A WORD OF ADVICE.

This Article was Written by Louise M. Alcott. They were written Especially for the Younger Members of the Household.

"Dear young men and maids, let one, who is in the capacity of teacher, nurse, friend, or author, has been much between the scenes for fifty years assure you that the secret of success in life lies with ourselves as men and women now and in God's good time, as the fathers and mothers in the coming generations. Boys, for such I love to call you, and most of you are until five and twenty, set up a high standard and never tire of trying to reach it. Don't begin your day with a cigar and end in a theater, billiard room or club. Keep innocency, for in the end it shall profit thy soul much and open the way of heaven for thee. Never believe the pernicious saying that young men must sew wild oats."

"Girls, don't be in a haste to wed. Build up healthy bodies by good food, plenty of exercise and sleep. Learn all the household arts before you attempt to make a home. Above all, select your friends with care. Avoid girls who live only for fashion, flirtation and enjoyment, and use the privilege all women may claim, to decline the acquaintance of young men whose eyes will not bear inspection by the innocent eyes of women. Set your standard high and live up to it, sure that the reward will come, here or hereafter, and in the form best suited to your needs.

"Birth, marriage and death are three solemn mysteries given us to study, and the second of these is the key which solves the problem of the other two, since well-born children and true wedded love will help us to bless and save the world, and send us rejoicing to receive our reward in the next."

NOT VERY EASY.

In a certain home missionary movement, every participant was to contribute a dollar that she had earned herself by hard work. The night of the collection of the dollars came, and various and droll were the stories of earning the money. One woman had shampooed hair, another had baked doughnuts, another had secured newspaper subscriptions, and so on. The chairman turned to a handsome woman in the front row.

"Now, madame, it is your turn," he said. "How did you earn your dollar?"

"I got it from my husband," she answered.

"Oh!" said he. "From your husband? There was no hard work about that?"

The woman smiled faintly. "You don't know my husband," she said.

Young man, the safest way to study the color of her eyes is through a telescope.

HUSBAND NAILED RUBBER ON GATES

Wife so Weak and Nervous Could Not Stand Least Noise—How Cured.

Munford, Ala.—"I was so weak and nervous while passing through the Change of Life that I could hardly live. My husband had to nail rubber on all the gates for I could not stand it to have a gate slam. "I also had backache and a fullness in my stomach. I noticed that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was advertised for such cases and I sent and got a bottle. It did me so much good that I kept on taking it and found it to be all my claim. I recommend your Compound to all women afflicted as I was."—Mrs. F. P. MULLENDORF, Munford, Alabama.

An Honest Dependable Medicine is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A Root and Herb medicine originated nearly forty years ago by Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for controlling female ill.

Its wonderful success in this line has made it the safest and most dependable medicine of the age for women and no woman suffering from female ill does herself justice who does not give it a trial.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

START THE DAY RIGHT.

Start the day right. When the sun comes to greet you Give it a smile for each ray that it sends. Shake off the worries that long to defeat you. Strengthen your faith in yourself and your friends Yesterday's ghost will be striving to haunt you. Yesterday's errors may come to your brain; Throw off the worries that trouble and haunt you; Start the day right; begin over again.

What a brief span is the longest existence— One flashing journey from Nothing to Night! Show while you may the old Roman resistance— Off with your drowsiness—into the fight! Never an empire was won by a laggard; Never a prize was obtained but by worth; Heed not the sneers of the misanthropes haggard; Start the day right and they'll know you're on earth.

Start the day right and you'll find as it passes— Something to live for and something to love. View not the future through indigo glasses— Note the bright streams and the blue skies above. Failure may mock you through years of endeavor, Fame and success may not come at your will; But nothing can baffle a climber forever; Start the day right, and you're half up the hill.

LOVE THYSELF LAST.

Love thyself last. Look near, behold thy duty To those who walk beside thee down life's road, Make glad their days by little acts of beauty, And help them bear the burden of earth's load.

Love thyself last. Look far and find the stranger Who staggers 'neath his sin and his despair, Go lend a hand, and lead him out of danger To heights where he may see the world is fair.

Love thyself last. The vastnesses above thee Are filled with Spirit Forms, strong and pure, And fervently these faithful friends shall love thee; Keep thou thy watch o'er others and endure.

Love thyself last, and ah, such joy shall thrill thee, As never yet to selfish souls was given. What'er thy lot, a perfect peace will fill thee, And earth shall seem the ante-room of Heaven.

Love thyself last, and thou shalt grow in spirit To see, to hear, to know, and understand, The message of the stars, lo, thou shalt hear it, And all God's joys shall be at thy command.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

RURAL SARCASM.

Not much cider is manufactured in Westchester county for export, nearly all of it being consumed at home. Two Tuck-aloe farmers were comparing notes.

"How many barrels have you put up this year, Silas?" said one.

"Only seven, Joel," was the reply.

"Got any handy?"

"Sure thing, Silas," and Joel went into the house, returning soon with some of the apple elixir in a big tin dipper. "Try that," said he, and Silas sipped.

"Well, what do you think of it?" Joel inquired.

Silas shook his head dubiously.

"Don't you like it, Silas?" was the anxious inquiry.

"How many barrels did you say you made, Joel?" asked Silas.

"Seven."

"Well, Joel, if you had had another apple you might have made eight."—New York Herald.

THE GOSPEL OF HAPPINESS.

If You Must Fall in Life's Battle, Fall With a Smile on Your Face.

A woman who had many sorrows and heavy burdens to bear, but who was noted for her cheerful spirit, once said in explanation: "You know I have had no money. I had nothing to give but myself, and so I made the resolution that I would never sadden any one else with my troubles. I have laughed and told jokes when I could have wept. I have always smiled in every misfortune. I have tried to never let any one go from my presence without a happy word or a bright thought to carry with him. And making happiness engenders happiness. I myself am happier than I would have been had I sat down and bemoaned my fate."

This gospel of happiness is one which every one should lay to heart. Set out with the invincible determination that you will bear burdens and not impose them. Whether the sun shines or the rain falls, show a glad face to your neighbor. If you must fall in life's battle, you can at least fall with a smile on your face.—Wellspring.

"That's fine. I wish you joy. And what is his name?"

"I don't know yet, mum; but his number is 518."—Detroit Free Press.
