

A MISTAKEN IDEA

There are some people who still resort to drugged pills or alcoholic spirits to overcome colds, nervousness or general debility, and who know that the more unwholesome treatment in such a condition is, the more it is likely to lead to excessive fat or obesity. This is a mistaken idea, because Emulsion of Scodden's is a natural, healthy, and safe remedy for all such ailments. It builds up the system from the very source, and is found only by its combination with cod liver oil. Avoid alcoholic substitutes for SCODDEN'S.

When we all get tired of prophesying, prognosticating, explaining and demonstrating, the Mexican problem will probably solve itself.

A Virginia editor, investigating prohibition in this State, writes his paper that there are 19,000 drunks a day, not counting beer, shipped into Charlotte.

The hot weather is trying, but as it is making the crops grow, as they have not done before this year, there is doubtless very little complaining that is seriously meant.

Asked if he could supply the missing link which would unite capital and labor, John Wainwright said recently, "I believe the missing link is the unchaining of labor unions from political parties."

Thirty years has been added to human life by medical research according to one of the speakers before the American Medical Association. And all the years are made more pleasant by the same beneficent agency.

FRANZ JOSEPH, OF AUSTRIA

Franz Joseph has been called the "Emperor of Sorrow." The "curse of the Hapsburgs" is said by the superstitious to have followed him. The curse was pronounced by the aged Countess Carlotta, whose son was put to death for participating in the Hungarian uprising. She called upon Heaven and it—it is said the happiness of Franz Joseph and wife, and through them, he lived. They have been married.

His wife, "the good empress," was assassinated in Switzerland. His brother Maximilian was executed in Mexico.

His only son, Rudolph, was a suicide. His sister-in-law, the Duchess J'Alencon, was burned to death at a charity bazaar in Paris.

H. B. CLAFLIN & CO. FAILS

New York, June 25.—The biggest mercantile failure in the United States was precipitated today when receivers were appointed for the H. B. Claflin Company, of this city. The company, it is estimated, owes more than $30,000,000 which at the present time it is unable to pay. Its assets are said to be $41,000,000.

The crash came after vain efforts had been made by Mr. Claflin to induce J. P. Morgan & Company and other Wall Street banking interests to loan him money to ride over his embarrassment. These bankers, it was learned, advanced the company several million dollars about two weeks ago, but banks continued to press their claims until it became evident that virtually the whole $30,000,000 would have to be raised to save the company from failing.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that man has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution, and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

In Session at Littleton Last Week—Enjoyable and Profitable Program

The Woman's Missionary Society, Warrenton District, North Carolina Conference, W. U. Church, South, met in its annual session with the church at Littleton, June 23, 24, 1914. About 40 delegates and visitors from the various societies were in attendance.

Mrs. R. H. Willis, of Littleton, district secretary, presided over the sessions with ease and grace, while the recording secretary's duties were performed by Mrs. John S. Nowell, of Macin.

Mrs. N. H. D. Wilson, first vice-president of the North Carolina Conference of the Woman's Missionary Society, was present and contributed largely to the success of the meeting.

The closing exercises, especially formation of the program of Mrs. L. L. Harris, returned missionary from China, and Rev. W. B. Lee, of Beaufort, both of whom in their inspiring addresses greatly enlightened their audiences as to conditions in their far-away, but moving fields.

Interesting papers on subjects of vital importance to the workers were read by Mrs. J. H. Harrison of Littleton, Miss Emma Graham, of Warrenton, and Mrs. John S. Nowell, of Macin.

The most beautiful scene of the entire meeting was the "Bright Jewel" service, which was led by Mrs. N. H. D. Wilson, of Goldsboro. The address of welcome was given in a charming manner by little Miss Frances Burton, granddaughter of the illustrious Rev. R. O. Burton, of sainted memory. This was sweetly responded to by Miss Thelma Nicholson, of Macin.

