

Weak Throat—Weak Lungs

Cold after cold; cough after cough! Troubled with this taking-cold habit? Better break it up. We have great confidence in Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for this work. No medicine like it for weak throats and weak lungs. Ask your doctor for his opinion. He knows all about it. His approval is valuable. Follow his advice at all times. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

MISS WARD WINS PRIZE.—Miss Katherine Ward, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Ward, of this town, is winner of the $10 prize offered by the Forestry and Waterways Commissions for the best essay by pupils of the public high schools of North Carolina on the conservation and improvements of the forests and water ways. The papers by Halifax county pupils were first submitted to Dr. A. S. Harrison, of Enfield, county superintendent of public schools. Dr. Harrison selected the essay of Miss Ward on the "Conservation and Improvement of Waterways," and the essay of Miss Willie Green Day, on "Forestry," as being the best in Halifax county. These papers were submitted to State Superintendent Joyner who decided in favor of Miss Katherine Ward's essay as the best in the State on "Waterways," and she was awarded the prize of $10 in gold. This is a well earned honor and Miss Ward is to be congratulated on her success in winning the prize where there were 500 many competitors in the contest. It is also remarkable that in a large county like Halifax that two best essays should have been prepared by pupils of the Weldon High School.

DEATH OF MR. TUDOR.—Mr. John Henry Tudor, who has been making his home at Rosemary for sometime, died at the home of his mother at Stony Creek, Va., Friday evening, July 8th, after an illness of about four weeks.

The death of this excellent young man was sad, indeed. On April 6th he was happily married to Miss Myrtle Fulgham, at the home of the bride, near town, and ere the honeymoon had fairly waned this devoted young wife was a widow.

Mr. Tudor was taken with typhoid fever and about three weeks ago he was removed to his former home at Stony Creek. The fever developed into typhoid pneumonia.

On Friday last the parents of the young bride, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fulgham, left here for his bedside and only reached Stony Creek in time to see him pass quietly into the spirit land.

Mr. Tudor was a most excellent young man and his untimely death causes sorrow in many hearts. For his bereaved young wife the tender sympathy is felt. May the Lord bind up her crushed and broken heart and give her strength to bear up under this heavy affliction.

The funeral and interment took place at Stony Creek Sunday afternoon, and there were many beautiful floral offerings and a large crowd of sorrowing friends to offer tender words of sympathy for the bereaved family in their affliction.

DEATH OF MAJOR WILSON.—Major James W. Wilson, who died recently at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joel Jenkins Hutchison, in Charlotte, was for some years a resident of this town, and was the father of our honored townsman, Mr. A. E. Wilson.

Major Wilson was born in Granville county, December 17, 1832. He served valiantly in the Confederate army, first as Captain in the Sixth N. C. Regiment, and later as assistant quartermaster in Ramsey's brigade. At the close of the war Major Wilson returned to the service of the Western North Carolina railroad, and was later made president of the road. He was chairman of the first Corporation commission, and was always true and devoted to the best interests of the people of his State. His greatest feat was in engineering the western N. C. Railroad over and through the mountains at Round Knob. In one view of the road the track is plainly visible six times, as it winds around the spur up the steep slopes and then across the mountains to Asheville, and all this was due to the engineering skill of one man—Major Wilson, whose death is lamented over the entire State. He lived here for quite a number of years and was president of the Roanoke Navigation and Water Power Company, and was largely interested in the cotton seed mill, destroyed some years ago by fire.

Major Wilson was honored and esteemed by the people of Weldon, and to his bereaved children and grandchildren we extend heartfelt sympathy.

RUN-AWAY GIRLS.—Misses Hilma Lammie, Mary C. Smith and Gertrude Pierce, three pretty Portsmouth girls, were taken in charge by Chief Dickens here Monday evening. The father of Miss Lammie wired the Chief that his daughter came to Weldon to be married to Mr. Will Williams and that she was only fifteen years old and asked that the girls be held until his arrival. He came Tuesday and took the trio of run-aways back to Portsmouth.

THE FOUR CORNERS.—One of the bright high school boys explains that the "four corners of the earth" are, Rocketteller's corner in oil; Havenmeyer's corner in sugar; Carnegie's corner in steel; and Weldon is the other corner.

A man seldom deserves half the praise he gets after he is in the hands of the undertaker.

Beware of good intentions that kick over the traces.

