TO THE PATRONS

OF THE BEMARLE STEAM

THE DICINITY OF SEX.

HE DREW THE LINE AT BEING DOCTORED BY A WOMAN.

One of the hod carriers at work on a brick building out in the suburbs climbed up to the first story Thursday. Then he fell, and the hod, the bricks and the ladder fell on him. When the debris had been pulled away the hod carrier was lying face downward on the stone pavement, senseless. There wasn't a drug store or a doctor within half a mile. A bricklayer put on his coat and tore for the nearest patrol box. Meantime the hod carrier was lying there in a rather nasty mess of blood, apparently thinking about nothing in particular.

The boss was fuming about, kicking blocks of wood into the street, and swearing at the laziness of the police. The big pasterers, who could drive a spike with their fists, were standing around as helpless as children. At this time a young woman in a blue coat came briskly across the street. She was pretty and rosy, with a lot of yellow hair drawn up tightly from her temples, and she had a most decided look in her bright blue eyes. She brushed the big fellows aside, and asked briskly: "What's the trouble here, men?"

"One of the boys has busted himself wide open," said the boss politely.

"Let me see," said the pretty girl, dropping on her knees beside the hod carrier. She took off a dainty kid glove and with her little white hand felt the man's skull.

"No bones fractured here," she said, looking up at the group around her.

Then she noticed the pool of blood lying beside the man's right arm and whipping a pair of scissors out of her reticule she ripped up the coat sleeve and the sleeve of the flannel shirt.

"Goodness!" she said. "An artery has been cut. Give me a piece of twine, quick."

The boss pulled a piece of coarse string from his coat pocket and handed it to the girl. She drew it quickly around the man's arm, made a loop knot, thrust a pencil into the loop, twisted it until the loop, twisted it until the cord sank deep into the flesh.

"You hold this," she said to the boss, and the big man knelt down and grabbed the ligature. Then she had some water brought out. She washed the scalp wound in a jiffy. Then she cut among the loose flesh with the scissors and with a strip of linen from this same preposterous bag she made a neat bandage. Then she arose and viewed a pretty job of emergency surgery with reasonable complacency. The patrol wagon and the hod carrier came around at the same time. As the wagon backed up the hod-carrier opened his eyes and saw the girl in the blue coat.

"Are you hurt much, Mike?" the boss asked.

"Naw," said the hod carrier. "Take me somewhere that I can get a doctor. I don't want no dem women monkeyin's round me."

The girl doctor in blue looked at him quizzing and laughed as she washed his gore from her hands in the bucket of water.—Chicago Herald.

NEW YEAR MAXIMS.

Be content with what you have.
Have a hearty, joyful family altar in your domestic circle.
Fill your home with as much good reading and bright music as your means will allow.
Think ill of none but well of all.
If fortune favors you, think of others.
Don't sham; be real.
Keep busy and you will keep healthy.
Don't do all sacred things.
Do them intelligently.
Be cheerful.

TO SAVE MONEY

Save Time and Health. Doctors' bills and druggists' prescriptions are heavy drains on the pocket, not to mention days, weeks, and months of enforced idleness in case of sickness. In many instances all this loss may be saved by the timely use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine, taken in smaller doses than would be required of any other blood-purifier, produces the most positive results; therefore it is economy to

Use Only

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Moreover, by taking this medicine in season, you prevent the inroads of disease, keep the blood pure, and the system uniformly strong and vigorous. Remember, Prevention is better than cure.

But how, it may be asked, is one to know that he needs this medicine? By various indications; among them by that tired feeling, by loss of appetite, lack of energy, dull headache and confusion of memory; pains in the limbs, back, and sides, pimples and eruptions on the face and body, weakness of the eyes, restlessness by night, drowsiness by day, and frequent depression of spirits. These, though not diseases in themselves, are symptoms and warnings, which, if not attended to, may result in diseases of the most serious nature. Begin at once to use

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla gives entire satisfaction to my customers. My wife used two bottles of it, which did her more good than any other medicine. Her sallow face has become fresh and rosy. I feel assured that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has completely restored her health. Our family physician recommends Ayer's remedies."—Sam'l Stephenson, Pool, W. Va.

"For years I was afflicted with dyspepsia, having very little appetite and being distressed by nearly everything I ate. A druggist recommended a trial of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which I am now taking my fourth bottle. The medicine helped me at once, and has continued to help me. I am now recommending Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a great remedy in this distressing complaint."—Charles G. Maxter, Farmington, Me.

"For several years, in the Spring months, I used to be troubled with a drowsy, tired feeling and a dull pain in the small of my back, so bad, at times, as to prevent my being able to walk, the least sudden motion causing me severe distress. Occasionally, a rash covered my body, the skin apparently becoming thickened, accompanied by intense itching. Frequently, boils would break out on various parts of the body. By the advice of friends and my family physician, I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla and continued it till the poison in my system was completely eradicated."—L. W. English, Montgomery City, Mo.

"Every spring for the last nine years I have been in the habit of taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I can truly say that I never used any medicine that did me so much good. I am convinced that it is

The Best Blood-Purifier

"To all sufferers from liver complaint, I would strongly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with liver complaint for nearly two years, until advised to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It gave me immediate relief."—James French, Atchison, Kansas.
