Rev. Jeseph Blount Cheshire, Jr., D. D.

of St. Peter's church, Charlotte, was con-secreted a bishop of the Episcopal Church in Calvary church, at Tarboto, Sunday morning with all the formal rites and seremonies of such an ordination.

The day was perfect. A lovely October sun, s.it skies, and a bracing temperature added an indescribable charm to the important occasion. The church was well crowded, and many unable to gain even standing room were turned away.

Morning prayer was conducted by Rev. N. Harding, of Washington, and Rev. J. McK. Pittinger, of Raleigh. A fine and D., of Florida, and the Right Rev. Davis Sessums, of Louisians, to the venerable Right Rev. Theodore B. Lyman, D. D. L. L. D., D. C. L , of this State, who ac bbed in Chicago last week of $70 and ted as consecrator. Bishop Lyman was assisted by Bishop Watson of the Eastern Diocese, and Bishop Capers of South Carolina, who were co consecrators.

FULL EPISCOPAL BOBES. After the usual responses by the Bishop-elect, according to the ordination service, he was clothed in full Episc pal robes, and was then elevated to the high office of bishop of the Episcopal Church.

There are seventy bishops of the Epis-copal Church in the United States. The pants which he has worn every Sunday for the past 48 record was Bishop Bavenscroft, who was conse-erated in 1823, and died in 1830. He was followed by Bishop Ives, whose ministrations lasted twenty two years. His suc-cessor was the beloved Bishop Atkinson, of Baltimore. As he grew old his official duties were too great for him to discharge alone, and Bishop Lyman, then rector of Trinity church, San Francisco, was elec-THE FIRST NATIVE BISHOP
