THE NEWS ENDORSED.

I cannot resist the temptation of writing and thanking you for your timely article in the last issue of your paper headed, "No Third Party Needed." you truly say, there is no need for any such party. All the reforms that the country demands can be had only through the Democratic party. A division of Democrats at this time in North. Carolina is worse than madness. In such a division no good could possibly come, but be against neighbor, friend opposed to friend, family divided against family and enmities created that would be lasting indeed Let all good men whether in the Alliance or out of it get together and devise some measures on which all who oppose the present system can unite and work for and all will be well. Continue your articles on that line and you will deserve the thanks of all good men. Yours,

LITTLETON NEWS.

Rev. T. J. Taylor lectured in the chapel, at the High School, to the 1, O. O. F., of this place on the 4th inst. It has never been the good fortune of the was frequently interrupted by long and loud applause. Mr. Taylor was intro-duced by S. G. Daniel, Past Grand.

The Rev. Mr. Troy is conducting a meeting at Bethel church aided by the Rev Mr. Jim Jones, of Western Carolina. I think there is a great deal of interest manifested in the meeting.

Mr. Jim Bobbitt is building a very nice store house on Main street. Mr. W. H. J. huston, of Faucetts, was in town a few days last week.

Capt. Rodgers, of Northampton, says his health has improved considerably since he has been here. He drinks the Panaces water and breathes pure air.

On the 5th inst., we were pained to hear of the death of Jimmie, the son of our townsman Mr. J. L. Shaw, which securred on the 4th, at Scaboard. The tears of the bereaved are dried in the hope that the white messenger of death has only taken him from a world of strife and trouble to a home of eternal bliss.

PANACEA SPRINGS.

The protracted meeting at Bethel, which continued eight days, closed on Sunday evening. A great deal of interest was manifested. The Rev. Mr Troy was assisted by the Rev. James Jones, the Qua-ker evangelist, who did most of the preach-ing and did it well. Rev. L. J. Holden preached once, and Dr. Burton, who perhaps, has preached more than any other living minister to this congregation, delivered two able sermons Saturday and Sunday respectively. There were six or eight converts and several penitents when the meeting closed.

Capt. Leech's two oldest daughters and Miss Eugenia Wiggins were thrown from a buggy by a runaway horse a few evenings since. Miss Wiggins had an ankle sprained, the Misses Leach were unburt.

Mrs. H. B. Moore, of Medoc, had her horse to run away with her at this place a short time ago. She was badly bruised, but not seriously hurt. Her little son was caught under the buggy when it turned over and was carried forty or fifty yards before the horse broke from the buggy, but little Harry was not hurt a bit and came out all right.

I sympathize truly with Capt. Shaw, of Littleton, in the death of his son Jummie, He was an excellent young man beloved by all who knew him

Buxton Thorne and Charlie Pullen left on the 3rd for the A. & M. College. W. E. Nicholson left the same day for Trinity, and several other boys and girls have gone to their schools from the neighborhood. Mrs. Edward T. Clark and children, of your town, are on a visit to relatives in this

Mr. Pullen has closed the hotel here it was not very profitable. His boys all going to school, the labor was too great for him to attend to both this one and the one in Littleton.
