Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order-the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

There tested his virtues personally, and knew that for hyspepsia, filliousness and Throobine Hendache, it is the best medicine his worldever saw. Have tried forty other remedies before Simmons Liver headator, and none of them have more than temporary relief, but the Regulator nor only callevel out cured.

STILL A REPUBLICAN

SAY REPUBLICANS OF JUDGE GRESH-

New York Recorder.

There is no ground for assuming, as some too hasty Republican writers are doing, that Judge Gresham has recanted his life long Republicanism in accepting the first seat in Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet. He has at all points in his career shown himself to be a man of the sturdiest principle-a strong, sincere, and steadfast

That he has essentially changed at this late point in his career, we do not for a moment believe. He has not gone over to the Democratic party; the Democratic party has gone over to him.

Mr. Cleveland has done a bold, original, and politically audacious thing in inviting this eminent Republican leader to sit at his right hand in the first and most responsible post in his Administration. But there is no reason for branding Judge Gresham as a renegade for accepting the high honor and grave responsibility thus tendered to him. The whole Republican party is indeed complimented by Mr. Cleveland's act.

Walter Q. Gresham is the high-minded Republican statesman to-day that he has always been, and he will carry the convictions of his lifetime into Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet and act upon them on all occasions. His presence there will be a guarantee to the country that no radical disturbance of the Republican policies of the past thirty-two years will be attempted during Mr. Cleveland's term.

ARE THE JEWS INNOCENT.

The Rev. Dr. Asron Hahn in his lecture in Army and Navy Hall Sunday morning on "The Modern Standpoint of Jesus Christ," said :

"In those days the Jews were under dire oppression from the Romans. Many deliverers appeared, and the people hailed with delight the idea of Messiah. The Jewish country was swarming with enthusiasts who were eager to aid the people Two of these became famous-Judah of Galilee and Jesus of Nazareth. Judah urged force; Christ urged humility. He was tried before Pilate and put to death. His death was a misunderstanding between himself and the Roman Government. The Jews admit that Christ was crucified, but deny that he was crucified by the Jews. Why should the Jews have crucified Jesus? They hailed him with joy and delight. The country was swarming with proclaimed Messiahs, but none of them were put to death. How did the Jews inflict capital punishment? By stoning or beheading or burning. Crucifixion was unknown among the Jews. That was the Roman method. Then it is said that Jesus was sentenced at night. The supreme court of the Jews met only in the day. There were two thieves crucified with Jesus. Under Jewish law that could never be. The Jewish law provides that only one man should be executed in a day. Christ was crucified under Roman law."-Cleveland Plain Dealer.

FAIR PLAY.

Some months ago a young lady at Kings Mountain attempted suicide by taking a large quantity of laudanum. The cause was jealousy of a young man who had been paying her attention.

Her life was saved with difficulty and she and the young man "made up."

Sunday night the young lady went home from church with another fellow, and her young man became so enraged that he got his pistol, threatened to kill himself and the other fellow, but thought better of it, went home, packed his trunk and left for Florida on the first train. Shelby Review.

JOHN M. ROBINSON.

SKETCH OF AN INTERESTING AND USE-FUL LIFE.

John Moneure Robinson was the eldest son of the late Moneure Robinson, for many years President of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Co. of Virginia, and the Reading Railroad Co., of Pennsylvania, and as one of the first civil engineers of this country was actively engaged in railroad enterprises until incapacitated by extreme age. His mother's maiden name was Charlotte Taylor, grand daughter of Edmond Randolph, of Virginia, of Revolutionary fame. Through all his life he looked upon his mother as the ideal woman, and it was his wont to visit her often in Philadelphia, where she now lives at an advanced age to mourn the death of her son, who, as the head of large enterprises, culminating in the construction of the Georgia, Carolina and Northern railroad, had rendered himself famous; who under all circumstances was known ever to keep faith with every one with whom he had business relations; his word was his bond.

Mr. John M. Robinson commenced his career in the shops of the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad Company, at Portsmouth, Va. He then was a conductor, and subsequently became superintendent and then the president of that road. When the R. & A. and the R. & G. R. R. Companies lost their president, Mr. G. W. Grice, he was chosen to succeed him. He also succeeded Mr. M. Falls as president of the Bay Line, and later, was elected to the presidency of the Old Dominion Steamship 'ompany, in the place of Mr. McCready, who died at sea returning from Europe. At the beginning of the late war Mr. J. M. Robinson was on the staff of Gen. Sam Jones. and with Gen. Loring in the Kanawha campaign, and was slightly wounded at the battle of Fayette C. H., Va., in 1863. The succeeding year he was commissioned as inspector of Sonthern railroads, and virtually looked after the transportation of the Confederacy. Subsequently he was sent to Europe by the Confederacy to purchase railroad supplies, and ran the blockade out of Wilmington. He returned to the Confederacy before the surrender and stopped in Norfolk, Va. Afterwards for a short while he was engaged in reorganizing his road and putting it in shape. While there he had a severe attack of rheumatism, from which he never fully recovered.

He accumulated quite a large estate notwithstanding his family which consists of six girls and two boys. The names of the latter are Moneure and Randolph. He lived in princely style and entertained most lavishly. In the sixties he married Miss Champ Conway, daughter of Dr. Conway, formerly of Richmond, Va. His parents were born in Virginia, but he was born in Philadelphia, though ed ucated and brought up in Virginia. He was about 57 years old.

TRANQUILITY OF HEART.

Rest is the deepest want in the soul of man. All men do not desire pleasure; all men do not crave intellectual food; but all men long for rest. It is this need which sometimes makes the quiet of the grave an object of such deep desire There the weary are at rest. And it is this which, consciously or unconsciously, is the real wish which lies at the bottom of all others. O, for tranquility of heart, heaven's profound silence in the soul !-F. W. Robertson.

There can be no happiness without health, and no health when you have severe cold without some good cough cure. Bear it in mind that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has a record running through nearly half a century, which no other similar preparation can begin to claim, and it stands to-day head and shoulders above any other cough remedy in the market.

FEDERAL POSITIONS IN NORTH CAROLI-NA-A NEARLY COMPLETE LIST WITH THE SALARIES ATTACHED.

We print below a list of Federal positions in North Carolina, for which we are indebted to the Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer. The list is not quite complete, U. S. District Attorneys and their assistants and U.S. Marshals and Deputies being omitted, for example. A number of errors, chiefly in the salaries of Postmasters, have been corrected by the Wilmington Star, and in its present shape the article will be read with much interest by the numerous office seekers to be found everywhere. Reminding the aspirants that a good many of these positions come under the Civil Service rules, we will keep them no longer in suspense, so here's the list:
