

THE ROANOKE NEWS.

THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1882.

STATE AFFAIRS.

There is a post office in this State named "Units."

The Supreme Court has adjourned until October term.

Wayne county is shipping peaches and the crop is said to be large.

Jackson county recommends Judge Bennett for Congressman at large.

Batts of Edgecombe lost sixty sheep in one day last week by dogs.

Oneal Democrat endorses Shuckford for Congress in the 3rd District.

Charlotte military Institute and Davidson college "commence" this week.

C. M. Price got 25 votes in the liberal Convention for Congressman at large.

Washington county endorsed Jas. E. Shepard for Judge of the 1st District.

The Raleigh Christian Advocate has a complete new outfit and is much improved.

The Edenton and Elizabeth City Telegraph Company has declared a dividend of 37½ per cent.

Pitt county tax is 60 cents on the poll, and 20 cents on the 100 dollars valuation on property.

Judge Gilliam is highly complimented for the many in which he transacts the business of his courts.

W. P. Canaday was unanimously nominated by Congress by the Republicans of the Wilmington District.

Lenoir Republicans endorse Hubbs for Congress from this District and Dockery for Congressman at large.

Pace Institute, Wake Forest college, St. Mary's school and Trinity college all ended their sessions last week.

F. H. Darby refuses to accept the nomination for Superior Court tendered him by the coalition Convention.

Greene county Republicans endorse Col. Humphrey for Congress from this District, so do Wayne Republicans.

A colored girl in Richmond county recently found a tin box containing $2,420, while raking up straw in the woods.

The graduated class of Chapel Hill offered a silver cup to the first child born to its members. Nice but premature.

G. S. Barrett eschewed Col. Ike young a seat at the independent Convention in Raleigh last week and got knocked down.

Sunday afternoon two negroes, one named Cunningham, the other Jim Winston, engaged in a fight at Franklinton. With a razor Cunningham cut Winston's throat, making a fatal wound.

Rev. T. M. Jones, Jas. A. Odell, Jas. M. Mustard, Julius A. Gray, J. H. Ferrar and Julian S. Carr, have purchased the Greensboro Female College and will continue it as heretofore under the auspices of the Methodist Church.

Rev. A. G. Dixon, of Asheville, has been elected President of Wake Forest college. He is 27 years old. The trustees wanted Dr. Hoffman of this country, but he declined. They came near taking him any way.

The candidates for Judge in the Second District are R. B. Peebles of Northampton, J. B. Battcher of Wake and Fred Phillips of Edgecombe. There are no doubt some names which are not yet known to the public.

One of the Georgia delegates to the judicial Convention at Lumberton, N.C., is a negro.

Two people of Allerton, Mass., are largely experimenting in silk culture. The worms are fed on orange orange leaves.

Alligator hills have become in such demand that many alligator farms are being started in Louisiana and Florida.

At Tiffin, O., a young couple, neither of whom is of age, have just been divorced. They probably quarreled over their candy.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES.—At the Repub- can Judicial Convention held in Raleigh on Monday, John A. Moore, of this county, was nominated for Judge and Jas. A. Collins for Superior. Both nominations were made by acclamation.

Drew.—On Wednesday of last week, in Richmond, Mr. W. H. Dix, of this county, had been ill for a long time and went to Richmond, to undergo an operation. He succeeded in the removal of his tonsils and died on Friday evening.

The Nashville American says: All the crops in Tennessee are in a magnificent condition except cotton, which will average from sixty to eighty per cent.

An enterprising Texas proposes to start a sugar farm. He will raise sugar for his factory, will feed them on grass and expects three crops of feathers a year.

One Georgia farmer has 24,000 sweet potato plants set out in three and a half acres of ground, and says the produce will outlast the surplus of the best cotton in value.

Several Alabama farmers report some damage to cotton by cut-worms, a means of damage heretofore unknown and they expect it will have a very serious effect on some fields.

At a recent meeting at Salado, Texas, the grower was six feet high and weighed 100 lbs., while the female was only four feet eleven inches high and weighed 60 lbs. She is now 18 years old.

Mr. Rogers (Ga.) concedes the best evidence that the South presents the best field for cotton manufacturers in the fact that Southern cotton is generally on fall time, while Northern cottons have to wait for their production.

New Enterprise, Miss., railroad laborers, while grazing, eat through the earth into water, on investigation, to be a series of lateral caves of vast extent, roofed with rock, and carpeted with rank and marvelous white moss.

The Lynchburg (Va.) Almanac says: There are now living in Lynchburg a small gentleman and his wife who began married life here in 1822, and have had a child, a grandchild or a great-grandchild every year since, and they have an additional for good measure scattered along these sixty years.

Wat. Minas, of Lynnont, Tenn., was bound to his wife for fornicating with a man in the penitentiary. He accordingly married the daughter of his wife's second husband, his own step-daughter. He thus became his own step-son, his wife's brother, his own father, son of his wife and mother of his father-in-law.

The building and grounds of the Greenboro Female College, containing 41 acres of land, was sold and bid in to Col. Thomas M. Holt for the N. C. Railroad Company for the sum of $30,000. Dr. T. M. Jones ran the property up to $10,000. A transfer of the property was afterwards made to Rev. T. M. Jones, and Messrs. James Odell, James M. Mustard, Julius A. Gray, J. H. Ferrar, W. F. Kornegay, E. B. Borden, Julian S. Carr, and others. The college will continue as heretofore under the auspices of the Methodist church.

NEWSY DOTS.

CREAM OF OUR MAIL.

Vicksburg places for cotton factory.

Red rice, to be bridged at Shreveport, La.

Dallas, Tex., is to be lighted by electricity.

The crop of small fruits in the South will be immense.

SOIL CULTURE in the South gives promise of great results.

WATERMELONS and tomatoes flood the Galveston markets.

A coil four feet in height was recently filled at Vienna, Ga.

Emily Quino has just died at Wheeling, W. Va., aged 112 years.

HUNDREDS of hogs are dying in some parts of Georgia and Florida.

In a single school in Charleston, S. C., there are 1,400 negro pupils.

SPEAKER REEDER makes his rulings as if he believed in Bob Ingersoll.

ONIONS fifteen inches in circumference are quoted as Georgia enterprises.

The out crop in some parts of Georgia averages 100 bushels to the acre.

A crate of Florida peaches sold in New York at seventy-five cents apiece.

AN Atlanta fruit factory makes large shipments of socks to New York.

ALLIGATION fat is now used for cooking purposes in some parts of Florida.

At a recent wedding at Wytheville, Va., the bride was only twelve years old.

A devil fish weighing 3,000 pounds was recently captured at Tampa, Fla.

A capital rat-tail at Trenton, Tenn., has lived nine months without food or water.

FOUR children were poisoned in New Orleans by eating pop corn colored with salicylic acid.

FORSTERS alligator skins are offered for sale at the store of Amerius, Ga., at ten cents apiece.

It took a minister just twenty-seven minutes to baptize 102 colored converts at Watkinsville, Ga.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kingsbury will pronounce a eulogy on the life and character of the Rev. Thomas G. Lowe. All these features will doubtless attract a large crowd, and we know that they will not be disappointed in their expectations. The Roanoke News will be represented.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT HAYWOOD.—We are requested to repeat the notice heretofore given that the economy of laying the cornerstone at Haywood's church will be performed on June 24th. The corner stone will be laid with Masonic honors, by Haywood Lodge assisted by other lodges in the county. At the same time Mr. T. B. Kings