Among the delegates and visitors we note the following: Mrs. W. A. Graham, Miss Anna Graham, Miss Marjorie Boyd, Mrs. R. H. Brown, of Warrenton, Mrs. Urah Vaughan, and Miss Elles Vaughan, of Murfreesboro; Mrs. J. A. Hornaday and Miss Laura Powers, of Weldon, Mrs. J. T. Flynn, Mrs. Eugene Gay, Mrs. Dorothy Gay, of Jackson, Mrs. T. T. Short, of Battleboro, Mrs. J. G. L. Crocker, of Seaboard, Mrs. John Sater, of Garysburg, Miss Leta Carter, of Enfield, Mrs. W. G. Pickett, of Macin, Mrs. Geo. Davis and Miss Lola Duke, of Ardsley, and from the immediate vicinity of Littleton, Mrs. Roscoe Hamill, Misses Lora and Prue Hamill, Mrs. C. D. House, Misses Helen, Mary and Sue House, Mrs. Will Nicholson.

The Rev. A. D. Beck, of Greensboro, was present throughout the meeting with his wife and his daughter, Miss Beets, both principal of Landon College. The presence of Miss Beets' soul with his well known transfigure face, had a uplifting effect on the conference. The children in attendance as delegates from the "Bright Jewel" bands were: Will Allen Connell, Warrenton; Helen Schulz, Macin; Foster Shaw and Mary Anderson, Weldon; Florence Suter and Naomi Joyner, Garysburg; Fannie Grant, Jackson; Thelma Nicholson, Murfreesboro.

The delegates departed for their homes, praise in their hearts to the good people of Littleton for the hospitality lavished upon them.

WELDON 33 YEARS AGO.

From the Roanoke News, July 2, 1881.

The next musical will be held at the residence of Miss Emily Campbell on Monday evening. The objects of these thoroughly entertainments are well known and appreciated by our community.

On Wednesday last a meeting of the directors of the Scotland Neck branch road was held at Halifax. The last route runs through what is known as the "Slashes" and strikes the main line about one mile south of Halifax, was adopted.

An Enfield item says Seldom has it been our good fortune to have seen a happier sight than we witnessed Monday evening, it being the birthday of Mahel and Bessie Curtis, daughters of Mr. George B. Curtis. Thirty invitations were issued, and all were accepted, we suppose from the crowd of little folks. In and out door sports were participated in until supper, and they were invited to partake of ice cream, cakes, fruits and confectioneries. The party broke up at nine o'clock and judging from their happy faces the little folks had a good time.

A pleasant affair in the way of a fish fry took place at J. C. Randolph's at Growell's Tuesday. Mr. Randolph gave notice that he would turn the water off his fish pond, and invited a few friends to join him in a fish fry that day. Quite a number of fish were caught and an excellent dinner was prepared which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Quite a number of ladies being present to make things cheerful.

NOT IN THE LIQUOR BUSINESS

KENESAW M. LANDIS

Federal Judge Landis, of Chicago, is to be asked the other day to appoint a receiver for a certain saloon. "I have gone out of the retail liquor business," replied the judge. "I would the receiver to close the business at once."

IMPROVING POSTAL SERVICE

A. S. BURLESON

Postmaster General Burleson is to be asked the other day to appoint a receiver for a certain saloon. "I have gone out of the retail liquor business," replied the judge. "I would the receiver to close the business at once."

A big improvement in the service to be rendered by the Postmaster General's office, is to be made possible in any office, instead of only in the one upon which they are drawn. This is a change in the postal rules for the use of which is certain to be made.

The children in attendance as delegates from the "Bright Jewel" bands were: Will Allen Connell, Warrenton; Helen Schulz, Macin; Foster Shaw and Mary Anderson, Weldon; Florence Suter and Naomi Joyner, Garysburg; Fannie Grant, Jackson; Thelma Nicholson, Murfreesboro.

A Delightful Profession for Young Women
THERE is no occupation for a young woman that is more pleasant or congenial, more suited to her ability and nature, none that can give her more personal satisfaction, and if she be a thoroughly trained professional one, that offers bigger rewards than that of music teaching. The supply of competent teachers of piano music is far short of the demand. Has your daughter ever given this matter a thought, have you ever spoken to her about (some day becoming a teacher of music?) if so—buy her a STIEFF PIANO at once, get her started on the road to success and fame, the sooner she starts the better.
