FRANCIS O. LINDQUIST

Francis O. Lindquist is the new congressman from the Eleventh district of Michigan. He attracted attention by conducting a "small order" campaign for election. He sent out over 900,000 pieces of literature to his constituents. Mr. Lindquist says he is a progressive Republican, but not a "bull moose."

HOW EDITORS GET RICH.

Here is the Secret of Their Success.

After a great deal of worry and study we have at last figured out how so many country editors get rich. Here is the secret of their success. There is a child born in the neighborhood. The attending physician gets $10. The editor gives the loud-lunged youngster a great send-off and get $50. It is christened and the minister gets $5 and the editor gets $50. It grows and marries. The editor publishes another long winded flowery article and tells a dozen different lies about "the beautiful and accomplished bride." The minister gets $10 and a piece of cake. The editor gets $500 and a request to carry the groom's subscription account another year. In the course of time she dies.

The doctor gets from $5 to $100 and the minister gets from $5 to $100, the editor publishes a notice of death and an obituary two columns long, lodge resolutions, a lot of poetry and a card of thanks and gets $5,000. No wonder so many country editors get rich.—Ex.

NO BENEFITS.

An old citizen in a country village being asked for a subscription toward repairing the fence of the graveyard, declined saying:

"I subscribed toward improving that burying ground nigh on to forty years ago and my family hasn't had no benefit from it yet."—Chicago Record-Herald.

HE MAKES A POINT.

"Women will never get the upper hand. Men are too smart."

"Can you point out one instance of men being smarter than women?"

"Well, men don't handicap themselves with clothes that button up the back."

NOT A QUADRUPLED.

"You can't go out like that, my dear, I can see right through your skirt."

"Why, what do you see?"

"Two legs."

"Well, that's all I've got!"—Life.

DIVIDED.

"Johnny," said his mother, severely, "someone has taken a big piece of ginger cake out of the pantry."

Johnny blushed guiltily.

"Oh, Johnny," she exclaimed, "I didn't think it was in you."

"It ain't all," replied Johnny.

"Part of it's in Elsie,"—Chicago Record.

When misfortune overtakes a hustler it has to go some.

Some girls are born foolish and some use peroxide.

Even a dull man has his good points.

HOT BISCUIT,

hot cakes, made with ROYAL Baking Powder are delicious, healthful and easily made.

"FORGIVE AND FORGET."

O, forgive and forget, for this life is too fleeting
To waste it in brooding o'er wrongs we have met
It is better, far better, to smother our anger,
To teach the proud heart to forgive and forget.
O forgive and forget, O forgive and forget;
O teach your proud heart to forgive and forget.

In the path we must tread, leading down to the valley,
Are crosses and trials to lift and to bear;
And the chance of life, from which we are now drinking,
Oft bears to our lips drops of sorrow and care.
O forgive and forget, O forgive and forget;
O teach your proud heart to forgive and forget.

But this life is so short, be it sunshine or shadow,
That we cannot afford to brood o'er a wrong;
Let us lift up our burdens and bear them on bravely;
We'll lay them down shortly, it cannot be long.
O forgive and forget, O forgive and forget;
O teach your proud heart to forgive and forget.

Then forgive and forget, if the friends we loved fondly
Prove themselves to be false and unworthy of trust;
O! deal with them kindly, for they are but mortals,
And erring like us, for we, too, are but dust.
O forgive and forget, O forgive and forget;
O teach your proud heart to forgive and forget.

ALL THE WAY.

When you come to a wearisome bit in the road,
Where the stones are thick and the path is steep,
And the back is bowed with the heft of the load,
As the narrowing way is hard to keep,
Don't stop just then for a wasteful sigh,
But challenge the worst with a steadfast cheer;
If nowhere else, there is help on high—
God's angel will hasten your pioneer.

