

The ROANOKE NEWS

VOL. XXIII.

WELDON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1892.

NO. 32

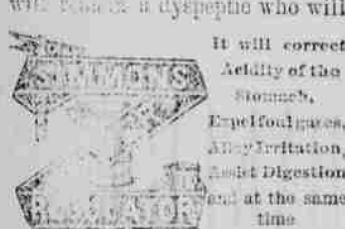

ADVERTISEMENTS.

DYSPEPSIA

Is that misery experienced when suddenly made aware that you possess a diabolical arrangement called stomach. No two dyspeptics have the same predominant symptoms, but whatever form dyspepsia takes

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing is certain no one will make a dyspeptic who will Start the Liver working and all bodily ailments will disappear.

"For more than three years I suffered with Dyspepsia in its severest form. I tried several doctors, but they failed to relieve me. At last I tried Dr. J. H. Wood's Remedy. It was a short time. He is a good physician. I could not be without it." — James A. Roach, Philad'l'a., Pa.

See that you get the Genuine, with DROPS ONLY BY

J. H. WOOD & CO., Philadelphia, Pa.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF LAND.

Under and by virtue of the execution in my hands issuing from the Superior court of Halifax county, N. C., both in favor of Carzoa, Alsop, Moseley & Co., and against J. O. Heptinstall, I have levied upon and will sell at public auction for cash at the court house door in Halifax, N. C., on Monday, November 14th, 1892, that being the 1st day of November Superior court, all the right, title and interest of the said J. O. Heptinstall in the following real estate situated in said Halifax county, to-wit:

In all that tract of land known as the home tract of the late J. W. Heptinstall, containing 2000 acres, save and except 400 acres, thereof allotted to the said J. O. Heptinstall as a homestead said land adjoining the lands of W. W. Butts, J. N. Morris, R. A. Patterson and B. A. Lavender.

2. In all that tract known as the Jackson tract adjoining the lands of — Sauter et al.

3. In the tract known as the Murphy place, and adjoining the lands of Wm. Travis and R. J. Boyd.

4. The Powell plantation of 744 acres, adjoining Norman Powell, George Massey and J. H. Wood, deceased.

5. The John Faulcon place of 217 acres adjoining James Faulcon and James E. Glasgow.

6. The Piney Fork place of 84 acres, adjoining Buck Hux and R. J. Lewis.

7. A tract of 35 acres, near W. L. Mcmill.

8. The place where T. J. Hamill lives, of 111 acres.

9. The Dr. Green place now connected with the Winterley place, of 343 acres, near Roper's Springs, adjoining the lands of John Thomas and John Dilley.

10. The place where Henry Higgs, Jas. Alston and others lived, of 500 acres, adjoining W. E. Bowers, and R. A. Patterson.

11. The tract bought of John M Thorne and wife.

A tract containing 40-50 acres, lying near Gaston, purchased from Ida Dilley.

12. A tract containing 311 acres purchased from "Amby and wife, and the reversionary right of said J. O. Heptinstall to the Ferry Road."

B. J. ALSBROOK,
Sheriff of Halifax county,

Per A. H. Green, D. S.

sep 15 1d

S. H. HAWES & CO.,
DEALERS IN

COAL,
RICHMOND, VA.
S. H. HAWES & CO.,

Dealers in —

LIME,
PLASTER,
CEMENT.
Richmond, Va.

my 5 ly

The Fair.

A GREAT FINANCIAL AND SOCIAL SUCCESS.

THE EXHIBITS GOOD, THE CROWDS LARGE—THE HOT AND GERMAN LARGE AND ELEGANT.

The Weldon fair has come and gone. It was a remarkable success in every particular, as all its predecessors have been and as its successors will be. Everythin' passed off smoothly and no untoward circumstances occurred to mar the pleasure and enjoyment of visitors and residents.

There was a good crowd on Wednesday and on Thursday, the big day of the week, the grounds were filled with the people who had come from far and near to take in the fair.

The grounds presented a gala appearance truly. The many tents, flags, music, horse races, well mounted marshals, handsome women, all tended to make a spectacle well calculated to please and entertain the people.

The cadets from the Scotland Neck Military School presented a handsome appearance under the command of Major Barraud, and attracted much attention. They were especially complimented for their accurate drill, quick and successful execution of orders and the perfect execution of the manual in marching order as well as attention. The drill and manual would have done credit to any company of the State Guard, and shows the excellent training they have had in a comparatively short time.

