THE LOCAL PAGE.

All the News of Town and Vicinity Gathered by Wide-Awake Reporters.

J. I. Wyche spent Thursday last in Richmond.

W. R. Smith spent a few days in Fayetteville this week.

Miss Gladys Young, of Dunn, is visiting Miss Lillie Gay Shaw.

We welcome every enterprise which will help to build up Weldon.

Mrs. H. B. Frail, of Hampton, Va., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Southall.

Mrs. Hiram P. Wall, of South Hill, Va., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stainback.

Miss Garnett Crocker, of Seaboard, is spending a few days with Misses Bernice and Ruth Clark.

Mrs. J. D. Simpson and children, of Richmond, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rodwell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gooch and Mrs. J. T. Carter left Monday for Panacea Springs to spend some time.

Mrs. Petty and children, of Portsmouth, came out Tuesday on a visit to relatives at Aurelian Springs.

Mrs. Anna L. Pierce's new dwelling on Washington avenue will be a handsome residence when completed.

Miss Marjorie Davis, of Wilson, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Pierce, returned home Monday.

Mrs. C. F. Whitted and Miss Susie Zollcoffer, who have been in Richmond for some time, have returned home.

Miss Jennie Tilghman, of Maxton, is here to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tilghman.

E. H. Smith, who has been in Florida for some time as civil engineer in charge of railroad work, is home to spend a few days.

According to the almanacs Saturday 21st was the longest day in the year and the official beginning of the good old summer time.

The Weldon Lumber Company is rebuilding their mill recently destroyed by fire. The new mill will be just double the size of the old one.

Remember the two old Confederates at the auditorium Friday night. All old soldiers present will be given seats of honor on the stage.

Mrs. Albert New and Miss Mary New left for Waynesville, Monday, where they will spend the summer. Rev. Mr. New has been there for the past few weeks.

Miss Katherine Ward is entertaining at a delightful house party this week, her charming guests being Miss Myrtle Warren, of Greenville, and Misses Gladys Yates and Lillian Riddick, of Raleigh.

Hon. E. L. Travis, chairman of the North Carolina Corporation Commission, went to Old Point Comfort Monday for conference with the freight traffic managers of the railroads doing business in North Carolina.

PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT.—Miss Sallie Pickett Oldham, of Wilmington, gave a most delightful entertainment in readings and elocution at the auditorium Thursday evening for the benefit of the Junius Daniel Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy. Miss Oldham was assisted in the program by Misses Annie Musgrove, Lillie Stainback, Julia Barrow, Eva Stainback and Mary Ellen Travis.

We desire to call attention to the advertisement of the State Normal and Industrial College which appears in this issue. Every year shows a steady growth in this institution devoted to the higher education of the women of North Carolina.

Two hundred appointments with free tuition, apportioned among the several counties according to school population, will be awarded to applicants about the middle of July.

PARK SEATS BROKEN.—Several of the lawn seats in the new central park have been broken or injured. We learn that this was done by boys who jumped upon them. These seats were given to the ladies of the Civic League by public spirited citizens and the police have been notified to keep a sharp lookout for anyone who attempts to injure the seats. So, look out all you offenders or else you will be haled into the Mayor's court.

A. & M. COLLEGE.—The advertisement of the Agricultural and Mechanical College at Raleigh appears in another column. This College is fulfilling its mission as a place for first-class technical training. Turn where you will and its graduates are making their mark on the industrial life of the State. The demands on the institution for men are increasing from year to year. If a young man wants to equip himself for leadership in agriculture, engineering, cotton manufacturing and allied pursuits he should consider the admirable opportunities offered by this busy College.

POLK MILLER ENTERTAINERS.—Veterans of the Civil war will attend the concert by the "two old Confederates," and Mr. Polk Miller's old South Quartette on Friday evening, June 27th, and, as guests on the stage of the Richmond entertainers, will travel back with them in memory of the days when together they fought the battles between the States and cracked jokes around the camp fire.

