PUSH, PUSH.

It is Just the Word For the Glad, Clear Morning of Life.

If there was more push in the world there would be fewer hungry, half-clothed, homeless, suffering children; fewer broken-down, dissipated men and women; less need of almshouses of correction and homes for the friendless.

Push means a lift for a neighbor in trouble. Push means a lift for yourself out of the slough of despondency and shiftlessness, out of trouble, real and fancied. Push never hurts anybody. The harder you push the better, if it is given in the right directions. Always push up hill—few people need a push down hill. Don't be afraid of your muscles and sinews; they were given you to use. Don't be afraid of your hands; they were meant for service. Don't be afraid of what your companion may say. Don't be afraid of your conscience; it will never reproach you for a good deed—but push with all your heart, might and soul, when ever you see anything or anybody that will be better for a good, long, strong determined push.

Push! It is just the word for the grand, clear morning of life; it is just the word for strong arms and young hearts; it is just the word for a world that is full of work as this is. If anybody is in trouble, and you see it, don't stand back, push!

If there is anything good being done in any place where you happen to be, push!

UNCLE MOSE'S DIVORCE.

A Novel Method of Separation Which Possesses Good Features.

The following story is told by Harris Dickson, in an article in Success Magazine, entitled "The Negro's Idea of Marriage."

"Yes, sah," said Uncle Mose, "dat on-sarved justice of de peice sho do know his bizzness. Mean' Maria went an' s'ulted him 'bout a divorce. I reckon I can't tie no knot what I can't untie. It'll be kinder rough, but you'll git unhitched an' dat's what you want. 'Tain't no use givin' a lawyer $25 an' payin' a lot of cote cots on top of that when I can fix you up with a home-made divorce what'll last jes' as long.' Dat justice o' de peice talked so sensible dat we give him de job den an' dere. Bless you' soul, it didn't take long. 'Jine yo' lof' hands,' he said, an' commenced readin' fust out of one book, den out o' another. I couldn't make head or tails o' what 'twas about until he hit de same readin' what he married us by—only he read dat part o' it backwards. 'Now,' he say, reel free, 'we come out de same gate we went in at. I turn you loose in de big road, right where I found you.' He charged us $1 for marryin' us an' $2 for unmarryin' us. It was more trouble to untie a knot than it was to tie it."

If this kind of divorce court suited Uncle Mose and Aunt Maria, it was their own affair. Certainly there was no one to object.

Attention Sick Women

If you had positive proof that a certain remedy for female ills had made many remarkable cures, would you not feel like trying it?

If during the last thirty years we have not succeeded in convincing every fair-minded woman that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands and thousands of women of the ills peculiar to their sex, then we long for an opportunity to do so by direct correspondence. Meanwhile read the following letters which we guarantee to be genuine and truthful.

Hudson, Ohio.—"I suffered for a long time from a weakness, inflammation, dreadful pains each month and suppression. I had been doctoring and receiving only temporary relief, when a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and wrote to you for advice. I have faithfully followed your directions and now, after taking only five bottles of the Vegetable Compound, I have every reason to believe I am a well woman. I give you full permission to use my testimonial."—Mrs. Lena Carmichael, Hudson, Ohio. R. F. D. No. 7.

St. Regis Falls, N. Y.—"Two years ago I was so bad that I had to take to my bed every month, and it would last from two to three weeks. I wrote to you for advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in dry form. I am happy to say that I am cured, thanks to your medicine and good advice. You may use my letter for the good of others."—Mrs. J. H. Breyer, St. Regis Falls, N. Y.

There is absolutely no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to cure female diseases. We possess volumes of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most skeptical.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

SANDWICH.

A little streak of shadow and a little streak of sun,
A singing of the sweethearts while the threads of life are spun;
A slice of happy morning and a slice of quiet night,
The noonday in the middle with its gleam of golden light;
Sandwich, sandwich—life is good to eat,
With a little slice of sunshine in the midst to make it sweet.

A little streak of laughter and a little streak of sigh
A light heart at the spindles where the toiling days go by;
A dancing off to duty and a dancing home to dream,
With sweethearts in the roses and the lips of love a gleam;
Sandwich, sandwich—love is good to keep,
A music for the morning and a melody for sleep!

A little streak of striving and a little streak of rest,
A sweetheart in the roses with a tily on her breast;
A going forth to battle and a coming home to peace,
When all the thunder-rattle of the toiling time shall cease;
Sandwich, sandwich—spread with joy between,
A streak of life, a streak of love, a kiss to keep it green!

A BUSY SIO BILL.

He Did Not Suppose the Money Would Go So Far.

Mr. Brown keeps a boarding house. Around the table sat his wife, Mrs. Brown; the village milliner, Mrs. Andrews; Mr. Black, the baker; Mr. Jordan, a carpenter, and Mr. Hadley, a flour, feed and lumber merchant.

Mr. Brown took $10 out of his pocket and handed it to Mrs. Brown with the remark that there was $10 toward the $20 he had promised her.

Mrs. Brown handed the bill to Mrs. Andrews, the milliner, saying: "That pays for my new bonnet."