There were many things on the grounds which we would like to notice at length, but the demand on our space forbids. We must, however, mention some of them, and will take them consecutively by departments.

DEPARTMENT A.

Among articles on exhibition in this department were seed cotton, potatoes and navy beans by Mrs. Ida Wilkins; potatoes and cotton by John D. Shaw; tobacco peas and seed cotton by J. H. Wood; J. A. Johnston, bread corn, stock corn and Irish potatoes.

DEPARTMENT B.

In this department, which is devoted to horses and stock, we noted many handsome entries, among them the following attracted the most attention for their many excellencies:

T. Y. Lippett, saddle horse, J. T. Evans, single harness horse and two-year-old not thoroughbred; J. H. Summerell, Northampton, stallion, not thoroughbred; P. H. Taylor, pair carriage horses; J. W. Thornton, stallion and single harness horse; J. B. Cox, Tryon City, 2 single harness horses; S. D. Black, Raleigh, thoroughbred stallion, stallion not thoroughbred, single harness horse; W. R. Miller, Rocky Mount, two stallions not thoroughbreds and single harness horse; M. Wilson, Littleton, stallion, not thoroughbred; J. H. Wood, light draft horse; A. Merrifield, Durham, two-year-old colt not thoroughbred; George Harrison, saddle horse.

DEPARTMENT C.

This department for domestic animals was well filled, and the show in it would do credit to any fair. Among the most prominent entries were the following: O. P. Keeter, Jersey bull, game chickens; T. A. Cooper, Brahma chickens, Toulouse and Spanish geese; J. W. Vincent, Gaston, native bull; Mrs. J. T. Evans, wyanotte chickens, Aylesbury, Pekin and Rouen ducks; E. M. Perkins, Rouen ducks; W. S. Holdford, Berkshire pigs, hogs, black Langshan chickens, Mrs. C. P. Rodwell, wyanottes, W. K. Pittman, game chickens; J. H. Wood, white turkeys, domestic turkeys and fat hogs; S. Trueblood, native cow and sheep, white turkeys, Pekin duck, Bremen geese; W. H. Alsbrook, Plymouth Rock chickens; W. H. Holdford, white and brown leghorn and black Spanish chickens and fat ox; J. A. Whitehead, yoke oxen and fat ox; J. W. Pierce, Jersey bull; H. H. Fre, fat ox; J. K. Heptinstall, game chickens.

DEPARTMENT D.

Department D includes fancy work both in wearing apparel and in good things to eat, and if there was any one at the fair whose fancy could not be tickled by the numerous things on exhibition which attracted the eye and the appetite we don't want to see him. It would seem a little incongruous to group edibles and "wearables" together, but it must be remembered that some go inside and some outside and so really there is but a skin's difference after all. If we get them a little mixed this morning we hope we will be pardoned as there is always considerable mixing fair week. For instance on looking over our notes we found we had written "one embroidered child's cloak." Now nobody wants an embroidered child, leastways nobody in this section has one that we know of. If there is any child of the kind she ought to have been on exhibition so it could have been told what kind of a stitch it was—whether satin stitch, cat stitch or stitch in the side. We say "she" because no boy child would be embroidered if he could help it.

