We copy the following letter from the Charlotte Observer :

We long ago intimated our opinion to be that the Republicans would bring out independent Democratic candidates for State offices and thus seek to demoralize our party. Whether this correspondent of our Charlotte namesake has any particular information or not as to the man, we do not doubt that he correctly reports what Judge Tourgee said on the sufject.

There is only one part of the letter that we choose to refet to in detail, and that because it would seem to require some notice at our hands; we refer to that statement made by the Republicans at Washington, that while their independent Democratic candidate can command the support of one leading paper at Raleigh, the Times, he also has a controlling influence which can silence the other Democratic daily here.
