

COMMUNICATED.

WELDON, N. C., October 25th, 1878. In your last issue I noticed a communication signed "Questioner"...

LOCAL.

Ten buggies were sold in Weldon last Saturday.

Fresh Bread, Cakes, Buns and Crackers every day at the Bakery.

Tickets to the Fair over the A. & N. C. R. R. will be sold at 3 cents per mile each way.

188 bales of cotton were received at the Seaboard & Roanoke Co's. warehouse on Saturday last.

We learn Mr. Samuel Ives who lived in the upper portion of this county fell dead from heart disease on Sunday last.

Said the Nurse to the Doctor: "Sure sir, I only know of one good medicine for the Baby, and that is Dr. Ball's Baby Syrup."

A lawyer in town says: Colonel W. L. Saunders' head is so long that barbers ought to charge double price for shaving him.

Ask your druggist whether Shipper's Indian Yergolite is really an article of merit and whether it will destroy and expel worms.

BRETT BARKLEY of the firm of J. L. Bass & Co., will have posters on the hall shell during the Fair. Their restaurant will be open day and night during the week.

THANKS to Mr. Wm. Alderman Secretary for complimentary ticket to the Cumberland county Fair to be held at Fayetteville, N. C., on 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th of November.

THE regulations for the Target practice at the Fair Grounds, on Wednesday next, the 30th, will be determined by the commanders of the different Teams, on the day of shooting.

THERE will be a German at the Weldon Hotel on Thursday night the 31st, under the leadership of our accomplished friend and splendid gentleman, Mr. W. D. Ayres, of Richmond.

We have a lady friend who is the bravest woman in the world. We are credibly informed that she actually killed a mouse a few days ago, and what is more wonderful still, she only screamed once.

You need not neglect your business when troubled with a cough or cold, if you only use a reliable remedy at once. Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup is the best remedy we know of. Price only 20 cents.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Laura Squires, wife of Mr. Julius Squires of Northampton county, on Sunday last. Her husband and friends have our sympathy in their bereavement.

The picnic shooting for handsome Beach leader will take place at the Fair Grounds next Tuesday the 29th, at 12 o'clock. The match will be conducted according to the rules of the "Richmond Shooting Club."

TAX papers are requested to read the notice of appointments made by Maj. L. M. Long, Tax Collector for the county. They may save themselves much trouble by meeting him at the different places mentioned.

THE Board of Commissioners have passed an ordinance forbidding the erection of booths on our streets during the Fair. This is gratifying intelligence, our ears will not now be deafened with the cries of vendor of trifling wares as has heretofore been the case.

THANKS to our old friend Dr. Clements of Gaston for the kind invitation to dine with him on yesterday. Labor non voluit tunc, while we thought of the splendid dinner our friends were enjoying, while we puzzled our brain to find something to please a fastidious reading public.

WEATHER REPORT.—Notes of the weather for the past 4 weeks:

Highest Temperature 64°
Lowest " 49°
Mean " 55°
Prevailing Wind Northerly.

Amount of Rainfall 4.87 inches.
First Frost on the 15th.

FINE CLOTHING AND MILLINERY.—Our friends will no doubt read with pleasure the notice of M. E. Kull of Petersburg Va., who will be at W. H. Brown's store during the Fair with a large stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods. Also Millinery—which will be sold at Petersburg prices.

A GOOD IDEA.—We understand our popular Weldon barber, Wm. McNeil has had a nice shop fitted up at the fair grounds for the accommodation of visitors to the fair. Bill is an excellent barber and will be pleased to serve his friends. Call on him if you want to feel good and look well. He will also have his shop open below the Postoffice.

We are requested by Maj. L. M. Long Secretary of the R. & T. R. A. S., to state to ministers of the gospel attending the Fair, who have not received complimentary tickets, that they can procure them by applying to him at his office at the Fair grounds. Maj. Long fears, he may possibly have overlooked some ministers in the great press of business connected with the Fair.

The Norfolk Guards will visit our Fair and compete for the flag. We learn it is a fine company, and under excellent discipline.

The Assistant Marshals are requested to assemble, mounted, in front of R. W. Brown's Drugstore, on Tuesday the 29th at 8 o'clock A. M.

This section was visited by a violent and disagreeable rain storm on Tuesday night last. The wind howled dismally all night. Holes was on a bedpost.

MARRIED.—At Christ Church Raleigh on Tuesday the 23rd inst., Miss Bessie A. Bachelor only daughter of Hon. Jos. B. Bachelor to Mr. Harry Jacob of Wilmington.

MOST SLEAZE has no hand "O'd Cabinet Whiskey" in bottles ready for the Fair. Everybody knows where to find him in the Bottom at his Lager Beer saloon, under Mr. J. T. Evans store.

