FRANKLIN'S TOAST.

At the conclusion of the war, Dr. Franklin, the English Ambassador, and the French Minister, Vergennes dining together, at Versailles, a toast from each was called for, and agreed to. The British Minister began with: "George the Third, who, like the sun in its meridian, spreads a luster throughout, and enlightens the world." The French Minister followed with: "The illustrious Louis XVII, who, like the moon, sheds his mild and benignant rays on, and influences the globe." Our American Franklin then gave: "George Washington, Commander of the American armies; who, like Joshua of old, commanded the sun and the moon to stand still, and they obeyed him."

NOT HER PROPERTY.

"I shall have to ask you for a ticket for that boy, ma'am."

"I think not."

"He's too old to travel free. He occupies a whole seat and the cars are crowded. There are people standing up."

"That's all right."

"I haven't time to argue the matter, ma'am. You'll have to pay for that boy."

"I never paid for him yet, ma'am or I'll put him off the train."

"That all right. You put him off if you think that's the way to get anything out of me."

"You ought to know the rules of this line, ma'am. How old is that boy?"

"I don't know; I never saw him before. If you want a ticket for him, you'd better ask that old gentleman on the seat. He got on at the last station with him."—Philadelphia Record.

I went on crutches for four months, then I started to use some of your Liniment, according to your directions, and I must say that it helped me wonderfully. GLORIOUS INAUGURATION OF WORLD'S GREATEST INTERNATIONAL CELEBRATION ASSURES CONTINUED SUCCESS

WITH an attendance for the first week greater than the combined attendance for the same period of the world's exhibitions at Chicago and St. Louis, the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco has started on a career that the most conservative judgments predict will break all records for exposition success.

The exposition opened on February 20, 1915, and opened to an attendance of one quarter of a million people. From every state of the United States and from the nations of the world came critical visitors to pass on the merits of the celebration that had been so widely heralded. They found nothing to criticize. Every claim made by San Francisco and the exposition was fulfilled. It is safe to say that not a single visitor went away disappointed. The result has been that the advertisement by word of mouth, and by letters home and to friends—the most powerful form of advertisement—has been given the exposition. In consequence the transportation companies report a constantly increasing booking for travel to San Francisco both by land and water.

Exceptionally low rates have been given by the transportation companies from all points within the United States to San Francisco, offering many people an opportunity that could not otherwise be taken, of combining a pleasure journey to the exposition with a sightseeing tour through California and the West.

A feature of the exposition that has called for universal comment is the "action" that marks exhibits, every exhibit capable of operation by steam or electricity being shown in motion.

A flood of inquiries concerning rates and hotel accommodations has been received by the information bureau of the exposition since the news of its successful opening was flashed around the world, all such inquiries being given prompt attention. San Francisco and California are fulfilling their best duties and living up to the reputation the West has always had for hospitable treatment for the stranger.

HANDSOME SIXTY-PAGE BOOK ON THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION SENT FREE OF CHARGE TO ANY ADDRESS.

Those who are interested in this great exposition may obtain free of charge a handsomely illustrated book of sixty pages, reproducing the exhibit palaces in their natural colors and giving essential data about the exposition, San Francisco, California and the Panama canal. To obtain this book send a letter to the Manager, Bureau of Publication, Panama-Pacific International Exposition Grounds, San Francisco, Cal.

DURING A LULL IN THE OPENING DAY CEREMONIES AT THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION

The Panama-Pacific International exposition was opened by a wireless spark, dispatched by President Woodrow Wilson at Washington, and caught on the tendrils of a wireless aerial on the lofty Tower of Jewels at the exposition. Instantly the power was released in the mighty Palace of Machinery and the portals of the exhibit palaces opened. The scene is on the grand stand after the ceremonies had ended, Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane, Gov. Hiram Johnson of California, Mayor James Rolph, Jr. of San Francisco, President C. C. Moore of the exposition and a notable group of visiting dignitaries being seen in animated discussion of the epochal event. In the press box the correspondents are seen flashing to the world the news that the exposition had opened.

