HIS OWN GRANDFATHER.

I married a widow who had a grownup daughter. My father visited the house very often, fell in love with my step-daughter and married her. So my father became my son-in-law and my step-daughter my mother, because she was my father's wife. Some time afterwards my wife kad a son; he was my father's brother-in-law and my uncle, for he was the brother of my stepmother. My father's wife-that is, my step-daughter-had also a son: he was of course, my brother, and in the meantime my grand-child, for he was the son of my daughter. My wife was my grandmother, because she was my mother's mother. I was my wife's husband and grand child at the same time. And as the husband of person's grandmother is his grand-father, was my own grandfather.

Silk erepons are greatly in favor for evening gowns for young women, as also are mousselines de soie with crinkled itrikes, the strikes often in several colors and sometimes edged Orietal like with gold. Gther sheer silk muslins are printed over with colored flowers. These last come also in ribbon widths for trimming silk gowns.

J. D. Watkins, Blakely, Ga., writes: "Old sores covered my entire person and itched intensely night and day. For T several months I could not work at all, I commenced the use of Botanic Blood Balm, and began to grow better the first week, and am now sound and well, from sores and itching and at work again.'

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

During 1893, the Weekly Herald will be without question the best and cheapest family journal published in America. It will be profusely illustrated by the best artists in the country, and will be a magazine of literature, art and news absolutely unrivaled in its excellence.

THE PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURAL will be graphically described and artistically pictured, while the great feature of the coming year's history, the World's Fair,

Will be given particular attention. So complete will be the descriptions of everything connected with the great Exposition and so true to the reality the many illus-trations, that a perusal of the Weekly Herald next summer will be almost as satisfactory as a visit to Chicago.

PRIZES EACH WEEK

Will be awarded for the best original artieles on agricultural subjects. Each issue will contain a page devoted to practical and scientific farming. The Woman's Department will be unex-celled in practical suggestions to make the home more attractive.

Every week will be a number of special articles on all topics of human interest. Among the novelists who will write stories for the Weekly Herald are Jerome K. rome, Stepniak, Mrs. Grimwood, Edwin Arnold, John Strange Winter, Marie Corel-li, Helen Mathers, Florence Warden, ["ume Nisbet and Hamilton Aide.
