THE FAMOUS PREACHER OF THE CITY OF CHURCHES.

Pastor Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle--America's Ubiquitous Preacher--His Remarkable Foreign Tour and His Return. Comments of Foreign Journals on His Work.

From the London "Elephant and Castle" (July 2, 1910).
SINCE the days of Henry Ward Beecher and Dr. Talmage no preacher has occupied so prominent a position in the United States of America as Pastor Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle. His sermons are heard in the most important cities of the world, and his great popularity is shown by the fact that he is invited to speak at the meetings of the International Bible Students' Association, which are to be held at the Albert Hall on the evening of Sunday next and the two following Sundays. He will in addition visit during the next three weeks the principal cities of Europe, and his great popularity is shown by the fact that he is invited to speak at the meetings of the International Bible Students' Association, which are to be held at the Albert Hall on the evening of Sunday next and the two following Sundays. He will in addition visit during the next three weeks the principal cities

PASTOR RUSSELL SPEAKING IN ROYAL ALBERT HALL.

The Royal Albert Hall, London, England, is the largest and finest auditorium in the world. It was here that Pastor Russell delivered his now famous remarks of consolation and comfort to the bereaved royal family of the late King Edward VII. Pastor Russell was the principal speaker in the three Royal Albert Hall Sunday May meetings of the International Bible Students' Association held May 8, 15 and 22 respectively. His opening remarks on the Sunday evening following the death of King Edward VII. were well received by the British public, being called to and published by the various leading papers in New York City. During his European tour the principal London and New York newspapers made very favorable comments concerning Pastor Russell and his work.

Brooklyn Tabernacle holds today. Now we on this side of the Atlantic are to be privileged to listen to the man the announcement of whose name fills to overflowing the largest halls in the United States. Pastor Russell will be the principal and towns in England, Scotland and Ireland. Like Beecher and Talmage, both of the same City of Churches, Pastor Russell is an independent teacher, unaffiliated to any particular denomination or organization, giving his time, his power that on some points it has been misunderstood by both friends and foes. In his search for a basis upon which to build his hope for future bliss he undertook a lengthy investigation of the claims of Confucius, Mohammed, Buddha and other founders of religions. These he found to be unsatisfactory to either heart or head. Almost without hope, he took up the systematic study of the question of the punishment for sin. His findings were such as to restore perfect confidence in the Bible as God's inspired word and revelation.

Will Carry the Gospel to Sailors of New York on Gift Yacht.

(From the New York Evening Journal, June 9, 1910.)
Pastor Russell of the Peoples Pulpit Association today declared that he would use the yacht Angel, presented to him by his association, to carry the gospel to the sailors of New York harbor, and, although complete arrangements have not been made for the work, he said there was no reason for questioning the efficacy of his plan. "I have in my plans," he said, "one to make a mission boat of the Angel, preaching the gospel on her decks every night of the week in a different language, carrying the Word to sailors of all nations. A practical plan would be to moor the yacht at different points nightly and advertise meetings for sailors. Sermons could be in English, German, Swedish, Italian and the tongues of other seafaring nations. The Angel is 125 feet over all and uses both sails and naphtha. Seventy persons can find accommodations in her cabin and more on her deck during fair weather. Pastor Russell accepted the Angel, he said, not for himself, but as a trustee for the association.

PROVED HIS WORDS.

Still, the Philosopher Didn't Like It When Death Called.

A certain philosopher was in the habit of saying whenever he heard that an old friend had passed away "Ah, well, death comes to us all! It is no new thing. It is what we expect. Pass me the butter, my dear. Yes, death comes to all, and my friend's time had come."

Now, Death overheard these philosophical remarks at different times, and one day he showed himself to the philosopher.

"I am Death," said he simply. "Go away!" said the man in a panic. "I am not ready for you."

"Yes, but it is one of your favorite truisms that Death comes to all, and I am but proving your words."

"Go away! You are dreadful!" "No more dreadful than I always am. But why have you changed so? You have never feared the death that has come to your friends. I never heard you sigh when I carried off your old companions. You have always said, 'It is the way of all flesh.' Shall I make an exception in favor of your flesh?"

"Yes, for I am not ready." "But I am. Your time has come. Do not repent. Your friends will go on buttering their toast. They will take it as philosophically as you have taken every other death."

And the philosopher and Death departed on a long journey together. —Charles Battell Loomis.

THE CAPTAIN'S DAUGHTER.

We were crowded in a cabin, Not a soul would dare to speak; It was midnight on the water, And a storm was on the deep.

'Tis a fearful thing in winter, To be sheltered by the blast; And to hear the rattling trumpet, Thunder 'Cut away the mast.'

So we sheltered there in silence, While the captain held his breath; And the hungry seas were roaring, And the breakers talked with death.

As thus we sat in darkness, Each one busy in his prayers, "We are lost," the captain shouted, As he struggled down the stairs.

But his little daughter whispered, As she took his ivory hand, "Isn't God upon the ocean, Just the same as on the land?"

Then we kissed the little maiden, As we spoke in better cheer; And we anchored safe in harbor, When the morn was shining clear.

AD THE PRICE.

In vain they told the heiress that the Duke was an impostor and worse.

"Why," said a friend, "I have read there is a price upon his head."

But the heiress, all serene, only answered, "I have the price."

PUTTING AWAY SMALL SUMS

Here, you can put away small sums not needed for present use. And while waiting your call they will draw interest. An account in our Savings Department does not always imply small transactions, far from it. Many large depositors are using our Savings pass-books. They are using them for the interest they get; they are also using them because of the convenience afforded. 4 per cent. interest allowed, compounded quarterly.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for impurities and suffering. Therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys must, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can not rest and have quick relief until your kidneys are made healthy.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Finner's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Finner & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in the name of Swamp-Root if you do you will be disappointed.
