

T. W. MASON. AFFORNEY AT LAW. GARYSBURG, N. C.

Notice has been served that the seats of fi-teen or sixteen Democrats from the South are to be contested when the House of Represen-tives meets. This is an old and a familiar gauss and means that the Solid South is to be smitten, hip and thigh, with any hammer, be it that of Thor or of a tinker, which may be av itable, so that the power of the solid South may be broken.