There was in this department hand-some exhibits by Miss Mary A. Collins, Norfolk; Mrs Geo Lehman, Miss A. Rives, Norfolk; Miss Rebecca Hardwick, Richmond; Mrs L. L. Marks and Miss Mollie H. Harrison, Petersburg; Miss Janie Ward, Raleigh; Mrs R. B. Briskell, Mrs J. B. Briskell, Mrs S. F. Ivey, Mrs J. T. Evans, Miss Kate Long, Miss Zephia Jones, Petersburg; Mrs J. F. Livesay, Garysburg; Mrs King White, Mrs Isadora White, Mrs Walter Lucas, Miss Annie Morecock, Mrs Ida Wilkins, Miss Laura Powers, Mrs E. H. Mellichamp, Mrs A. R. Zollieoffer, Mrs J. B. Lee, Miss Nannie Stainback, Mrs C. L. Clark, Mrs R. W. Brown, Mrs J. L. Williams, W. H. Holdford, Trinity Church sewing Society, Scotland Neck; Mrs A. L. Stainback, Mrs C. P. Rodwell, Mrs P. A. Lewis, Mrs H. B. Harrell, Mrs W. E. Daniel, Mrs W. R. Smith, Miss C. B. Ellis, Miss F. Adams, Mrs P. N. Stainback, Mrs R. C. Freeman, Goldsboro; Miss Annie Pierce, Mrs L. F. Tillery, Mrs W. T. Shaw, Mrs R. W. Brown had forty articles on exhibition. They were all for table use, lightest bread and biscuit, beautiful cake of every kind, dried fruits, pepper, jelly, canned fruits, catsup, vegetables, garden seeds. Her exhibit was a fair in itself and did great credit to Mrs Brown's already well known housewifely qualities. It would have made a dead man hungry to have gotten a glimpse at all these good things. Then there was Mrs. J. T. Evans' large and beautiful exhibit of needle work, which would adorn a New York bazaar. Mrs J. L. Williams showed great skill in the preparation of her exhibit of table products. A large quantity of fancy work, was made by Trinity Church sewing society, Scotland Neck, some of which, we are sorry to say, was damaged by the rain Thursday night which was beaten into the building by the wind. There were several beautiful hats also on exhibition, but the palm was awarded to Miss Beau who is now with Mrs P. A. Lewis. Mrs W. E. Daniel's exhibit added very largely to the success and beauty of Floral Hall and was really handsome and well selected. Mrs. W. R. Smith showed lovely taste in the articles sent out by her and they displayed great artistic merit. Mrs R. C. Freeman, of Goldsboro, had fifty-one articles on exhibition which attracted the attention of everyone for excellence and the skill shown in preparing them. There were many other beautiful things on exhibition in this department which we would be glad to mention specially but space forbids. We only had room to notice the larger exhibits.

DEPARTMENT E.

The art department was more than usually attractive. There were many excellent specimens of handiwork which would have been a credit to those who have attained high position as professional artists. We are confident of our judgment in art, because we cannot be artists, and try not to be artful, but we will give an ardent opinion on some of the works of art which we saw in floral hall, anyway. If we miss anything which should not have been missed, it was our misfortune rather than fault. With this prelude we will enumerate. First there was the exhibit of the Henderson College, Mrs. B. B. Phillips, who was at one time a resident of this place, principal. There was a screen done in oils lovely to look upon. It is the work of a young lady, Mrs. Phillips' daughter, who is only seventeen years old. When this young lady was only fifteen years old she earned a scholarship in Vassar College by a competitive examination. The study in peoples is also by her and seems to the critical the perfection of art. The frame of the screen is a beautiful specimen of North Carolina wood and was made in Henderson. The crayons are the work of two other students of the college, each under thirteen years of age. They have received no other instruction than that given in free hand drawing gratis, by the college. The water color sketches and mechanical drawings were most excellent and will be exhibited at the World's fair. These specimens of what Henderson college accomplishes in the way of education ought to make that institution very popular with parents.

Among other exhibits in this department which received high praise were paper flowers, fancy drawing, fancy writing by Mrs. A. P. Rives, Norfolk; panels in water colors and in oil and etching, by Miss Janie Ward, Raleigh; bouquet design in flowers, basket of flowers, vase with flowers, oil painting, map drawing, by Mrs. J. T. Evans; lustre painting and etching by Miss Kate Long; fish scale work, by Miss Zephia Jones, Petersburg; panel in oil, pastel, painted banner, mineral painting, by Miss Laura Powers; collection of native woods by J. W. T. Young; oil painting, by Mrs. W. T. Shaw; pastel by Miss Jennie Gay; pastel and crayon by Mrs. J. F. Engle, of Elizabeth City; panel in oil, crayon, oil painting by Miss W. M. Crump, Suffolk, Va.; bouquet and vase of flowers by Mrs. J. B. Lee; dried grass, shell work, moss design, paper flowers, fish scale work, leather work, by Miss Nannie Stainback; etching by Mrs. H. A. London, Pittsboro; crayon drawing by Miss Landis, Henderson; crayon drawing by Miss E. C. Currie, Henderson; growing flowers by W. H. Holdford; fair-oil paintings and pencil drawing by Miss Bernice Williams; hair work and penmanship by Mrs. A. L. Stainback; water color, two crayon drawings and four paintings on glass by Trinity Church Sewing Society, Scotland Neck; three handsome centre tables, by D. L. Fillyaw, Wilmington; hand painted dress and oil paintings by Mrs. H. B. Harrell; oil painting, panel in oil, crayon painting on satin, hand painted plaque, by Mrs. W. R. Smith; oil painting, four pastels, paintings on velvet, Mrs. W. E. Daniel; wax flowers, growing plants varigated leaf plants by Mrs. A. R. Zollieoffer; Miss Mabel Zollieoffer, oil painting; Mrs. Adams, Kensing-ton painting, painting on velvets, painting on satin; Mrs. W. T. Whitfield water color painting on mats; Mrs. G. W. Congham, Spring Hill, two panels in oil; Thompson School, Siler City, fancy penmanship, plain and ornamental penmanship, scroll work and crayon; Miss Annie Morecock dried grass.