WHEN A QUARTER OF A MILLION OF PEOPLE INAUGURATED THE VAST PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION AT SAN FRANCISCO

Transportation reports show that every state in the United States and most of the nations of the world were represented in the great throng of 250,000 people who inaugurated the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco on February 20. This picture, showing the mighty South gateway, gives a glimpse of a small fraction of the opening day throng. In the first five days of its progress the exposition had an attendance larger than the combined totals of the Chicago and St. Louis exhibitions and the ratio continues in a degree to justify predictions of the most spectacular success for the exposition.

WED EARLY.

Pastors and Woman Doctor Believes in Love's Young Dream.

In the spring a young man's fancy—and a maid's—turns to thoughts of love, and thoughts of love lead to important ceremonies at the little church around the corner.

Alarmed by the number of youthful Benedicts heard from in the last few weeks, authorities in large cities have been putting parents through their annual spring questioning on the marriage question.

Marry early is the advice of Detroit experts on the subject, who frankly voiced their opinions when the subject was broached.

"I am a strong believer of love in a cottage," declared the Rev. Rodman Shippen, pastor of the Unitarian church. "Early marriages are the most polite, but no general advice can be given. The right time to marry is when you find the right person to marry, and this generally happens before you are very old. The economic barrier to early marriage is greatly over-estimated. I sincerely believe that two young people who are truly mated can live to better advantage together than separately."

"It is hard to determine just the right age," said Dr. Mary Thompson Stevens, "but I think in most cases 21 or 22 is old enough. The great thing is love, however. Some might be developed mentally and physically at an earlier age, and some at a later age than I have named, but if the two love each other age should not be a barrier.

"If either of the two young people have a career planned it is foolish to marry until the career is attained, but if the man is employed at a steady position and expects to hold that position for some time, there is no use delaying marriage. It is well to marry before the tastes are too fixed, so the two can develop their lives together. For a young man who is boarding and rooming at home is the best thing in the world to keep him from sowing wild oats."

"Between 20 and 25 is the right age to marry, for at that age men and women are naturally fitted for the marriage state," said Father M. J. P. Dempsey. "A woman is fully developed mentally and physically at 20 a man a little later, so there is no reason why they should not marry then. As far as history goes, it is known that is the average age of marriage."

"Circumstances alter cases," said Judge Alfred J. Murphy. "You can't make rules to regulate love, but in my judgment, between 25 and 30 is the most opportune age to get married."—Detroit News.

OLD BUT WORTH REPEATING

"What is a phenomenon?" asked one man of another.

"It's like this: Suppose you were to go out into the country and see a field of thistles growing."

"Yes."

"Well, that would not be a phenomenon!"

"No, that's quite clear," agreed the other man.

"But suppose you were to see a lark singing away up in the sky?"

"Yes."

"Well that would not be a phenomenon!"

"No, that also seems clear."

"But imagine there is a bull in the field."

"Yes."

"Even that would not be a phenomenon!"

"No."

"But now, Bill, look here. Suppose you saw that bull sitting on them thistles, whistling like a lark—well, that would be a phenomenon!"

I will recommend your medicine to my friends and give you permission to publish my testimonial."—Mrs. LAWRENCE MARTIN, 14 King St., Westbrook, Maine.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK. DON'T STAY BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

"Dodson's Liver Tonic" Will Clean Your Sluggish Liver Better Than Calomel and Can Not Salivate.

Calomel makes you sick; you lose a day's work. Calomel is quick-acting and it salivates; calomel injures your liver. If you are bilious; feel lazy, sluggish and all knocked out, if your bowels are constipated and your head aches or stomach is sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tonic instead of using salivating calomel. Dodson's Liver Tonic is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine; your liver will be working, your headaches and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and bowels regular. You will feel like working. You'll be cheerful; full of energy, vigor and ambition.

Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic under my personal guarantee that it will clean your sluggish liver better than any salivating calomel; it won't make you sick and you can eat anything you want without being salivated. Your druggist guarantees that each spoonful will start your liver, clean your bowels and straighten you up by morning or you get your money back. Children gladly take Dodson's Liver Tonic because it's pleasant tasting and doesn't grip or tramp or make them sick.

I am selling millions of bottles of Dodson's Liver Tonic to people who have found that this pleasant, vegetable liver medicine takes the place of dangerous salivating calomel. Try one bottle on your own; a full guarantee. Ask your druggist about me.
