THE PUBLIC SUPPORTS THE PRESIDENT.

President Wilson is receiving the most stalwart support from the public that any president has received in fifty years, and any Democrat who cannot approve the leadership of President Wilson should certainly have his sanity, patriotism, or intelligence examined by an expert because he is evidently wrong in one or more of these points.

CURRENCY BILL.

The currency bill which has been introduced in both houses of Congress is being discussed in every town and hamlet in the land. The thing that puzzles so many is that the bill deals with our greatest problem in such a simple and efficient way. While it takes the power of controlling our finances absolutely out of the hands or even the influence of Wall street, it nevertheless will prove a great blessing to our banks and will through them prove a great blessing to all legitimate business enterprises, and will place the banks more completely under the control of the government than they ever have been. The two main points of the Currency bill are therefore absolute Government control of the money of the country and the automatic expansion or increase of money according to the requirements of business.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The Tariff bill is now before the Senate for debate. It is believed that this bill will be debated by the Senate for four or five weeks and that it will pass the Senate about August 15th. The President is very certain that the bill will pass the Senate by a substantial majority.

The Democrats have fifty-one members in the Senate but it is likely that one or both of the Louisiana senators will prove traitors and vote against the bill so that will leave 49 Democrats to pass the bill; there is some doubt about Schaffroth, of Colorado, and Newlands, of Nevada. If these two Senators should go so far as to vote against the bill it is very certain that Pointdexter, of Washington, "Progressive" will vote with the Democrats, thereby making the votes stand forty-eight for and forty-eight against the bill, causing a tie. In that event Vice-President Marshall will cast the deciding vote and pass the bill.

Unightly Face Spots

Are cured by Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment, which heals all skin eruptions. No matter how long you have been troubled by itching, or scaly skin humors, just put a little of that soothing antiseptic, Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment, on the sores and the suffering stops instantly. Healing begins that very minute. Doctors use it in their practice and recommend it. Mr. Allenman, of Littleton, Pa., says: "Had eczema on forehead, Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment cured it in two weeks." Guaranteed to relieve or money refunded. All druggists or by mail. Pfeiffer Chemical Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.—Adv.

In the "Rockefeller church" in Cleveland the Rev. Dr. Bustard referred to John D. Rockefeller as one of the "roses in the Lord's garden."

An American beauty naturally. It was that variety John D., jr. took for his Sunday School text when he likened the making of a great trust by the killing of its rivals to the gardener's pruning of many buds to produce one big, long-stemmed, perfect rose.

And yet—one wonders what the snipped rosebuds think about it, robbed of what they may ignorantly fancy their right to blossom in the sun.

THEN, too, history must be rewritten. Booth didn't "conspire" to kill Lincoln; he "agreed." Guy Fawkes "agreed" to blow up the Houses of Parliament. Certain Roman gentlemen "agreed" to remove Julius Caesar. Emperor Paul I, of Russia, was slain as the result of an "agreement." The regrettable demise of King Macbeth carried out the "agreement" of a lady not "infirm of purpose." Let the blue-pencil historians begin!

The North Carolina veterans at Gettysburg met with recognition everywhere at the reunion at Gettysburg as being among the bravest of the brave in the fierce battles of the sixties. And it is high honor to have been of that body of North Carolina soldiery which has the proud record of "First at Bethel, Farthest at Gettysburg, Last at Appomattox."

ALTHOUGH the Beef Trust has been loudly asserting that cattle are diminishing in the country and the business is hard up, Government reports show an inspection of upward of 5,000,000 more animals for slaughter than in 1911 and the operation of 940 meat-food factories as against 919.

MISS JANE ADDAMS, of Hull House, who recently returned from the International Woman's Suffrage Convention at Budapest, issued a statement in which she expressed her unwillingness to become a candidate for mayor of Chicago in 1915.

The women of Liberty, Ill., having adopted the motto, "Housework first and politics afterward," did not go to the polls until they had put the home in order; but there were no bargains on the counter for the first corners.

FEWER married men than single ones are arrested. But Dan Turner, of Los Angeles, says he has lived to be one hundred and seven because he never married. And there you are.

The Irish Home-Rule bill has for a second time passed the present House of Commons and will for a second time go to the House of Lords, which will again doubtless reject it.

A Georgia boy has been paroled after serving two years for stealing a bottle of pop. It is understood, however, that this dangerous criminal will be watched closely.

THERE is a growing suspicion that Congress will make a lavish appropriation this year for a commodious annex to the Annias club.

JOHN D. Rockefeller, who is just 74 years old, has probably accumulated enough to keep him in comfort the rest of his life.

As we understand it the Democrats do not propose to raise all incomes to $3,000 but propose to tax all over that amount.

A doctor now comes along and asserts that people would not suffer from nervousness if they would go without shoes.

NOT only are the magazines planning Christmas issues, but the colleges are speculating on autumn football.

THE society for the suppression of unnecessary noises might turn its attention to Mr. Mann of Illinois.

NO other business is quite so important as making the children happy and keeping them healthy.

THAT currency bill is all right, even though it has incurred the support of Andrew Carnegie.

DESPITE denials, there's an idea that some of Mr. Roosevelt's friends don't like the outlook.

IS it not about time for the colleges to confer some more degrees upon Col. Roosevelt?

OUR Wall street exchanges argue that a tax on cotton futures would be a step backward.

THE wolves keep the bulls and bears on the jump on the Wall street jangle.

