Let the colored voters take faith that is in us.

Of the gentlemen who have been named in connection with the Senatorship is one whom, with or without reason, the people of North Carolina have from his early manhood delighted to honor. Elected when still almost a boy to the National House of Represenwhere he remained until the people necessary now to speak. The history of his administration is written in the hearts of the soldiers of North Caro-Hon. To his prudent foresight it was due, that, while the soldiers of other States tracked the frozen ground over which they, staggered with blood from the different cardidates for their bare feet, the North Carolina troops marched erect and unflinching. well fed, well clothed and well shad The record of this man since the war is fresh in the memories of all. How elected Senator in 1870 he was, not on his own behalf, but in behalf of North Carolina, an applicant at the door of the Senate. Haw he was refused admission and returning resigned his commission to the Legislature from which it was derived. We all remember how he was again chosen Senator in 1872, and we all remember how the wishes of the people were again thwarted. We all remember how in 1876, when the sky was darkly overcast and mutterings of thus. der were heard from every quarter of the political horizon, this man was called to the helm of his party with an unani nity before unheard of. And we all remember how he upheld the banner of Democracy throughout that campaign, and carried it to such a victory as was the annihilation of Radicalism in North Carolina.

THE WORLD AND THE SOUTH. While at old Point last week we had the pleasure of meeting Hon. Thomas L Sacad, in days gone by a member of the Confederate Congress, and now a member of the editorial corps of the New York World. Mr. Spead is travelling through the South with the view of fielding out the needs and wishes of our people, so that the World may be enabled to become, more thoroughly than ever, the representative paper of the National Domicracy The News searchly wishes Mr. Stead God speed in his work. The truth is that for years the World has been the only really Damocratic paper in New York and now with broader views and an infusion of new blond it is becoming a really representative paper.

TOTAL ABSTRACTICE SAVING WINE TILL IT RIPESS.

There is a curious story about some native

There is a curious story about some native wines which are extensively advertised nowadays, and have only recently been put upon the market. Dr. Underhild, the well-known grape-grower of Croton Point, died in 1871. Some of his heirs entertained temperance views of such extreme kind, that they were unwilling to allow the stock of wines then on hand to be sold or any more to be made. The grapes have sometimes been sent to market, and sometimes left to decay upon the vines. It is only now that the other heirs have succeeded in arranging for a settlement of the estate and the sale of the wines on hand. Among these is a wine of the vintage of 1854, described as a "Sweet Union Port," but suggesting the Imperial Tokay more than any other European wine, and being wholly unlike any other wine of American growh. Its purity, age and mellowness are remarkable, and both physicians and wine-fanciers have a special interest in it as the oldest native wine now accessible in any considerable sometime.

oldest native wine now accessible in any con siderable quantity. The whole stock is in the hands of the well-known wholesale grocery house of the Thurbers.—N. Y. Trièmae, Nov. 19, 1877. The above speaks for itself, but we would add that this is the pure juice of the grape, neither drugged, liquored nor matered; that it has been ripened and mellowed by age, and for medicinal or sacramental purposes it is mesurpassed. It can be obtained from most of the leading Druggists throughout the United States, and at wholesale from the undersigned, who will forward descriptive pamphlet, free of charge, on application,
