The democracy chose a Moses—not a Jonah.

SEA GIRL now becomes a large spot—on the map.

It always confuses a houn dawg for the rabbit to double on his track.

The country demanded first-rate goods and the convention at Baltimore supplied the demand.

MEANWHILE the grand old party elephant would enjoy a vacation from his diet of peanut politics.

WHEN Tom Platt made Roosevelt vice-president he certainly had no conception of what he was starting.

WHOEVER remarked, "least said, soonest mended," was no politician of the present school. Who cares about mending, anyway?

INDIANA, usually doubtful, expresses confidence in "Honest Tom Marshall," and the Taft smile over the outlook does not expand.

IN 1852 the Whigs did not realize that their party was dead until they received an invitation to the funeral in November of that year. History is about to repeat itself.

WITH the brilliant governor of New Jersey as leader, the Democratic party is assured of an overwhelming victory in November, says the Spartansburg (S. C.) Herald.

THE Spanish aviator who was wrecked by a flock of locusts should congratulate himself that he wasn't flying in a New Jersey skeeter belt.

AND in the mean time the personally conducted Ananias Club membership has reached high tide and the private census of Undesirable Citizens has grown beyond recognition.

It would be well for every one to be as tolerant as possible in discussing politics. An unjust criticism of a candidate, if made in the presence of his adherents, is sure to arouse bad feeling. The election is several months removed and there is abundant time for quiet meditation, and it becomes men to be tolerant, especially in the same household of faith.

A third political party was launched in Indiana late July 3rd, when progressive Republicans called from all over the State by Edwin M. Lee former Republican State chairman, adopted resolutions condemning the Chicago convention and declaring they would not abide by its acts. Provision was made for tickets in every county as well as for a State ticket.

A press bulletin of the State Board of Health says that from one-sixth of the population of North Carolina the law requires that all deaths, with their causes, and certain other data relating to sex, age, social conditions, etc., be registered in the office of Registrar of Vital Statistics at Raleigh. From this population there were reported 115 deaths from pellagra in 1910 and 176 deaths from the same disease in 1911, an increase of 52 per cent.

The old National Democratic rooster has opened one eye after a long nap and is beginning to shake the dust out of his wings. He is also consulting a throat specialist that he may be able to crow in November.

ALTHOUGH he had committed his crime a year before, a holdup man was recognized by his victim and arrested. The moral is that a man with that kind of a face has no business to go into the holdup business.

THE call for the formation of the Roosevelt party, evidently to be termed the National Progressive party, has been given out by J. M. Dixon, of Montana, the campaign manager of Colonel Roosevelt. It calls upon those who will follow the new flag to send representatives to Chicago on the fifth of August to organize the new movement to nominate a candidate for President, this to be the Colonel himself.

HENCEFORTH the chips must fly even over the fence into the back yards of the "interests." There can be no cuddling up to Mr. Ryan or Mr. Belmont or Mr. Morgan. There must be no olive branches to Colonel Harvey or Colonel Waterson or those other colons in the army of publicists who have so ardently striven to carry the party's proclamations. Governor Wilson was nominated not on the strength of the speeches he made in the East but of those he made in Texas and other wild and woolly States where his ideas fairly sizzled, says the New York Herald.

FOR hurry-up information about our new to be president, the Charlotte Observer takes the palm: Woodrow Wilson.—Paternal ancestry, Scotch Irish; father, Joseph Ruggles Wilson; mother, Jessie Woodrow; father's vocation, clergyman; time and place of birth, Staunton, Virginia, December 28, 1856; vocation, educator-publicist; college, Princeton, (also Davidson, University of South Carolina and University of Virginia law school); wife's name and former residence, Ellen Louise Axson, Savannah, Ga.; children, three daughters; home when elected, Princeton, N. J.; politics, Democrat; year of inauguration, 1913; age at inauguration, fifty-seven; religious connection, Presbyterian.

Not caring to wait upon The World Almanac of 1913 for these facts, we lay them before our readers now. Woodrow Wilson will be the twenty-eighth and probably also the twenty-ninth president of the United States.

TRIBUTE TO WILSON

The following is quoted as the opening portion of Judge Westcott's speech in placing Woodrow Wilson before the Baltimore convention:

New Jersey, once bound, but by the moral energy and intellectual greatness of a single soul, now free, comes to this great convention, to participate in your deliberations, and in formulating your judgments and assist in executing your decrees. The New Jersey delegation is not empowered to exercise the attributes of proprietorship, but as commissioned to represent the great cause of Democracy, and to offer you as its militant and triumphant leader, a scholar, not a charlatan; a statesman, not a doctrinaire; a profound lawyer, not a splitter of legal hairs; a political economist, not an egotistical theorist; a practical politician, who constructs, modifies, restrains without disturbance and destruction; a resistless debater and consummate master of statement, not a mere sophist; a humanitarian, not a defamer of character and lives; a man whose mind is at once cosmopolitan and composite of American; a gentleman of unpretentious habits, with the fear of God in his heart and the love of mankind exhibited in every act of his life; above all a public servant who has been tried to the uttermost and never found wanting—peerless, matchless, unconquerable, Democrat, Woodrow Wilson.

Has Its Share of the Proof That Kidney Sufferers Seek

Backache? Kidneys weak? Distressed with urinary ills? Want a reliable kidney remedy? Don't have to look far. Use what Weldon people recommend. Every street in Weldon has its cases.

Here's one Weldon woman's experience.

Let Mrs. E. T. Clark, of 7th street, tell it. Mrs. E. T. Clark, Seventh St., Weldon, N. C., says: "I have the utmost confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills, for they have been used in my family with the best of results. The person who took them was relieved of kidney complaint and backache and was also benefited in other ways. I feel justified in giving Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Clark had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c. all stores. Foster-Millburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Profits Doubled With The Benthall Peanut Picker!

If you grow peanuts and do not use a Benthall Peanut Picker, you actually lose money by not owning one. The Benthall makes peanut growing doubly profitable. The wages you pay—the losses from delays in not getting your crop early to market—the losses from birds and stealings—cost you more than a machine. If you own a Benthall, you and your boys can do the work of a hundred hands, and do it better. You send your crop to market early—secure highest prices. You stop the theft of your crop. Growers now see that hand picking is far too costly. The folly of attempting to "thresh" them has been plainly shown. For machines that "thresh" them destroy profits. They crack the nuts—and cracked nuts will not keep. They grind the vines to smithereens—and these vines are the equal of alfalfa for feed—worth from $12 to $20 per ton. Contrast such machines with the Benthall. The vines are fed to the Benthall just as grain to the threshing machine. The peanuts are pulled off the vine without injury to the shell. The machine picks as delicately as human fingers—hundreds of times more rapidly. Many buyers give preference to Benthall picked nuts. The vines are saved in perfect condition for hay. The recleaning and bagging attachment makes it unnecessary to run the peanuts over for seed the second time. This is the picker of proved worth—proved out in the peanut fields of Virginia. Either Spanish or Virginia varieties are picked equally as well. It is mounted—ready to hitch—as you would a farm wagon. You can easily move it from place to place. There are models suited for horse or engine power—machines that are made interchangeable. Every year sees more farmers using the Benthall. It has supplanted all other methods in many sections. And the demand this year promises to be greater than we can supply.

THE MACHINE THAT PAYS FOR ITSELF. If you don't want to let profits slip thru your fingers—if you want to make money growing peanuts, write us for our folder "How the Benthall Pays For Itself." Sent Free upon request.