DEPARTMENT F.

In department F there were many agricultural and other implements, most of which were included in the exhibit of S. R. White & Sons, Norfolk, and made a handsome and attractive appearance. There was also a peanut puller by B. L. Furgerson, Pleasant Hill, and a peanut planter by B. Hicks, Franklin, Va., which attracted attention.

DEPARTMENT G.

There was comparatively little in this department, which includes manufactures other than domestic, such as farm bells, mowing machinery, etc., to be exhibited by the manufacturer.

DEPARTMENT H.

In this department which is peculiarly for the farmers there were not as many entries as there should have been. Horticultural products ought to receive more attention from the farmers, and they should diversify their crops, thereby becoming more independent. The exhibits showed what could be done in this way, if proper effort were made, and we hope that great improvement will be made in this section in this respect by the opening of the fair next fall.

The principal exhibitors here were Mrs. J. T. Evans, Peter Stainback, Jr., Drew Stephenson, Mrs. R. W. Brown, W. H. Holdford, Mrs. J. L. Williams, John Duke, T. L. Emry, J. Y. Savage, Sam Harris, J. H. Wood, Miss Annie Pierce and Garrett & Co.

GARRETT & CO.

Among the most attractive displays in the building was that of Messrs. Garrett & Co., which decorated the first floor of Floral Hall. It contained native wines of various kinds tastefully arranged, to show the many good qualities of their several vintages. Their scuppernongs, Catawba, blackberry etc., were especially admired by visitors. The firm is now doing a large business, and have recently enlarged their plant here considerably.

THE HOP AND GERMAN.

The hop at the Coast Line Hop Wednesday night was well attended and was highly enjoyed by all who attended. But the social event of the week was the grand German Thursday night. It was the most elegant ever held in Weldon and was participated in by numbers of dancers, some of the ladies being from distant States. The music was the very best that could be procured, and that means everything. The costumes worn by the ladies on this occasion were particularly handsome. We recall some, and if any are omitted or any mistakes are made in descriptions we beg forgiveness, for amid such an array of loveliness, such charming faces and sparkling eyes who can help being bewitched? We notice the following:

Miss Mary Bunn, Rocky Mount, wore white silk and pearl ornaments.

Miss Lucy Leah, Littleton, white cashmere, Persian trimmings.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stockdale, of Texas, white silk and hand-made diamonds.

Miss Sallie Parker, Enfield, white muslin, chiffon and ribbon.

Miss Timberlake, Raleigh, a striking costume of crimson satin and black lace.

Miss McGuire, of Suffolk, yellow silk, chiffon.

Miss Lucy McGuire, pink silk, chiffon.

Miss Starke, of Richmond, black lace, blue ribbons.

Miss Sallie Smith, Scotland Neck, black lace.

Mrs. T. H. Chavasse, Weldon, white silk, asters.

Miss Lizzie Battle, Rocky Mount, pink silk, diamond ornaments.

Miss Jessie Gregory, Halifax, white silk, diamonds.

Miss Kate Prescott, Weldon, blue silk and pearls.

Miss Naomi Larkin, Missouri, white silk.

Mrs. John Arrington, Rocky Mount, china silk, blue ribbons.

Mrs. R. T. Cochran, white silk, gold ornaments.

Miss Holland, Charlotte, white swiss, lace and ribbons, diamonds.

Miss Marsh, a charming debutante of Louisville, white silk null.

Miss Mamie Morris, Wilmington, crimson silk.

Miss Nettie Gilliam, Halifax, white silk, asters.

The chaperons were: Mrs. T. L. Emry, Mrs. J. T. Goode, Mrs. A. Prescott, Mrs. W. R. Smith, Mrs. Mary P. Battle, Mrs. J. H. Leigh.

The german was led by Mr. Frank M. Parker, Jr., of Richmond, who was voted by all the dancers and others a charming and successful leader.

We have a speedy and positive cure for catarrh, diphtheria, cancer mouth and headachs, in SHILOH'S CA-

TARRH REMEDY. A nasal injector