EPIGRAMS.

JUSTIFICATION:-It means that when I accept Jesus Christ as Saviour, God looks at me as though I had never sinned. He imputes Christ's righteousness to me.

LOVE:- I believe the world is dying for the manifestation of the love of God-love can never be defeated. Love will build a tunnel through all the mountains heaped against it.

FAITH-Faith puts us in touch with God. It is the power that controls the world. If your faith isn't used it will shrink. If we form it by using it it will grow. Without faith there is not a merchant or a banker that could do business.

PRAYER-Were the world to pray "Thy Kingdom come," there would be no need of police, of courts, of standing armies or navies. Pray that prayer as it should be prayed and the peace of God would spread over all the earth and people would live literally by the Golden Rule.

Seven-tenths of the professing Christians have no family prayer and do not read the Bible. It is no wonder you are wizened spiritnally. Thy Kingdom come means that we will ask God for the conversion of the world before we ask Him for our breakfast. Jesus taught us to say "Thy Kingdom come" before he taught us to say, 'Give us this day our daily bread.' Pray first, eat later.

Jesus began the day with prayer. You never forget to wash your face and comb your bair. You always think of breakfast. You eed your physical bodies. Why do you starve your spiritual body?

THEIR LAST RIDE TOGETHER,

On the afternoon of April 14, 1865, a few hours before he was shot, President Lincoln was driving with his wife. He was in unusually good spirits; so much so that his wife said: You almost startle me by your cheerfulness."

"And well I may feel so, Mary," he replied, "for I consider this day the war has come to a close. We must both be more cheerful in the nure. Between the war and the loss of our darling Willie we have been very miserable."

TIME IN KENTUCKY

Recently a gentleman who travels out of Paris was in the Kentucky mountains, 60 miles from a railroad. A man asked him the time. The gentleman looked at his watch and told the inquirer.

"That's railroad time, ain't it?" asked the man.

LIFE'S LOVELINESS.

Think lovely thoughts, that every day be blest; Look thou for God, nor fancy Him concealed; Along earth's common way the flowers and grass Will breathe His name to thee when thou shall pass, To thy divinest self He stands revealed,

His conquering power through love made manifest.

Speak lovely words, to fall like sunlight rays, That youth may be so long and age but brief, To add to joy in life a little more, And take some misery out of earth's vast store, So shalt thou walk with gladness and not grief, Planting a hope in all the thorny ways.

Do lovely deeds, of brotherhood the bond: Each burden nobly lifted and each task, Each day's plain duty teaches thee to bless The friendless lives brave in their loneliness, Ere yet they near the Shadows and the Mask, And those untrodden paths that stretch beyond.

Thoughts, words, and deeds! To stand for truth in all! This is the creed that counts. Unflinching toll, Staunch fortitude and strength of patience born, Securely treading, though the way be worn, Fronting the light, nor fearing to recoil, Facing the right, nor looking back to fall.

A SOUTHERN CIRL.

Her dimpled cheeks are pale; She's a lily of the vale,

Not a rose. In a muslin or a lawn She is fairer than the dawn To her beau.

Her boots are slim and near

She is vain about her feet, It is said, She amputates her r's,

But her eyes are like the stars Overhead.

On a balcony at night, With a fleecy cloud of white Round her hair. Her grace, ah, who could paint? She would fascinate a saint,

'Tis a matter of regret, She's a bit of a coquette, Whom I sing; On her cruel path she goes With a half dozen beaux To her string.

I declare.

But let all that pass by, As her maiden moments fly, Dew-empearled:

When she marries, on my life, She will make the dearest wife In all the world.
