NOW AND THEN!

In certain counties, mainly in the eastern part of the State, the negroes were and still are in an indisputable majority. In other counties they were in such large numbers, so near an absolute majority that, under the Canby system of County Government, with a handful of scalawags or carpet-baggers to help them, they had entire control. They sent whom they pleased to the Legislature, they elected whom they pleased as Commissioners to administer county affairs, to levy county taxes, and to control county expenditures. They elected whom they pleased to be magistrates and whom they pleased to have control of the public schools.

It is needless to say that the taxes thus levied under negro rule, and expended under negro rule; that the schools under negroes rule for white children, and the administration of justice for white men by negro officials, were all paid for by white men. It does not set well on a white man's stomach to be arrested by a negro constable and tried before a negro magistrate.

Of course, when taxes were levied and expended by men who paid none, the levy was heavy and the expenditure lavish. This would be true of men, whether white or black; but in addition to this, the average negro conscientiously believes he is honestly entitled to everything that he can get from the white man, and that get what he will, he will never balance his account against the white man for services rendered during slavery.

The records show that, under the three years of Democratic rule, the negro county expenses have been $314,594 less than under the three years under the Canby system. And not only this, but the Democrats with that much less money, paid 266.198 of former county indebtedness; and not only this, but they have brought county orders and county obligations generally from their various stages of depreciation, as shown in the table now before us, up to par, so that they are now almost universally worth dollar for dollar.

On Monday the election for Governor and Congressmen in Maine was held and resulted in a victory for the Republicans by a majority ranging from seven to nine thousand. This shows that Mr. Blaine is not without power still although he so signally failed two years ago.

Jeems Madison Leach, says that he wants to be a white man again, and not a hog. (His wish is commendable.) He began the campaign for the rads as a Leech, but when he arrived at Washington, this State, and the postmaster refused to furnish twenty dollars of which he was in need, Jeems disgustingly exclaimed "I shan't carry on this campaign at my expense. His appointments at Plymouth were allowed to go by default, and the former "nigger hater" left for some point North of Mason and Dixon's line.—Tarboro Southerner.

A true strengthening medicine and healt, restorer is Brown's Iron Bitters.

WHISKEY AS A BULWARK.

The Radical platform solemnly 'resolves that "education is the bulwark of American liberty," and in view of that important discovery resolves further that the children shall be educated as long as the whisky holds out to be taxed.

We venture to assert without the fear of successful contradiction that this is the first instance in the history of American liberty that one of its bulwarks was made of Whisky. Whisky is doubtless a good enough thing in its place and sometimes builds a man up wonderfully, they say, but its most ardent admirer may well doubt its usefulness as a bulwark of liberty or a basis of education.

But seriously, why should whisky alone be made to bear the whole expense of educating the children of the land? Is it just, is it equitable? More than that, can it be done? It done at all it must be done by Congress and not by the States. Is there any hope for that? None whatever. It comes to this then, that all the Radical party is willing to do in favor of education is to propose a scheme that it knows to be impracticable. This however is a fitting conclusion to the record of the Radical party in regard to educational matters in North Carolina. Read that record as printed in this paper.

There is much strife between the Liberals and the Republicans in this county. It is thought that an effort is being made to have a Liberal nominated for the Legislature to fill the place of Hardy who died a short time ago and it is thought by some that the Liberal speaking at Halifax on Tuesday was in furtherance of that object. If that be so and a Liberal is nominated there will be open war and we may look out for independent Republican candidates. We hear it stated that the Republicans will not submit to any Liberal in theirs and will resist to the utmost any effort to help the Liberals at their own expense. There is no more affiliation between the two factions than there is in Pennsylvania or New York and the half-dozen Liberal aspirants will have to take a back seat. Tuesday at Halifax Mr. Moore, Republican and Liberal candidate for the Superior Court Judge took but little notice of Capt. Price that we could observe, except to listen at his speech. Mr. O'Hara Republican candidate for Congress came on the same train with Capt. Price, but did not even walk down town with him to show him the way and there was nobody to meet him at all. In fact nobody seemed to know how or when he would arrive. A straw shows which way the wind blows.

GEN. DOCKERY.

Do the people remember when Holden was governor, when he trampled under foot the writ of habeas corpus—the only safety of the citizen—and, in the graphic language of Judge Fowle—"made it wadding for the muskets of Kirk and his marauders." Do the people of Cabarrus county remember the time when Judge Kerr, that pure man, that gifted man, and many other good and true men were arrest and packed into a felon's cell, and remained there 17 days in August, without having committed any offence whatever? Do they remember when we all went to Salisbury to the trial before Judge Brooks, and saw those men marched up the street with Kirk drawing them about as their master? Have we forgotten when the trial came on, the lawyers representing Holden and the State, said there was no charge against these men, those men who had been spending those long and weary days and nights in anguish in jail—without water enough to quench their burning thirst—but don't let us hear of these things again; madness lies in that direction.

What we want to call attention to is that when Holden declared military rule, and was organizing his forces, that Col. O. H. Dockery, the present Republican candidate for Congressman at large, was appointed Brigadier General by Gov. Holden. Democrats can you vote for him? This appointment retired Dockery to private life.—Concord Register.

The Star route trial which has occupied the attention of the public for sometime has nearly ended. The case is now with the jury. Some of the jurors informed the judge that offers of bribes had been made to some of them in the interest of the defendants. The counsel for the defence say they have no knowledge of any thing of the kind. Jury trial is not always as impartial as it might be, but when attempts at downright bribery are made it becomes serious in this country where trial by jury is looked upon as the great privilege of freemen.

The jury was finally brought into court and delivered a verdict of guilty as to Miner and Reedell, and not guilty as to Peck. There was no agreement as to Brady and the two Dorseys. It is possible that these latter will be again put upon trial. So ends the great Star route trial at a cost to the people of a hundred thousand dollars.

We print to-day a telegram from Gen. T. Ruffin, saying that O'Hara was endorsed for Congress in the Tarboro Convention. Yesterday was published a telegram from W. P. Williamson, saying that Hubbs was endorsed at the same place. A few days ago the Journal published the endorsement of Mr. Hubbs in Lenoir, under certificate from the chairman and secretary of the convention. Then follows a letter from another Republican in Lenoir, saying that no such resolution was introduced, and the secretary denied that he signed the certificate. We have this morning the endorsement of O'Hara at the Tarboro convention. It is very probable we will have another report from there in a day or two endorsing Mr. Hubbs.—Newbern Journal.

W. R. Vick's Buggies.—Mr. W. R. Vick is constantly putting up new and handsome buggies in all styles for sale. He gets his material from the best houses and warrants all his work. Any kind of buggy can be bought of him; open and top, elyptic, side-bar and other styles of springs, and the prices low enough to suit the most economical purchaser. Repairing well done with neatness and dispatch. Why go away from home, when you can get buggies here?

The editor of the Winston Republican was over at Lexington when Pruett spoke there on Tuesday. Everitt also spoke. The Republican says: "It proved a great mistake in putting up Everitt. Candor leads us to say we never heard a man so utterly demolished." He adds that Colonel Pruett "was powerful" at Lexington. This is Republican testimony.
