OUICK AND SHARP.

OR AT LEAST, THAT'S THE WAY THIS BQY'S ANSWERS IMPRESS US.

When a cockney emigrates to America and gets a job at teaching school, then his troubles begin. There was one of the genus tried it on near Gambier, Ohio, so the story runs, whether it be true or not.

"Arry Hadams, you spell saloou," he dictated to the spelling class.

"I don't know how," said little Harry frightened by the strange use of aspirates and "aitches."

"Don't know 'ow? Why, young, hignoramus; saloon is spelled with a 'hess' and a 'hay,' a 'heli,' two 'hoes' and a hen."

Harry was worse at sea than ever then; so one of the boys was sent to the board to write it plainly for the class to see. The lad could make his letters, but did not know how to join them in regular running writing style, and left them unjoined thus: Saloou.

The teacher looked at it a moment and then asked with some asperity: "Why don't you put it together right? Why don't you put that 'hay' nearer to that hell?

The boy's eyes snapped and he answered like a flash, "Cause I was afraid it would burn up."

The class was dismissed for the day. But the geography class proved another pitfall. One of the boys, while writing the names of European cities, spelled Venice. "V e n n n i c e."

"What," cried the teacher on his Venice?"

"Yes, sir," said the lad. "Suppose Hi was to tell you that there was honly one 'hen' in Venice, what should you say?"

"I should say that the price of eggs would be pretty high, sir." Then there was an explosion

RECOLLECTIONS THAT DO NOT ALWAYS INSPIRE WITH HAPPINESS.

WHAT MEMORY DOES.

Chicago Tribune. Much has been written concerning the pleasures of memory, but no one, i seems, has cared to present the other side of the subject. But there is another side

Remembering when you are half way to the opera that you have left your box ticket at home upon your dressing table, and, at the same time, recollecting that the overture was what you wished especially to hear, is an incident not calculated to add to the pleasures of memory. After you have sent a bouquet to your lady love with a note intimating that the flowers were the finest that could be purchased, but that you cared not a cent for expenses, it adds nothing to your pleasure to remember that the florist's card on which was written "25 cents, collect," was thoughtlessly permitted to accompany the bouquet.

When a tired papa who has walked 3,169 times around the room with a restless baby and finally quiets the child and is himself just about to drift away into bewitching dreamland he derives no happiness from the suddenly engendered recollection that he forgot to lock the hall door and to put the cat out.

When a batchelor getting out of bed on a cold morning decides to keep on his night robe till the room gets warmer, and thoughtlessly hurries away to breakfast, where people smile slyly and significantly, it does not add to his joy to remember that he did not make the change in the apparel he contemplated.

When we are telling some man of the grand and brilliant schemes we are working whereby we are coining money so fast that we scarcely know what to do with it, it is a real source of annoyance, rather than pleas-

SOMETHING LIKE THAT.

Chicago Post.

He was from Pewaukee or St. Louis, or something like that, and the elaborate this end of the line of youth with its menu at the Palmer House rather stagabundance of resources, would only feel gered him. But he came from fighting stock and he went right through from soup to coffee. One dish in particular of gold. It is time in whose invaluable pleased his fancy and palate. He hesitated a moment at first before ordering deviled crabs because he was a classleader at home and he wasn't quite sure whether a thing with a name so suggestive of wickedness might not be one of the wiles used by Satan to lure men from the narrow path. But the old man risked the temptation and he liked the dish. Towards the end of the meal he wanted more of the same, so he hooked his finger at the waiter, to whom he said: "Say, mister, I want some more of them things."

"Yes, sah," said the grinning Afro-American. "What things, sah ?"

"I forget jest now what they air called on thet programme of your'n. Oh, yes, by gosh ! they're a kind o' fish we useter ketch in the spring back o' the old log school house when I waz a boy, and they've some cuss word in front o' the name."

SUITS BROUGHT BY THEIR HEIRS FOR DAMAGES.

Suits were filed to day in the United States Circuit Court by attorneys representing the heirs of six of the Italians slain by the populace at the Parish pris on on the 14th of March last, against the city of New Orleans, claiming damages in the sum of $30,000 in each case. The petition alleges that the death of the men resulted from a conspiracy and avers that no proper steps were taken to pro tect the prisoners, though the purposes of the conspirators were well known. The heirs of three of the men live in Sicily and one in Rome. The residences of the heirs of two of them are not stated. Oth at the big door of the Fulton county jail. er suits will follow. The grounds for damages in each case are as follows:

First, The well-grounded terror and anxiety of mind under which the victim labored prior to the onslaught, which is fully worth the sum of $5,000. Second, the great mental and bodily pain which preceded or accompanied death, which are fully worth the sum of $5,000.

