THE DEMOCRATIC MANIFESTO

We publish a number of extracts from the State press, bearing on the South and election, which will state your own people's opinion.

The issue of 1894, will be a general election, and we have nothing to say against Mr. Bryan's success. He is a good man. We have no objection, that he should be elected, and we have no objection, that he should be elected.

There is no doubt, that the people of the South, will elect Mr. Bryan, and we have nothing to say against it. We have no objection, that he should be elected, and we have no objection, that he should be elected.
