

HOW THEY WOO.

THE MILLIONAIRE.

Sweet maid, if there is aught on earth That would fain make mine, And wealth can buy, yours it is, If you will be but mine.

THE POET.

Oh! maiden fair, could I but touch The strings with orphean melody, I'd sing your praise in many songs, If you would only favor me.

THE ARTIST.

Maiden, your form of Grecian mould, Your eyes of heavenly blue, Are painted on my inmost heart, And I would fain wed you.

THE EDITOR.

Sweet maid, your interesting style My heart doth potently affect, So I submit myself with "stamps" And hope that neither you'll reject.

THE FARMER.

Wal, Liza, I've just been think' how 'Twould save us both a heap of trouble, If you an' me would jist git hitched, An' try henceforth to travel double.

FOR DRUNKENNESS.

DR. KITTO CALLS IT THE PETROLEUM CURE—WONT STOP THE CIGARETTE HABIT.

A Racine, Wis., dispatch to the Chicago Tribune says:

Dr. Robert Andrew Kitto, of this city, has discovered a new treatment which he claims is a sovereign cure for drunkenness, similar in results to the bichloride of gold cure.

In Racine, where Dr. Kitto is well known, there is a diversity of opinion as to the value of his discovery. Certain of the people express the view that his cures have been of a doubtful character. Others, and in this latter class are many who have taken the treatment, and are therefore in a position to speak with a degree of authority, ascribe to the treatment all the virtues of the better known cure as administered at Dwight, Ill.

The prevalence of yellow fever in Jacksonville, Fla., in 1888 resulted in an offer made by congress for a formula which would prove a cure for this disease. Thousands of physicians in the United States prepared formulas, among the number being Dr. Kitto. As he explained the results of yellow fever, a weakness of the heart follows an attack, and in preparing a formula he thought would have the effect of stimulating the heart to its normal condition without unduly exciting any of the other organs of the body.

In cases of delirium from alcoholism, Dr. Kitto said, there is anemia of the brain due to weakness of the heart's action. Dr. Kitto took up the study of drunkenness as a disease, and formula originally intended for yellow fever was altered, changed its component parts, and reduced, as a result of these investigations, until the "Petroleum Cure," as Dr. Kitto has about decided to christen it, was brought to its present state of complete success.

The first case of dipsomania treated by Dr. Kitto was in January last. He claims to have been successful with all his first patients but one. Early in the summer H. W. Dunlap, a prominent Milwaukee lawyer who was at one time private secretary for Alexander Mitchell, Wisconsin's railroad king, went to Racine for the purpose of testing the cure. He was under Dr. Kitto's care for three weeks, when he was discharged a well man. He has taken to the lecture platform in behalf of Dr. Kitto and his cure for drunkenness.

Dr. Kitto has a class of nearly a dozen patients now, and he is thinking of starting a large sanitarium next spring. "I would prefer to sell the secret to some society, however," said Dr. Kitto, "that is, I will sell it after I have completed my investigation and am satisfied it is as perfect a treatment for dipsomania as can be compounded from drugs. I have understood the Woman's Christian Temperance Union has made an offer for Dr. Keeley's bichloride of gold cure, which has been refused. Should the society find merit in my discovery it can purchase it My price? Well, it is a little early to be putting a price on it, but I should say $100,000."

Never crows. For what it has done it asks no favor and no consideration. That is ancient history—to be forgotten. It looks only to the future—to the work to be done. Our hopes and fears, our joys and sorrows are before us—not one behind.

In THE WORLD'S work for 1891 every American citizen is vitally interested, and not one—no matter what his politics may be—can afford to be without its weekly edition, which has not an equal on earth as a newspaper. Nine men out of ten know this to be true. Every tenth man should send to day for a specimen copy, that the knowledge may be universal.

Subscribe at once. Three months costs only 25 cents, and by every week's delay you miss something worth more than the subscription price for the year—which is only one dollar.