ATTENTION ROANOKER LIGHT INFANTRY.—You are hereby commanded to meet at your armory in full uniform on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

I have for sale cheap—20 Barrels Apples, New Raisins, Currants, Citron, Digs, Nuts, Oranges and Lemons, also Cigars, Tobacco and Snuff, and a nice lot of Toys for the little ones. Call and see me. V. J. NAW.

MR. J. J. DANIEL, having rented the confidentially stands at the Fair grounds, will have on hand all sorts of nice things for his friends and the public. Any fellow wanting to please his sweetheart mightly should call on John.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Southern Musical Combination. This troupe will appear at the Literary Hall every night during the Fair week. They are highly spoken of and we bespeak for them tall honors.

Don't forget that Mrs. J. B. Jones, will have on hand next week, at Mrs. J. T. Evans store a handsome stock of Millinery &c. for sale. Also she will be prepared to embellish flowers, Sweethearts and boxes ought by all means to preserve in their pristine beauty, the little bequests received during the Fair.

We noticed on Thursday the shipment of a lot of car wheels turned out at the Roanoke Agricultural works at this place, for the Scotland Neck R. R. They will compare favorably with similar work from Richmond, we think it a sensible thing to Mr. Tillery in patronizing home institutions.

In addition to the regular forces under the command of Genl. Wyche and the stable trained by Anthony Hall Mr. Whitaker of Charlotte has arrived at the Fair Grounds with the following regiments: Sautie by Patriot dan Faany Fisher Guy Manning by Lynchburg dan Kate Mason. Brown Colt by Lynchburg dan Lost Cause by Revenue Ch. C. by Planet dan Merry Wave. Ch. P. by Abd-el-Koper, dan Notre Dame by L. xington and two unnamed colts of unknown pedigree. We have now on the ground all the races that were at Raleigh and in addition to these a large number of horses will be here from Baltimore.

RULES FOR HURDLE TOURNAMENT.—Distance, 150 yards; time to be determined by Knights. Distance divided as follows: First hurdle, 25 yards from start, 1st ring 25 yards from 1st hurdle, 2nd ring 25 yards from 1st ring, 3rd hurdle 25 yards from 2nd ring, 3rd ring 25 yards from 3rd hurdle, 3rd hurdle 25 yards from 3rd ring. Height of hurdle 3 1/2 feet. Diameter of rings 2 inches. Weapons to be used as usual. Number of tilts 3. Entrance fee $5.00. Coronation ball Friday night.

All Knights wishing to enter will communicate with the Chief Marshal Capt. J. G. Lockhart.

The first prize is a fine thoroughbred horse, the second a fine saddle and bridle.

PREMIUM ENGINES.—The gold medal offered by the N. C. State Agricultural Society for the "best portable engine for cotton gins, corn mills &c., at work on the ground," was on yesterday awarded Messrs. Wm. E. Tanner & Co., of Richmond, Va., for their beautiful 8 horse horizontal engine No. 385. For excellence of design, completeness of construction and taste of finish, this machine cannot easily be surpassed and it should be the pride of all true Southerners that we have such manufacturers in our midst. Our people should encourage such, especially as their prices are said to be as moderate as can be obtained anywhere else.

The above was copy from the Raleigh News, and at the same time call special attention to the advertisement of these enterprising gentlemen, in to-days issue of the News. At the Raleigh Fair they took premiums over all competitors, and as an evidence of the popularity of their engines, both were sold on the spot. We desire to call attention also to a grave mistake made in getting up the list of premium lists for the Fair. The publisher by a gross piece of carelessness used the plate of another manufacturer in the advertisement of the Messrs. Tanner & Co., giving them a cut of a vertical engine while their cut was made to adorn the card of Messrs. George Page & Co., of Baltimore. We desire to notice this particularly, as the Messrs. Tanner & Co., have long since abandoned the manufacture of vertical engines after convincing proof of their inferiority as compared with the horizontal engines they now offer to the public. Two of these engines will be on exhibition next week at our Fair in charge of Mr. Jon. M. Bond, of the Metropolitan Works. Mr. Bond is himself a competent machinist and will show off his engines to advantage.

5000 Bales of Cotton Wanted.—Highest cash prices paid. J. T. GOUGH, Weldon, N. C.

To Open Subscribers.—Our delinquent subscribers are hereby warned that their subscriptions are not settled by the first of December their names will be erased from the list and accounts placed in the hands of an officer for collection.

Time table of excursion train, on October 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st and November 1st, 1878, for Weldon Fair.

Table with columns: Leave, Destination, Time. Includes routes to Franklin, Nottoway, Handson, Newsoms, Boykins, Branchville, Margarettsville, Seaboard, Garys, Active Weldon, and back to Franklin, Nottoway, Handson, Newsoms, Boykins, Branchville, Margarettsville, Seaboard, Garys, and Active Weldon.