Mrs. Andrews in turn passed it to Mr. Jordan, remarking that it would pay for the carpenter work he had done for her.

Mr. Jordan handed it to Mr. Hadley, requesting his receipted bill for flour, feed and lumber.

Mr. Hadley gave the bill back to Mr. Brown saying: "That pays $10 on my board."

Mr. Brown again passed it to his wife, remarking that he had now paid her the $20 he had promised her. She in turn paid Mr. Black to settle her bread and pastry account.

Mr. Black handed it to Mr. Hadley, asking credit for the amount on his flour account.

Mr. Hadley again passed it to Mr. Brown, with the remark that it settled for that month's board, whereupon Mr. Brown put it back in his pocket, observing that he had not supposed a greenback would go so far.—Osceola (Iowa) Sentinel.

MACHINE RECORDS LOVE.

Register of Affections is a Great Boon to the Bashful.

If you happen to be bashful, which you possibly may be, in the gentle art of wooing, you may right now take unto yourself cheer, jollity, mirth and satisfaction, for all your troubles can soon be over. You may have to become a phytomographer to make things right and you might regard yourself as a good deal of a cuss to do that, but you would have the exact and precise knowledge which is so satisfying.

All you have to do is to lure the object of your affections over to Philadelphia, and then out to the laboratory of the psychological clinic of the University of Pennsylvania. The rest is easy. With a careless air you inveigle her to place her dainty hand—of course the hand is dainty—in a machine which you will notice labeled "phytomograph," or "phynograph." Then you step into the next room and get the man in charge of the machine to whisper your name softly in her ear.

The machine does the rest. If she has merely a sneaking regard for you, or if she is indifferent, or if she just palpitates with what she thinks of you, the machine will show it. The indicator will tell the real story in the next room.

The machine registers a distinct line on a sheet of paper, which records with precise accuracy the force of the emotions which are aroused by the mention of your name.

Of course, if the line swerves despairingly down, there is nothing in the world to do but get the girl away as soon as possible and seek in other fields your heart mate. But if it curves up—and curves up with a good, smart sharpness—it is a cue for you to rush back, tell the man who is operating the machine that he really isn't needed, and then clasp the dear girl firmly to your heart. Tell her you know she thinks the world of you, and that she needn't say "yes," as you have her answer already. She will regard this as a bit of masterful work, and your stock will rise accordingly.

Later we doubtless will have pocket machines of the same sort, and they will be a boon to the bashful. "She loves me, she loves me not," will be a game which will return to favor even outside the daisy season. In fact, the invention or discovery, or whatever it is, supplies a sporting chance on which wagers may be made and as such a thing much to be desired.—New York Telegraph.

ALL HER FAULT.

She hurried down the stairs to join her husband, who was waiting to go out with her to the party.

"Oh, Jack!" she cried. "Wait a moment. You—"

"I never saw anything like it!" exclaimed Jack impatiently. "You always forget something. You girls are enough to drive any patient man frantic."

"But, Jack, dear—"

"Oh, go upstairs and get what you want, and don't for goodness' sake, keep me waiting any longer."

"But I haven't forgotten anything, dear. It's you—"

"Good gracious! What next, I wonder? I've been dressed and ready waiting for you this last half hour."

"Indeed!" she said frigidly. "Then why is it you have no neck tie on?"

"Goodness!" he ejaculated. "Why couldn't you tell me that before, instead of staring at me and saying nothing?"

WHEN EGGS WERE EGGS.

Paddy Doolan went into a shop one morning to buy eggs. "What are eggs today?" "Eggs are eggs today, Paddy," replied the shopman, looking quite triumphantly at two or three young ladies who happened to be in the shop. "Faith, I'm glad to hear you say so," replied Paddy, "for the last ones I got here were chickens."

Many people are made giddy by the social whirl. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper.

INFLUENCE.

Influence, like a pebble dropped into the water, will ever circle and widen until it is lost in the vast ocean of eternity. In our own home, where we spend the best part of our lives, how far reaching, how unending is our influence. Here is no neutral ground, for within its holy precincts we wear no disguise. We are our own selves around the fireside when at home. How sad that we should exercise self control while a stranger is present and in the presence of our loved ones often give way to ill temper, and by our own unkind words wound the loving hearts around us.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fills almost every cell in the body with its oxygenating, purifying, and invigorating influence. It cures the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and seal pain in passing it, and obviates following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go when alone in the street, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for overeating but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Nervous Prostration

"I suffered so with Nervous Prostration that I thought there was no use trying to get well. A friend recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine, and although skeptical at first, I soon found myself recovering, and am to-day well."

MRS. D. I. JONES, 5800 Broadway, Cleveland, O.

Much sickness is of nervous origin. It's the nerves that make the heart force the blood through the veins, the lungs take in oxygen, the stomach digest food, the liver secrete bile and the kidneys filter the blood. If any of these organs are weak, it is the fault of the nerves through which they get their strength. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a specific for the nerves. It soothes the irritation and assists in the generation of nerve force. Therefore you can hardly miss it if you take Dr. Miles' Nervine when sick. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.