When you reach a lonesome bit of the road,
Curtailed about with mist and murk,
And hear faint sounds from the dead above,
Where shivering grim hobgoblins lurk,
Just laugh to scorn their doleful cries—
This is the place to whistle and sing,
Brush the fog from your fearless eyes,
And close to the faith of your fathers cling.

When you stand at a sorrowful bit of the road
And a hand you love has foisted its clasp
When streams are dry that in sweetness flowed,
And flowers drop from your listless grasp—
E'en now take heart, for farther on
There is hope and joy and the dawn of day;
You shall find again what you thought was gone,
'Tis the merry heart goes all the way.

HE BLESSED IT.

A teacher of a Sunday school class tried to impress upon her the necessity of blessing the food before eating.

"Billy," she asked of a little fellow whose father was an elder in the church, "what prayer does your father say before you eat your dinner?"

"I dun know."
"Well, what did he say this morning before breakfast?"

"He said, 'You kids go slow on the butter now! It's 40 cents a pound.'"—Judge.

Best Medicine for Colds

When a druggist recommends a remedy for colds, throat and lung troubles, you can feel sure that he knows what he is talking about. C. Lower, druggist of Marion, Ohio, writes of Dr. King's New Discovery is the best throat and lung medicine I sell. It cured my wife of a severe bronchial cold after all other remedies failed. It will do the same for you if you are suffering with a cold or any bronchial, throat or lung cough. Keep a bottle on hand all the time for everyone in the family to use. It is a home doctor. Price 50c and $1. Guaranteed by all druggists.—Adv.

PAWS-ES.

A little boy having his music lesson was asked by his teacher: "What are pauses?"

And the quick response was: "Things that grow on pussycats."—Woman's Home Companion.

SENATOR KEY PITTMAN

Key Pittman is the new United States senator from Nevada. He was elected by popular vote to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Nixon. Senator Pittman is a Democrat and a comparatively young man who has made a name for himself in his state as a lawyer and business man.

THE NEW WOMAN.

A Womanly Woman has a Place Which No Man nor Woman nor Saint nor Angel Can Ever Displace.

If the new woman comes as the Creator planned when he "created man of his own image, in the image of God created He him: male and female created He them," by all that is good and holy, by all that is peaceable pure and praiseworthy, let her come and welcome. Let her voice be heard not only in the house but on the house top, let her place and power be recognized, carefully considered, and joyfully accepted and adopted, with a rising vote of the "party of the other part" unanimously expressed. If she comes of the precious instincts of motherly affection, of sisterly devotion, homelike emotions and tendencies; desires mutual help and protection to the wayfarers on the highway of human and earthly endeavor. God speed the day that places her in the front ranks of human effort and worldly progress. A womanly woman has a place which no man nor woman nor saint nor angel, can ever displace. Hers is the seat of honor in the front ranks of the better elements of soul being, or religious sentiment, of purity, of saintliness, and of the home.

WAYS OF WOMEN.

"Woman certainly ain't got no consistency."

"What's the matter, Mike?"

"Me wife chased me out wid a rolling pin, and then cried because I left home without kissing her good-bye."

TAKING NO CHANCES.

A professional man, visiting in a near-by town, had to drop a note to his stenographer.

"What is the proper way to address a young lady?" he asked his host. "Would you say, 'My Dear Miss,' 'Dear Miss,' or what?"

"Just address her as you would in the office," advised the friend.

"Oh, that would never do," the visitor exclaimed; "suppose my wife should get the letter?"

A TRUE OPTIMIST.

Vicar—Amid your troubles, Mrs. Grundy, I am pleased to see that your gratitude to Providence does not fail.

Mrs. Grundy—No, sir; rheumatism is bad, indeed, but I thank 'eaven I still 'ave a back to 'ave it in.—Life.

RETALIATION.

Agnes—I wish this suffragette movement would introduce the custom of girls calling on men.

Gladys—Goodness! Why?

Agnes—I know a few Staylats whom I'd enjoy keeping up until after midnight.—Judge.

Widows oft rush in where young girls fear to tread.
