THE ROANOKE NEWS

W. W. HALL, J. W. ALEXANDER, } PROPRIETORS.

THURSDAY . . APRIL 27, 1882.

THE bill of exceptions in the Guiteau case will be argued by Reid alone on May the 10th. Mr. Scoville has formally withdrawn from the case.

MR. BLAINE suffers from rheumatic gout and it is reported that he will seek relief in Europe, so the gossip mongers have come to the conclusion that he will be a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives.

WE return thanks to Gen. W. H. Cox for a copy of his speech in opposition to the tariff, made in the House of Representatives on the 11th inst. The speech, according to our opinion, is on the right side of the question, and does credit to our distinguished Representative.

IT is stated that Senator Mahone has bought up many Virginia bonds, the price of which has been greatly reduced under the Readjuster Administration and that he expects to make a fortune by the advance of those securities under a decision of the United States Supreme Court.

MCLEAN, who fired at the Queen of England on March 2nd has been tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. The trial last a very short time. The whole trial shows a decided contrast to the trial of Guiteau and does not speak well for the United States, not because of acquittal merely, but because decorum was preserved and there were no sensational scenes throughout the trial, and because too, of the brevity of the proceedings.

IT is intimated that the Virginia Legislature will be called together in extra session during the summer in time to redistrict the State before the Congressional election. In the meantime every effort will be made to influence the constituents of the Big Four to instruct those gentlemen to vote for all Readjuster measures. The campaign has already begun and everything will be done to force them from their Independent position.

A scheme is before Congress to give to Alaska a territorial government. For what reason is not known except it be, possibly, to make offices for some who have not been paid for their services rendered the party. The whole of Alaska has not more than a thousand white inhabitants and doubtless they can take care of themselves. As for the Indians it has for a long time been known that the less government they have the better are they for it.

THE revolt against Cameron in Pennsylvania is growing and bids fair to acquire dangerous proportions before the election. The latest recruit is Senator Mitchell who has joined the Independents. Mr. Mitchell when elected was said to be under the Cameron influence but his recent defection shows that he has backbone when he wants it. Cameron is not the boss his father was.

THE Senate in Executive session on Monday confirmed the appointment of T. N. Cooper to be Revenue collector for the Sixth District of this State. Our Senators had prevented the confirmation for some time, but in consideration of the fact that the Senate passed the resolutions of Senator Vance providing for an investigation of the affairs of the District they on Monday, made no opposition, refrained from voting and Mr. Cooper was confirmed by a vote of 22 to 18.

WE see many papers advocating the claims of as many men for the nomination for Congressman at large, but, we believe, not a word has been said about Judges for the Supreme and Superior courts. Is this because the press has no favorites or because the present Judges are considered as having the first claims on the places they now occupy or because our brethren think that the Judicial offices should be looked upon as not strictly political offices?

WHEN it is remembered where the idea originated, and who encourages the formation of a liberal party in this State, no Democrat will surely allow himself to be deceived by this new device of the enemy. Since the purpose of the present administration has been so often proclaimed to be to foster discussion in the Democratic party, and use the patronage of the government to break down its control of the Southern States, no Southern Democrat can surely need to be further warned against this shallow device to divide and weaken us in the coming struggle for party supremacy.—Wilson Advance.

We have received the first number of the Original English Chatterbox from the American publishers, Messrs. Estes & Lauriat, Boston, Mass. This is the best children's magazine in the world containing 32 pages, and 16 full-page illustrations each month.

It has a world-wide reputation and more than a million children in England and America read its charming stories.

To receive four dollars' worth for one you have only to send one dollar directly to the publishers, and they will send postpaid, Chatterbox; and to every new subscriber a beautiful steel engraving (14 x 24 inches, price $1.000) of a little girl posting off her first letter, and entitled "Dog's and Carry one."

THE Star speaking of the nominations to be made by the Democrats this year gives some wholesome advice which we hope will be followed by the leaders of the party. It says:

Let us go back to old usage. Let us have a fair, frank discussion of the claims of men, and a full survey of the whole field so that every consideration can be duly weighed and interests can be regarded. Let the old armed be answer. Let no cliques or rings come up with slates made out and offices distributed among themselves. That will bring defeat. But let all be fair and above board, and let men be chosen upon their merits only. Our Old North is strong at one time and weak at another. A man who would make a good race in 1880 might make by reason of changed circumstances a poor race in 1882. Let every Democrat feel more in his heart for the good of his party, and his state than for the promotion of some personal friend who may be really without merit or popularity.

THE people living in the lower end of this county have at last realized the hope of fifteen years. The Railroad to that place from Halifax was completed last week. A schedule will in a short time be made and our friends will be in communication with the outside world.

Property has already increased in value and the business and population will increase also. That part of Scotland Neck has a fine back country to support it and in a few years will be a considerable place. It has always had good society, churches, health and good schools. Now with the addition of the Railroad it will offer every inducement to the people seeking desirable localities. It is even now rapidly building up.

The road reaches a country which is considered one of the most fertile sections of the state and produces which has sought the markets in other ways will now be drawn to Scotland Neck as the greater facilities for shipping. We congratulate our friends on the realizations of their hopes thus far and hope and believe that their further expectations will not be disappointed.

