NORTH CAROLINA CHIMINAL DIGEST. -Messrs, Edwards, Broughton & Co., have in press a book which we can confidentially state will prove indespensable to the legal profession and of great benefit to such justices of the peace as care to post themselves upon the criminal law. It will contain a digest of every decision upon criminal law made by the Supreme Court published, and a compilation of public criminal statutes. Battle's Revisal has been amunded to so considerable an extent, and there have been so many statutes creating additional offences, that it is now necessary to examine a half dozen volumes of the acts before one can be certain about the tecus of any statute. The criminal digest has been very careand subdivisions containing all the decisions found in 1: 2 and 4 Battle's Digest 5 (Bailey's) Digest and 80 and 81 N. C. and the statutes have been accuratel compiled. The work is by Mr. F. H. Busbee, of the Releigh bar, and will be completed before January 1st. It will contain about five hundred pages and wil be sold, we learn at the price of $4.50 A fuller announcement will shortly be made.
