Eden's Forbidden Fruit Now Means of Driving Sin From World.

The forbidden fruit of the Garden of Eden which brought sin into the world is now looked on as the means of driving sin out of the world. No less an august body than the Iowa State Horticultural Society is standing sponsor for the movement to remove the stigma from the apple.

When Eve, sorely tempted, partook of the luscious fruit which she had been forbidden to touch, she all unwittingly cast a blight on the apple, which centuries of civilization and national shows at Spokane have been unable to remove. It has remained for an apple loving country doctor to discover that not only can the world be fed until it has secured the necessary calories of energy, but that the craving for liquor--conceded to be the greatest cause of misery and crime--can be eradicated from the human body by the apple. As if this were not miracle enough, it is contended that General Grant might have won the siege of Vicksburg and the battle of Appomattox by munching on a Red Davis, a Spitzenberg, or a Jonathan, just as well as puffing on a fat black cigar.

The use of apples as an article of diet will very much diminish disease and ultimately abate the appetite for alcoholic stimulants," declares Dr. Samuel Bailey of Mount Airy, Iowa. "That this is a fact could be proved in many instances if a little care, caution and vigilance were taken to thoroughly investigate conditions. As a rule, the habitual user of alcoholic stimulants is rarely a lover or consumer of apples.

There seems to be a peculiar combination in apples, in the acid in them, or in the peculiar chemical combination of the apples, that allays the irritation, or so-called appetite, produced by the use of liquor. I am also of the opinion that the keen appetite for tobacco is limited by the use of apples. I am thoroughly convinced that any man who is a lover of whiskey and is in a condition when he thinks he must have a drink if he will eat an apple before he takes a drink, will find that his appetite for the drink has been materially lessened, if not entirely abated for the time."
--From the Technical World Magazine.

CHILDREN TEETHING
Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over 50 years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gum, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

A BIASED OPINION.
"Do you think buttermilk will prolong one's life, Colonel Soaksby?"
"Ahem! I have no doubt, Miss Plumper, that if a person had to drink buttermilk everyday it would make life seem longer."

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.
The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvellous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of faithful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. Its positively guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c at all druggists.

BREAKING IT GENTLY.
Simpkins always was soft-hearted, and when it devolved upon him to break the news gently of Jones' drowning to the bereaved Mrs. Jones, it cost him much paper, ink and perspiration before he sent the following:
"Dear Mrs. Jones: Your husband cannot come home today, because his bathing suit was washed away."
"P. S.--Poor Jones was inside the suit."

A WOMAN'S QUESTION.

Do you know you have asked for the costliest thing Ever made by the Hand above--
A woman's heart and a woman's life,
And a woman's wonderful love?
Do you know you have asked for this priceless thing
As a child might ask for a toy,
Demanding what others have died to win,
With the reckless dash of a boy?
You have written my lesson of duty out,
Man-like you have questioned me--
Now stand at the bar of my woman's soul
Until I question thee.
You require your mutton shall always be hot,
Your socks and your shirts shall be whole;
I require your heart to be true as God's stars
And pure as heaven your soul.
You require a cook for your mutton and beef,
I require a far better thing.
A seamstress you're waiting for stockings and shirts--
I look for a man and a king.
A king for a beautiful realm called home,
And a man that the Maker, God,
Shall look upon as he did the first,
And say, "It is very good."
I am fair and young, but the rose will fade
From my soft, young cheek one day--
Will you love me then, 'mid the falling leaves,
As you did 'mid the bloom of May?
Is your heart an ocean so strong and deep
I may launch my all on its tide?
A loving woman finds heaven or hell
On the day she is made a bride.
I require all things that are grand and true,
All things that a man should be;
If you give this all, I would snake my life
To be all you demand of me.
If you cannot do this--a laundress and cook
You can hire, with little to pay,
But a woman's heart and a woman's life
Are not be won that way.
--Lena Lathrop, in Kansas City Star.

BACKWARD, TURN BACKWARD,

Backward, turn backward, O Time, in your flight,
And give us a maiden dressed proper and right!
We are so weary of switches and rats,
Billie Burke clusters and peach-basket hats;
Wads of jute hair in a horrible pile,
Stacked on their heads to the height of a mile!
Something is wrong with the maidens, we fear--
Give us the girls as they used to appear!
Give us the girls we once knew of yore,
Whose curls didn't come from a hair-dressing store,
Maidens who dressed with a sensible view,
And just as Dame Nature intended them to!
Give us a girl with a figure her own,
And fashioned divinely by Nature alone;
Feminine styles getting fiercer each year--
Oh! give us the girls as they used to appear.
Oh, for a girl with a sensible mind!
One of the twenty-five-years-ago kind,
One whose fair tresses were ample enough
Without additions of make-believe stuff!
Give us the days when the hats women wore
Were not the reason why Christian men swore;
Over our way such a fair maiden steer--
Yes, give us a girl as she used to appear!