In all probability the road will be extended to Roll Quick, a village nearly half way between Scotland Neck and Tarboro which is situated in a rich, prosperous neighborhood, though at present there is no definite purpose of the kind that we have heard of.

THE Free Lance thinks that the Congressman at large should be taken from the Second District. It says:

Without any disparagement to the claims of the West and Centre, we are frank to admit that the Congressman at large should come from the Second District.

The great counties composing that district for years have been suffering all the evils of negro rule. The Democracy of that District have for a long number of years been battling bravely for the cause with scarcely a recognition of their services, and none of the party honors which have followed the efforts of the party in other sections.

They have ever been true to party allegiance and party discipline in the face of odds which would have seemed overwhelming to men of less true steel. Election after election they have rallied their ranks with the steadiness of veterans and marched to the fight with the sure knowledge staring them in the face that they were to reap none of the fruits of victory which fell to the share of their more fortunate brethren in other sections of the State. * * *

The Second District can boast within its limits Democrats the peers of any in North Carolina—in talents, honor, capability and length of service—men who will, worthily represent a great State in the Halls of Congress, and from such men we think this nominee should be chosen.

THE Wilmington Review says:

The Washington Republican has term to remark that "the Republican party has no voters to exchange for Democratic Independents." We are sorry. We weep. We had been hugging ourselves with the idea that we might trade off a few independents on one side for some straight-outs on the other. We prefer a plain, unadulterated article. We wouldn't give one good, honest, out-and-out Republican for a dozen independent Democrats. We don't hanker after his Satanic Majesty's company, but if we must have it we'll take the old gentleman in "propria personæ," horns, hoofs and all, and without any adulteration whatever.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 19 1882.

At a meeting of the Central Executive Committee of the Democratic party held this day, at which the following members were present: Octavius Coke, chairman; Paul B. Means, L. D. Stevenson, C. M. Barber, Richard H. Battle, Jr., Gen. H. Snow and J. J. Litchford, secretary, it was moved to call a meeting of the State Executive Committee to be held in this city on Wednesday, the third day of May, for the purpose of fixing the time and place for holding a State convention of the Democratic party, and transacting such other business as may come before it. A full attendance is desired.

By order of the committee.

J. J. LITCHFORD, Sec'y.

The following gentlemen compose the State Executive Committee:

First district—T. R. Jernigan, J. E. Moore and R. W. Wharton.

Second district—A. J. Galloway, R. H. Peebles, Benjamin Askew and Reid Henry R. Bryan.

Third district—Appleton Oakamith, Isaac P. Holley, H. B. Short and D. H. McLean.

Fourth district—W. H. Yarborough, J. M. Moring, J. S. Battle and N. B. Cannady.

Fifth district—A. E. Henderson, David S. Reid, M. S. Robins and C. F. Lowe.

Sixth district—J. G. Hall, S. J. Pemberton, John D. Shaw and W. J. Yates.

Seventh district—R. Z. Linney, W. B. Green, J. C. Welborn and G. A. Bingham.

Eighth district—Cope Elias, R. M. Furman, B. F. Logan and A. M. Erwin.

THE Asheville Citizen says:

A gentleman recently from Washington city informs us that members in Congress, by whose advice the Council was mainly controlled, have very much changed their views, and are almost ready to admit they made a mistake in counselling against the calling of an extra session of the Legislature. Whether the Council will be thus candid in confessing it error is very doubtful. The arguments in favor of such call grow in strength every day, yet as it seems to be a matter "res adjudicata," we have ceased to agitate it as waste of words.

BANKING HOUSE OF N. C. SNYDER,
GRENADA, MISS. March 20th, 1880.

HALL'S SAFE AND LOCK CO., Louisville, Ky.

GENTS:—I feel myself fully in writing to you of the merits of the Fire and Burglar-Proof safe you sold me about three years ago, and which was subjected to trial on the 3rd of November with a conflagration more than twenty-six hours in progress and of three days. My Banking-house, frame building with office adjoining, was burned with their contents, and of the house, fit at its ground weight, it broke through the floor and was buried in the cellar. The combined forces of fire and water did not reach the inner door, and was immersed upon the safe, forming a solid mass of ruins. Upon opening it, which was done in the presence of many, but were astonished to find my money, papers, &c., in perfect preservation. Not a scorch upon the leather of the Burglar Bar was observed. The locks worked. Some of the interior fastenings melted, but otherwise the safe was good, unbroken, while that of all the rooms and packages was from the intensity of the heat, reduced to a mass away from which the fire consumed, and when opened by neighbors I feel that the boy in whom, and who was intrusted with a powerful pen knife, was afraid if he was not saved. His reply was, "no, for father had the key in his pocket." So with me, I had a Hall safe, and I felt sure the contents were safe and without anxiety, left the building. My confidence in the safe remained unshaken, and I have since purchased another of your Fire and Burglar Proof safes, and I feel sure that in the event of the occurrence are already adopted. I would not be satisfied with any other safe than yours.

Yours truly,
N. C. SNYDER.
