THE FLOWERS.

The Difference Between a Home and a Camp is a Blossom.

Until flowers were planted about the abode of men, until blooms were cultivated, there were no permanent homes, no fixed places of abode. Tents were struck, and a new location sought. Attachments were not formed for localities. We were a wandering, shiftless, comfortless lot until a woman trudged in from the thickets and planted a vine or shrub or flower about the tent, and called it home.

It was a woman, of course. Man, in his coarseness, never thought of sticking a stem into the earth and nurturing a plant that he might have color and fragrance forever in his presence. Only the woman could have thought of that. And since the first good day when the woman planted a flower and loved it into blossoming, the home has been a fixity. It has been a center of the affections. The building may be destroyed, the individual members of the family may be scattered to the four winds, but the home remains a fixture in the memory—and the blossoms do not fade or wither in the mind.

THE WAY OF THE WORLD.

"A Sucker is Born Every Day."

The man that imagines friendship will borrow money at the bank is doomed to disappointment.

Your friend may lend you his shovel, but he expects you to return his hoe in good condition.

Your friend may inquire after your wife's health, but it does not follow that you can turn your chickens into his garden. If you get sick don't expect the world to stop moving right along.

If you are in want, that is nothing to the people who have plenty.

If you are in trouble, that is nothing to the people who have something to rejoice over.

The world owes you room to pass to and fro and space for a grave.

The world's friendship reduces a man to rags as often as it clothes him in fine raiment.

The world's sympathy blisters a man's back as often as it warms his heart.

The world's charity overlooks the crime of a horse thief, but is horror-stricken over the stealing of a loaf of bread by an orphan.

The world promises everything and performs only what is convenient.

Rheumatism Sprains Lumbago Sciatica

Why grin and bear all these ills when Sloan's Liniment kills pain?

"I have used your Liniment and can say it is fine. I have used it for sore throat, strained shoulder, and it acted like a charm."—Allen Dunn, Route 1, Box 88, Pine Valley, N.C.

"I am a painter and paperhanger by trade, consequently up and down ladders. About two years ago my left knee became lame and sore. It pained me at nights at times till I could not rest, and I was contemplating giving up my trade on account of it when I chanced to think of Sloan's Liniment. I had never tried it before, and I am glad to state that less than one 25c. bottle fixed me up apparently as good as ever."—Charles C. Campbell, Florence, Texas.

THE LAND OF JOYFUL FOLK.

BY FRANK L. STANTON.

Don't you tarry with the folks that live in Hard Times Town Come to Halleluia Place and dance the hard times down; Come up where the joyful folk are reapin' all their sowin' When one fiddle's strings are broke another fiddle's goin'.

Don't you tarry with the folks that tell you Life is sighin'; Come from strife to plains of Peace where friendly flags are flyin'; From the shadow to the light where merry days are hummin'; An' when you've danced a round with Joy another round is comin'.

Trouble? Well, it comes along since old Adam found it; Try to down it with a song an' sashay all around it! Meenin' it with "hearts of oak," the Lord His grace bestowin'; When one fiddle's strings are broke another fiddle's goin'.

MY MOTHER.

COMPOSED BY MARY ELIZABETH WHITE, OF SOUTH WELDON, AGED TWELVE YEARS.

I hope whoever takes you she said Will to you be good and kind, And teach you to love and serve the Lord, And keep Him in your mind.

This is what my mother said, While on her dying bed, My mother, who was so precious, Who now is dead.

According to the Bible, My mother is now at rest, Safe in the arms of Jesus, Safe on His gentle breast.

Oh you do not know how I miss her, My trouble is so great, But I know now that she is waiting for me, At the Golden Gate.

JUDICIAL CANDOR.

The young lawyer was on his first case, and was very nervous. He started his address to the jury: "My unfortunate client * * * There he stuck. Once more he managed to say, 'My unfortunate client * * * And again he was stalled. He was greatly embarrassed by now, but, clearing his throat, he cried once more: 'My unfortunate client * * * Ahem! 'Come, come, Mr. Greenstone,' said the judge, 'proceed with your statement. So far the court agrees with you.'—Exchange.

STILL WAITING.

The late Congressman W. W. Wedemeyer used to tell a story in the Klondike. He was going up the Yukon on a government junket and the sky drizzled all the way. At one landing a dejected looking sour-dough stood on the wharf awaiting the boat: "I say, partner," asked Wedemeyer, "how long has it been raining?" "Dunno," was the reply. "I've only been here 17 years."—N. Y. Globe.

THE OLD-FASHIONED MOTHER.

Modern Parents Blamed For General Religious Decline.

When Bishop Anderson, of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Chicago, declared in a Lenten sermon that the home lacks religion he touched the main cause of the religious decline of our day.

American life is becoming secularized. Parents not only fail to teach their children the fundamentals of a religious life, but fall down quite as badly in the example they set. "When parents do things that make their children blush," said Bishop Anderson, "how can the children be blamed for growing up without the essential religious spirit? It seems that there is to be nothing holy in American life at all, no Holy Book, no holy day, no holy places." If children do not get in the home the atmosphere of religion, a love of the Bible and respect for things sacred, the chances are they will not get these things in school or college or anywhere else.—Leslie's Weekly.

ONE!

One vote will decide an election. One false alarm will create a panic. One hasty word will lead to a divorce. One broken wheel will ditch a train. One march will cause a conflagration. One lie will destroy a woman's character. One undiplomatic word will provoke a war. One false step will cost a life or ruin a character. One demagogue will turn factories into soup houses. One false witness will send an innocent man to jail. One muckraker will bankrupt many a big business. One hasty act of legislation will entail untold hardships.

REALLY IMMATERIAL.

So sweet is love's young dream—the entrancing moment when heart first beats to heart, and—etc. Lily Lorne had given her girlish heart to a young man rich in love but poor in pence, and her father didn't approve. "It's not a bit of good, dear," he explained patiently. "You'd never be happy with that young fellow on $1,200 a year." Lily heaved a deep sigh of bliss. "But, father," she whispered, "I'm too much in love with Clarence to care whether I'm not?"—New York Journal.

A SHORT STAY.

He—Did you tell the new cook I'm going on the 7:12 train? She—Yes. He—What did she say? She—That she was going on the same train.

WHEN THE TIRED MOTHER GIVES OUT

What Then?—The Family Suffers, the Poor Mothers Suffer—Mrs. Becker Meets This Distressing Situation.

Collinsville, Ill.—"I suffered from a nervous breakdown and terrible headaches, and was tired all over, totally worn out and too discouraged to enjoy life, but as I had four in family and sometimes eight or nine boarders, I kept on working despite my suffering.

"I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it, and within two weeks I noticed a decided improvement in my condition and now I am a well woman."—Mrs. ANA BECKER, Collinsville, Ill.

There are hundreds of nervous, run-down, or overworked women in this vicinity who are hardly able to drag around and who we are sure would be wonderfully benefited by Vinol as Mrs. Becker was.

The reason Vinol is so successful in building up health and strength in such cases is because it combines the medicinal tissue building and curative elements of cod's livers together with the blood making, strengthening properties of tonic iron. We ask every weak, nervous, run-down man or woman in this vicinity to try a bottle of Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it fails to benefit.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS!

ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Doddson's Liver Tonic" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Doesn't Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crumbles into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Doddson's Liver Tonic on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50-cent bottle of Doddson's Liver Tonic. Take a spoonful at night and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Doddson's Liver Tonic is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine, entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Doddson's Liver Tonic will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Doddson's Liver Tonic will keep your entire family feeling fine 1 month. Give it to your children. It is harmless, doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.