Third, the earnings and savings which the said defendant who was a healthy, strong and able bodied young man might have realized during his natural life had not the same been prematurely cut off which are tally worth the sum of $10 000. Fourth, exemplary and punitive damiges for the failure of the city of New Orleans to give and guarantee and secure to the decensed the protection of life and person to which he was en i tled under the general and State Constitutions and general laws of the country, as well as under special provisions of a treaty entered into between the kingdom of Italy and the United States of Am rica on the 26th of February, 1871, and Injector for the more successful treatment ratified November 17th, 1871, at Washingtoe, D. are all a poetic myth. The miseries of memory come nearer hitting the bull's eve of truth. We remember too much and at the most inopportune times. Let us bury the past and go away and forget

Richmond Dispatch.

There is nothing in the original texts of the Bible to show that the creature which we are told swallowed Jonah was really the same animal we call a "whale" in this day and age of the world. The word translated in both the Septuagint and the New Testament by the Greek "Katos" means simply a sea monster, and this word was the one used by our Lord in His reference to the account of Jonah's exploit. [Matthew, xii, 29-41.] So fur, therefore, as the Hebrew or Greek words are concerned, the monster may have been a shark, a sea scrpent or some other uncanny denizen of the . deep Hence there is nothing incredible in the statement that Jonah, upon being thrown into the sea, was quickly overtaken by some water monster, and swallowed with out suffering matilation. To Biblical students it is a well known fact that a vessel sailing from Jopps to any Span; ish port must pass through a section swarming with a species of shark called a "sea dog." The sea dog has a throat

ALLIANCE IN DANCER.

IF THE THIRD PARTY SECURES A FOL-

LOWING IN THE STATE THIS YEAR.

At the request of some friends in and out of the Alliance, and desiring to advance the best interests of the masses

of the people of my native State, I write to give my views upon the Third Party which some over-zealous members of the Alliance talk about establishing in North Carolina. I am a member of the Alliance, ready at any time to advocate, de-fond and maintain the dignity as well as the demands of the order. I see great danger not only to the best interests of the State, but also to the Alliance

in the suggestion of organizing an independent party: If a Third party is formed in this State it will endeavor to draw a very large per cent. of its vote

from the Alliance. If a sufficient number of Alliancemen who have heretofore been Democrats and voted with the Democratic party, go off into and vote

with the Third party, it would bring ruin home to the people of North Carolina. Then instead of the Alliance bettering our condition it would pull us down, and carry us from bad to worse, to ptter degradation and ruin. The aim and object of the Alliance is not to form political parties and fight political battles inside Alliance halls. To do that would bring discord, contention and division

in the order, and be an injury to the Alliance cause, and in the end the alli-

ernment, but to amend from time to time

ance would accomplish nothing.

Let all Democrats remain in the Democratic party, and whenever the Alliance makes a demand or a request, and our political friends oppose it, let us meet together in council and advise together for the best interest of the State and the country's good. I verily believe that our friends in the Democratic party who are not members of the Alliance will meet us more than half way. By taking this course we can accomplish much good.

I have given the Third party movement much thought. Besides, I have kept myself posted by reading one North Carolina daily and six weekly papers of all parties, Alliance and non-Alliance, and have seen no good reason advanced by sny, how or in what way, a Third party can brieg about the relief the Alliance demands. This being so, I appeal to my brother Alliancemen in North Caroling who are Democrats to remain in the Democratic party, and advocate and press the Alliance demands. Go into the Demonratic conventions. Contend for and fight for Alliance measures in a mild and conservative manner; vote the Democratic ticket, and I am sure good will be accomplished.

And also I would say to the Demicratic papers and to all Democrats as well, be mild and conservative in expressing opinions. A conservative and persuasive policy is apt to lead the masses and do good, but bitter milings do no good and those who employ them will lose their following. The people love to follow conservative men because they are apt to be safe men and opt to be right So, I say to all, Alliance and hon-Alliance, det us work together in a conservative way and we wal save the State in the coming contest.
