the middle of the Forum which it was found impossible to fill.

THE WHITE ELEPHANT.

The oldest of the white elephants, which, the Times of India says, was born in 1770 died in its temple of Bangkok in November last.

SUNDAY IN ROME.

There is no Sunday law in Rome, and everybody does as he feels inclined, whether it be to work or to play, though there was very little work doing to-day, except among the vendors of eatables.

GRANGE MEETING.

According to adjournment Roanoke District Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, met at Roxobel, Bertie county, N. C. Saturday, 28th of June, W. W. Mitchell, Esq., of Hertford, was called to the chair and H. J. Beale of Northampton was chosen Secretary.

PRAYERS.

Prayers need not be fine. I believe God abhors the prayers. If a person asks charity of you in elegant sentences he is not likely to get it.
