THE REAL TRUTH

Luke M'Luke Says

Woman always admires a man when she knows that he admires her.

It doesn't hurt to tell the truth once and awhile. Mighty few husbands are so loyal to their wives as their wives are to them.

When it comes to making a man act like a monkey, booze hasn't anything on love.

The old-fashioned boy who used to study law by the light of the blazing logs in the fire place and whose ambition was to be President of the United States and make history, now has a son who studies the rules by electric light and whose ambition is to be president of the National League and see all the games.

An old mechanic can invent a dingus that will silence a little thing like a gun. But why doesn't Hiram Maxim invent a woman silencer and get some real fame?

When a woman starts in to give her husband a piece of her mind she never stops until she has given him the whole works.

The reason why a woman can feel proud of a dress that look as if it was made out of a few old rough sawels is because the dress is made of raine.

About once out of 50 times that they start to go out friend wife manages to get ready ahead of friend husband so she can sit around and tawl him out for being so slow.

A wise man coaxes a woman. A fool tries to force her.

The boy who doesn't love his mother is a freak. And the boy who doesn't worry his mother every day in the year is a greater freak.

A financier is a man who can bring his wife home a new electric flaron and make her forget that it was an electric runabout that she wanted.

There are all sorts of liars, including the man who announces that he is compelled to be a candidate because of the earnest and persistent solicitation of his friends.

Any man who can forget what he wants to forget has a good memory.

CASE OF NECESSITY.

William F. McCombs the well-known Democratic politician, relates the following:

Little Tommy had a very pretty sister. Pretty sister had a very devoted admirer. One evening when the devoted admirer was sitting in the parlor waiting for sister to appear, he was approached by little Tommy.

"Say, Mr. Smith," rather pointedly queried the youngster, "do you love sister, Jenny?"

"Why, Tommy?" was the amazed response of the blushing Mr. Smith. "Why do you ask me a question like that?"

"Because," was the quick rejoinder of the youngster, "she said last night that she would give $5 to know, and I need the money."

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief in Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich.—"I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong."—Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work. In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a woman, housekeeper or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

VARIED PROGRAM

The women of a town down the slate recently organized a literary club, and for a while everything was lovely.

"Louise," asked the husband of one of the members upon her return home from one of the meetings, "what was the topic under discussion by the club this afternoon?"

"Louise could not just remember at first. Finally, however, she exclaimed:—

"Now, I recollect! We discussed that brazen-looking hussy that's just moved in across the street and Nietzsche."

THE MOVIES OF THE MORNING.
BY FRANK L. STANTON.

Morning breaking on the hills—the curtain's going up! Sun'll drink the world's health from the lily's brimming cup. And in the woodland theater the rarest joys we'll win, The morn'll shine the bright lights the world-show will begin!

A glad orchestra's playing— The music wants no words; Joyous introductory— Concert of the birds.

The velvet vales are lifelike, the meadows are alive, The bee from brightening blossoms drains the honey for the hive, The gardens breathe in beauty, in gorgeous raiment dressed, The hills seem heaven-kissed altars, by Priests of Morning blessed.

Hill and field and valley, Glen and waterfall, The Movies of the Morning, At the Master-Artist's call.

See the moving pictures? 'Tis now no world of dreams; Cattle seek the pastures, roads rumble with the teams; Girls that gather violets—the kinfolk of the sky, And barefoot boys a-splashing in the brooks that glimmer by.

Are we not in Loveland— A world of blossom sweet, The glory of the Morning Where Earth and Heaven meet?

And the Movies of the Morning breathe peace to battle-strife; We are learning from the lilies all the litanies of life; That a Heaven still bends above us where stars of Morning meet, Home, and the hearts that love us in a world that's Heaven-sweet!

THE BALL PLAYER'S PRAYER.

Keep My Feet In the Path of Righteousness.

Lord, help me to play the game. It matters not to you whether I am talented or poor in natural gifts; wealthy or starving; a leader among men or simple follower, so that I play the game as you would have it played. Help me to keep my eye on the ball, that the curves of temptation may not deceive me. Keep my feet in the paths of righteousness, that I may touch second and third on my way round the bases. Help me to beat out my bunts, and hold me that I stray not too far from base when the catcher is ready to peg me. Count not my foul balls against me, O Lord, for the bating eye some times go wrong, though the intention is right. Help me in the pinches, Lord, because a good bingle might bring my brother home. Let not the music of the fans keep my eye from the ball, nor the enticements of the slabman draw me away from the need of a clean single with a man on second. Help me, O Lord, to bat over 300 because my eyes are on the big league for eternity even while I sojourn here among the bush-leaguers.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years this supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure.