'Foley Kidney Pills Have Cured Me'
The above is a quotation from a letter written by H. M. Winkler, Evansville, Ind. "I contracted a severe case of kidney trouble. My back gave out and I pained me. I seemed to have lost all strength and ambition; was bothered with dizzy spells, my head would swim and speak that before my eyes. I took Foley Kidney Pills regularly and now perfectly well and feel like a new man. Foley Kidney Pills have cured me."

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO TEACHERS

A County Institute will be held in Enfield beginning Monday, July 18th and continuing two weeks. The law requires all public school teachers to attend continuously. Arrangements for board have been made at the rate of about five dollars a week. If you wish to secure board in advance write to Mr. C. L. Whitaker, Enfield, N. C., who will do his best for you. It will be necessary for you to have the following books:

Webb and Ware's Drawing I, Graded Classes, I and II, Classics, Old and New, III, Claxton's Grim's Fairy Stories, Hiawatha Primer, McMurtry's Robinson Crusoe, Baldwin's Fifty Famous Stories, Dixon's Special Black Pencil, No. 343.

Tennyson's Idylle of the King. These books may be secured after you reach Enfield, as a supply will be on hand there for this occasion. If you have any or all of these books bring them along, as it will save the cost of new ones.

We expect a big educational rally Monday, July 18th and another big rally Friday, July 29th. We are especially anxious that the members of the Board of Education, the committee and all friends of education shall attend one or both of these rallies. The education of your children is the most important subject that can engage your attention. Therefore, make an effort to attend these rallies and the Institute, too, if you can. The Institute will be conducted by Professor N. W. Walker, of Chapel Hill, and Miss Susie Pulgum, of Goldsboro.

A. S. HARRISON.

HALIFAX LETTER.

HALIFAX, N. C., July 12.

Mr. George Cooper, of Petersburg, was a visitor here a few days ago.

Mrs. J. L. Weller and children, left a few days ago to visit relatives and friends in Norfolk, and will be gone several weeks.

Miss Leona Shaw left a few days ago for Tarboro and Rocky Mount to visit relatives.

Mrs. P. H. Westphal and children, with her mother, Mrs. Louis Froelich, are spending sometime in Norfolk and at Ocean View.

E. G. Gilliam, of Gastonia, has been here for several days to see his mother and sisters.

John G. Daniel, who has been spending some days here with his parents, left for his home in New York last Friday.

J. K. Elliott who has been located in South Carolina with a large lumber concern for some weeks, is here this week to see his friends.

J. L. Weller spent several days in Norfolk last week with his family.

Mr. Frederick Froelich returned from Richmond last Friday where he spent the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Prince and son, of Greenville, S. C., Mrs. N. S. Sellers and children of New York, and Miss Bessie Durham, of Rochester, N. Y., have been visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Durham, at "Cedarhurst" farm for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gowan and children and the Misses Leonard and Essie Howerton left Sunday for Wells, Maine, and will be gone all the first of September.

Miss Kate Wilkerson, of Richmond, is here this week with Miss Frances Sater.

Mr. Edward Whitehead, of Littleton, was here on Monday to see relatives.

Misses Leslie and Mary Gooch Stevens, of Petersburg, spent several days here last week with Mrs. C. H. Hale.

Mr. W. D. Harrington, of Enfield, organizer and lecturer of the farmers co-operative union, was a visitor here Monday.

The little crops around here now are hustling and look very well. Though small for the time of the year, where they have been properly worked and are clean of grass they are in a nice growing shape. Our people are hopeful yet.

The ladies gave out to the children of the town last Friday on the beautiful cool banks of Quanty creek, a nice little picnic which to them was more than enjoyable.

Rev. J. E. Holden preached two powerful sermons here Sunday morning and evening. He dealt in a terrible blow, flaying it at every point.

Dr. Ferabee, of Raleigh, spent Monday here with his sister, Mrs. J. H. Fenner.

Rev. A. G. Wilcox will commence a meeting at the Baptist church at this place on the 5th Sunday in July. The Rev. T. J. Taylor, of Warrington, will do the preaching. He asks that all friends of the church pray for the success of the meeting.

The following have been officers of the ensuing year as installed of the Royal White Hart Chapter O. O. E. S.: Mrs. Florence Wilcox, Worthy Matron; Mr. J. L. Weller, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Virginia Hale, Ass. Matron; Mrs. Virginia N. Weller, Secretary; Mrs. Lucy Butts, Treasurer; Miss Kebe Ousby, Conductress; Miss Nell Nelson, Ass. Conductress; Mr. C. H.
