

MY BROWN EYED LASSIE.

There's no sweeter sight than
A young girl's face when she
Looks up at you with her
Eyes full of love and joy.

Her hair is like a golden ring,
And her smile is like a song,
That fills your heart with joy,
And makes you feel so young.

Yet sometimes she will cry,
And her eyes will fill with tears,
For she will miss you when you're
Not there to cheer her.

And when you're home again,
She'll run to meet you with a smile,
And her arms will be around you,
And her heart will be your home.

SPRITELY SPARKS.

The old time melody,
High thro' a church steeple,
Sounded the bells of joy,
And the people were glad.

It was a merry time,
When the organ played so true,
And the people were glad,
And the bells were rung so true.

For it is the melody of life,
That makes us glad and true,
And the people were glad,
And the bells were rung so true.

It was a merry time,
When the organ played so true,
And the people were glad,
And the bells were rung so true.

For it is the melody of life,
That makes us glad and true,
And the people were glad,
And the bells were rung so true.

It was a merry time,
When the organ played so true,
And the people were glad,
And the bells were rung so true.

For it is the melody of life,
That makes us glad and true,
And the people were glad,
