

Made 41 Bales of Cotton With Only One Mule

Read in our Farmers' Year Book or Almanac for 1910 how a planter in Terrell County, Georgia, made 41 bales of cotton with only one mule, a record breaking yield, and he had a nine weeks' drought—the worst in years. His gross income was $2,098.47 for this crop. You can do it too

By Using Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers

DO YOU DRIVE TO TOWN?

This farmer has placed his telephone at home.

And find the market unfavorable for your produce? The farmer who has a telephone in his home can telephone first. The useless trips thus saved are worth the cost of service.

Under our plan the service costs but a trifle; the farmer owns the instrument and the equipment.

SWING HOME,

Swing home, swing home, from the shop and mill.
Swing home, swing home, o'er the vale and hill.
Swing home, swing home, where the sweethearts wait
While the twilight falls at the lilac gate.

Swing home, swing home, from the wear and tear
To the sweetheart lips that are waiting there;
Swing home, swing home, to the sweetheart gleam
By the violet gates of the twilight dream.

Swing home, swing home, with the merry heart
Of the man who has served and done his part;
Swing home, swing home, from the toil and care
To the lips of love that are lips of prayer.

A BILL NYE STORY. DRAWING INFERENCES.

The following anecdote appeared in the first number of the Bookman and has just been reproduced in that magazine. It concerns Edward W. Nye (Bill Nye), who made, we are informed, a short speech at an author's dinner in London that was much relished by the bookmen present, including the publishers, at whom it was indirectly aimed. "Just a year ago," he said, "I was walking on the principal street of Indianapolis, when I met a man whose appearance showed that he was reduced to the very depths of poverty. His clothes were ragged, his face unshaven, his hair long and matted and his feet unshod. As I passed him a look of recognition came into his eye.

"Nye, old fellow, don't you know me? Don't you know Abel P. Jones, who was your classmate at college?"

"What, Jones? Is it really you? Well, well, what can I do for you?"

"For heaven's sake, help me. I am starving. Lend me half a dollar.

"I felt in my pockets. They were empty. I had no money myself. But a bright thought flashed through my mind.

"Abel, I can't lend you the half dollar; I haven't got it. But look here: I'll tell you what I will do; I'll let you publish my next book."

"Gentlemen, that was just a year ago; and this month Abel P. Jones sent me an invitation to go to Europe with him in his steam yacht."

ROOT'S ONION ILLUSTRATION

Senator Elihu Root's onion story told at a recent dinner, is an illustration of the difficulty in concealing evil practices.

"Take the case," said Mr. Root, "of old John Rodewin. John was a lawyer's confidential clerk, and he had the pernicious habit of going to a neighboring saloon every morning at 11 o'clock and taking a small glass of whiskey. He was not proud of this habit; hence, after the whiskey he always took a clove.

"But one morning it happened that there were no cloves on the bar, and John, after having considered the matter, ate a small onion from the free lunch tray. That would destroy the telltale whiskey odor, no doubt, as well as the clove had always done, and so thinking he returned to his desk.

"It was a double desk. At it he and his employer sat face to face. John, on his return was soon aware that his employer noticed something. The man's nostrils quivered, he sniffed and finally with a grimace of disgust he broke out:

"Look here, John, I've stood whiskey and cloves for 19 years, but I draw the line on whiskey and onions."—New York Herald.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Ever notice how few people are related to their friends?

Saved a Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone, of Kemp, Texas, than being it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 178 pounds." For Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough and lung trouble, its supreme. 50c. $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Pale-Faced Women

You ladies, who have pale faces, sallow complexions, dark circles under eyes, drawn features and tired, worn-out expressions, you need a tonic.

The tonic you need is Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is the best tonic for women, because its ingredients are specifically adapted for women's needs. They act on the womanly organs and help to give needed strength and vitality to the worn-out womanly frame.

Cardui is a vegetable medicine. It contains no minerals, no iron, no potassium, no lime, no glycerin, no dangerous, or habit-forming drugs of any kind. It is perfectly harmless and safe, for young and old to use.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"After my doctor had done all he said he could for me," writes Mrs. Wm. Hilliard, of Mountainburg, Ark., "I took Cardui, on the advice of a friend, and it helped me so much. Before taking Cardui, I had suffered from female troubles for five years, but since taking it, I am in good health. I think there is some of the best advice in your book that I ever saw." Your druggist sells Cardui. Try it.