There is now every prospect of a crowded house for the concert and a rousing reception for the "Two Old Confederates" at the Auditorium Friday night, June 27th.

CALL FOR MASS MEETING.—The State is organizing for Just Freight Rates. Weldon and Halifax county have as much interest in this important matter as any other town or county. We hereby call a meeting of all citizens to be held at Town Hall Tuesday night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a branch association for Weldon and ask that the citizens of other towns organize locally so there may be an early call for a meeting at Halifax to perfect a county organization.

W. T. SHAW, W. A. PIERCE, D. R. ANDERSON, H. A. EDWARDS, J. L. SHEPHERD.

JOHNSTON-WADSWLEY.—The following announcement came as a surprise to many of our citizens yesterday morning. We join their great number of friends in heartiest congratulations. Everybody in this county knows of the high character and sterling integrity of "William Johnston." Miss Wadsley came to Littleton a few years ago bringing the highest class of credentials as a milliner. Since then she has convinced the public that she is not only a milliner, but a very excellent woman. She has made very few acquaintances here who did not become her friends. The community at large will welcome them to citizenship in Littleton.

Mr. William Hill Johnston and Miss Bertha Teresa Wadsley announce their marriage on Wednesday, the eighteenth day of June nineteen hundred and thirteen, Greenwood, South Carolina. At home after the first day of July, Littleton, North Carolina.—News Reporter.

BLOOD HOUNDS.—S. M. Dickens has his blood hounds here and he expects to do detective work. These famous dogs aided greatly in tracking the murder of Thomas Shaw. The names of these dogs are "Black Prince" and "Dina." Phone or wire if in need of blood hounds, to

S. M. DICKENS, Weldon, N. C.

WANTED.—Several million feet of ash lumber. Logs or on the stump. Write Brinker's Sons, South Richmond, Va.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.—The following is a list of letters remaining "uncalled for" in the Weldon post-office:

Willie Beasson, Robert Burns, (colored), Willie Carroll, Jim Henry Ellis, L. L. Edmondson, Leaner Hicks, Jimmie Johnston, Bob Pierce, Carrie Williams, Rubie K. Young.

Persons calling for above letters will please say "advertised," giving date of advertising.

JOHN O. BURTON, P. M., Weldon, N. C. June 23, 1913.

GOSPEL SINGER PASSES AWAY.—Frank Fitzgerald, the well-known gospel singer who assisted in a revival meeting at the M. E. church here in April, died in Raleigh, Sunday where he had been making his home for the past year.

Mr. Fitzgerald was a successful opera singer in New York, and about twelve years ago he turned his excellent talent to the singing of gospel hymns and helped in revival meetings. He came here in 1912 and so charmed and delighted all who heard him, that the pastor of the M. E. church secured his aid in the recent revival meetings here.

This faithful laborer in the Lord's vineyard now enters into rest and doubtless with voice tuned anew he can sing the everlasting songs of the redeemed, because he is happy and free forever more.

The Thrice-A-Week N. Y. WORLD!

EDITION OF THE

Practically a Daily at the Price of a weekly. No Other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price.

This is a time of great events and you will want the news accurately and promptly. The Democrats, for the first time in sixteen years, will have the Presidency and they will also control both branches of Congress. The political news is sure to be of the most absorbing interest.

There is a great war in the Old World, and you may read of the extinction of the vast Turkish Empire in Europe, just as a few years ago you read how Spain lost her last foot of soil in America, after having ruled the empire of half the New World.

The World long since established a record for impartiality, and anybody can afford its Thrice-A-Week edition, which comes every other day in the week, except Sunday. It will be of particular value to you now. The Thrice-A-Week World also abounds in other strong features, serial stories, humor, markets, cartoons; in fact, everything that is to be found in a first class daily.

The Thrice-A-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and

THE ROANOKE NEWS together one year for $1.75.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.
