POMONA, N. C.,

Two and a half miles west of Greensboro N. C. The main line of the R. & D. R. R passes through the grounds and within 100 feet of the office. Salem trains make regular steps twice daily each way. There interested in Fruit and Fruit growing are cordially invited to inspect this the largest sursery in the State and one among the argest in the South. The proprietor has for many years vis-ited the leading Nurseries North and West and corresponded with those of foreign conntries, gathering every fruit that was exiculated to suit the South, both native and foreign. The reputation of Pomona Hill Nurseries is such that many agents going out from Greensboro, representing other ourseries, try to leave the impression that they are representing these nurseries. Why do they do it? Let the public an-SWCT.