WHY not have a law providing for the early shutting down of joy riders?

IT takes a clever child to keep from saying smart things.

HATTIE LEE BOUNDS.

This Excellent Christian Woman Passes to Her Inheritance on The Other Side—Funeral Was at Emporia Saturday.

Mrs. Hattie Lee Bounds, beloved wife of Clayton P. Bounds, died at her home in South Weldon Thursday evening, July 10th, at 8:30 o'clock; aged 29 years, 5 months and 8 days. She died of that most dreaded disease, cancer.

Mrs. Bounds was a devoted member of the Methodist Church here and was a splendid Christian woman. She was of a bright, happy, joyous disposition and enjoyed life. Her death is peculiarly sad. Sometime ago it was found that she had a cancer on the side of her neck, and she was taken to the most eminent specialists in Richmond and New York for treatment. Her husband spared neither pains nor expense, but it was found that no permanent relief could be given, and far some time she has realized that the end was near. She did not shrink from death, knowing in whom she trusted, but she was young, full of life, had a sweet home, two pretty children and a devoted husband. Naturally she wanted to live, but she did not rebel. Quietly and sweetly she accepted the decree and calmly gave directions to her heart broken household as to her funeral, the care of her children and other instructions as to the keeping together of her household.

Mrs. Bounds was before marriage Miss Hattie Lee, a daughter of Sheriff S. W. Lee, of Greensville county, Va. She is survived by her husband, two children, her father, four brothers and five sisters, viz: W. I. Lee, L. M. Lee, S. E. Lee and Jesse Lee; Mrs. J. J. Taylor, Mrs. F. G. Lewis, Mrs. A. G. Slate and Misses Bettie and Lula Lee.

The remains were taken to her former home at Emporia, Va., Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock and the funeral service took place Saturday afternoon at half three o'clock, from the Emporia M. E. Church. A large number of Weldon friends went over to pay the last sad tribute and in Emporia there were signs of grief on every hand and from seven doors hung the sign of mourning. The service was feelingly conducted by Rev. Mr. Peters, pastor of the Emporia M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. J. A. Hornaday, pastor of the Weldon Methodist Church.

The interment was in the family square and the mound was literally covered with beautiful floral offerings sent in by friends from Weldon and by friends of Emporia and other places.

About eight or ten years ago Miss Hattie Lee was happily married to one of Weldon's most highly esteemed citizens, Clayton P. Bounds, and as a bride she came in our midst and was warmly welcomed. She soon made scores of friends by her sunny, happy disposition and this community is better for her having lived in it, and poorer now, that she has departed, ne'er to return.

For the grief stricken husband and little children, the father, brothers and sisters, so sorely bereaved, there is felt much sympathy. But, how comforting to know that they mourn not as those without hope. It is appointed unto all flesh to die, once, but in that He conquered death and the grave and lives again, just so surely will she rise again, for she is not dead, but sleepeth. Blessed, comforting thought.

WELDON 33 YEARS AGO.

From the Roanoke News, July 17, 1880.

There was a heavy rain in Mush Island Sunday, but none to speak of around town.

One or two little scrimmages in town Saturday, but no damage done.

E. M. Borst is acting as assistant agent at this place for E. W. Brown, who is in Petersburg as sub. for his father for two of three weeks.

Prof. Chas. Fetter has an excellent school at Garysburg, and begins the next session with good prospects. The location is healthy and there were 35 students the past session.

The mandamus cases against the county, which were argued last week before Judge Gudger, were considered Monday by the commissioners and they decided to appeal from the decision ordering them to pay the amounts ascertained by judgment.

29 BEAUTIFUL YEARS—

We of the White Ribbon band are sad because of the going away of our loved sister, Hattie Lee Bounds, to the City of Life. It may well be said of her she lived long and well, and victory crowned she has now attained a regal estate.

The bow of white ribbon pinned on her quiet bosom is a link which unites to the holy white throne of Jesus, whose blood cleansed her from every earthly stain. "She shall walk in white robes" is the promise.

To the faithful who follow their Lord. In garments all spotless as lilies To the City of Life she was called to go. Where angels now sing in her honor.

White on earth she wore the White Ribbon bow. —W. C. T. U. of Weldon.

WON'T IMPROVE ROANOKE RIVER.—The War Department sends an adverse report on the proposal to improve the Roanoke river from Clarksville, Va., the present head of steamboat navigation below Weldon, N. C. The report says the once considerable traffic on the river above Weldon has decreased with the construction of rail lines until now there is no commerce there.

DRUGGIST GIVES MONEY BACK.

Dodson's Liver Tonic Gets a Four Square Guarantee W. M. Cohen's Drug Store.

When an article is sold a druggist who is willing to give his personal guarantee of real merit.

That's exactly the case with Dodson's Liver Tonic. It is a pleasant-tasting, vegetable remedy for a slow and sluggish liver. Since Dodson's Liver Tonic came on the market the sale of calomel has gone way down. The reason is simply this: Dodson's Liver Tonic is safe and harmless and guaranteed to be satisfactory—Calomel is often uncertain, sometimes dangerous, and no druggist wants to guarantee that it won't knock you out of a day's work and maybe send you to bed.

W. M. Cohen sells Dodson's Liver Tonic and guarantees it. For you and for your children, it's a good thing to keep a bottle always in the house.

W. M. Cohen will give you your money back if you think Dodson's Liver Tonic is not worth the price. "Keep your liver working and your liver will not keep you from working," is good advice to go by.