Shall Women Vote?

DEAD FAILURES.

A Few Thoughts for Those Who Have Children to Educate.

The reason we have so many dead failures is that parents decide for children what they shall do, or children themselves, wrought on by some whims or fancy, decide for themselves. So we now have in pulpits men making sermons who ought to be in blacksmith shops making plowshares, and we have in the law those who instead of ruining the cases of their clients ought to be pounding shoe lasts, and doctors who are the worst hindrances to their patients' convalescence, and artists trying to paint landscapes who ought to be whitewashing board fences. While there are others making bricks who ought to be remodeling constitutions, or showing planes who ought to be transforming literature.

There are children who early develop natural affinities for certain styles of work. When the father of the astronomer Forbes was going to London he asked his children what he should bring each one of them. The boy who was to be an astronomer cried out "Bring me a telescope!" And there are children whom you find all by themselves drawing on their slates or on paper, ships or houses or birds, and you know they are to be draftsmen or are artists of some kind. And you find others ciphering out difficult problems with rare interest and success, and you know they are to be mathematicians. And others making wheels and strange contrivances, and you know they are going to be machinists. And others are found experimenting with hoe and plow and sickle and you know they will be farmers. And others are always swapping jack knives or balls or bats and making something by the bargain and they are going to be merchants.

HEALTHGRAMS.

Closed windows are open avenues to consumption.
Strong drink makes weak men.
Your lungs can't be washed but they can be aired.
Flth for flies and flies for fever.
When you don't know what to eat--eat nothing.
Dry-dusting moves dust; it doesn't remove it.
So-called chest protectors are targets for colds and coughs.
Breathe freely and fully; the more you expand your chest the less you will contract colds.
A fat man is usually a cheerful man. He was cheerful before he was fat. (A hint to thin men.)
Floods of sunshine in the home may fade carpets, but it puts the bloom of health upon your cheeks. Take your choice.

UP AGAINST IT.

Man certainly gets up against it in this world. The doctor is the first one to get hold of him when he lands in this sphere; a little later he is landed on by his mother who is usually an expert in yielding the slipper; a few more years he is pounced upon by the school teacher. He is not long out of the teacher's hand until he is taken in charge by some woman. During life the doctor gets hold of him occasionally until he at last falls into the hands of the undertaker. After that there is sometimes just a little doubt as to whose hands he falls into.--Marks Review.

Not Sorry for Blunder.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky. "but for years they were every attempt to cure a lung racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping coughs or weak lungs. 50c. $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

PUTTING AWAY SMALL SUMS

Here, you can put away small sums not needed for present use. And while waiting your call they will draw interest. An account in our Savings Department does not always imply small transactions, far from it. Many large depositors are using our Savings pass-books. They are using them for the interest they get; they are also using them because of the convenience afforded. 4 per cent. interest allowed, compounded quarterly.

ALL IN THE FAMILY.

In one of Pittsburg's hot municipal campaigns the issue was largely Senator William Finn, who, by one party, was held responsible for everything that happened in the city for years, and by the other party, for everything good.

Finn was a contractor at that time of the firm of Finn & Booth. At a mass-meeting of colored citizens an impassioned orator assailed Finn, and charged him with all sorts of high crimes and misdemeanors, and in his ecstasy of denunciation wound up with: "An! I ast you, who was it that shot down that great man, Abram Linkum?--I ast you dat. It was Finn."
"Hol' on, Mistub Speakah," broke in a Finn man. "It wasn't no man named Finn what shot Mistub Linkum."
"Who was it, den?" shouted the orator.
"Booth,"
"Well," yelled the speaker triumphantly, "what's de difference? It was one of de firm."--Saturday Evening Post.

FILLING UP.
"What do you do when you have no news?" It must be hard to fill up.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.
Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness. It has been seen disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.
Kidney trouble has become an unpleasant thing to be afflicted with. It is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine smells the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is wet soiled with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.
Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in six-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a simple bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
