FATHER'S DAY.

What a Grand Old Time The Old Man Would Have.

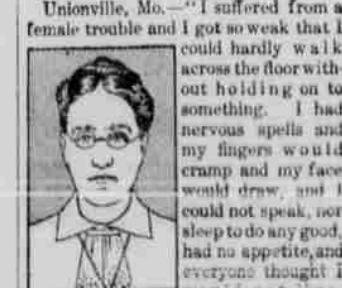

In Japan they observe a Boy's Day by hanging out carp flags and giving the little fellows plenty of toy soldiers; also a Girl's Day when each little Miss is presented with a Japanese doll. Here in America we have a Mother's Day. Cartoonists draw sentimental cartoons about her; the preacher makes some mention of home without a mother, and the tired business man, if he thinks of it, brings home a dollar's worth of cut flowers. Without wishing unnecessarily to add to our list of holidays, we suggest a Father's Day, with a program somewhat as follows: Dad will be allowed to lie abed until 10 o'clock, reading the sporting sheet and smoking cigarettes, after which time a "maw-in" follow by buckwheat and steak will be served. The phonograph will then play "What's the Matter With Father" and "Here Comes My Daddy Now," while the daughter of the house will recite "Father, dear Father." This ceremony concluded, presents will be bestowed on father, in the following order: Ten boxes 25 cent cigars, case of club soda, sterling silver bottle opener, case of Scotch or rye, sterling silver cocktail mixer, 1 dozen pairs of silk hose, 1 smoking jacket, 1 humidifier, one-half dozen made-to-order shirts, 1 pair slippers, annual pass to baseball park. At 2 p. m., accompanied by several cronies, he will set out for the ball park in an automobile. Here a double-header will be played. The evening will be given over to five cent ante, and at midnight a lunch will be served consisting of Swiss cheese sandwiches, hot dogs, goose-liver sausages, pate de foie gras, rye bread and beer. The guests will leave at 3 a. m., and the day following will be Sunday.

THE GOLDEN RULE.

Do as you would be done by.—Persian.
Do not that to a neighbor which you take ill from him.—Grecian.
One should seek for others the happiness one desires for one-self.—Buddhist.
What you would not wish done to yourself do not do unto others.—Chinese.
He sought for others the good he desired for himself. Let him pass on.—Egyptian.
All things whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so to them.—Christian.
The true rule of life is to guard and do by the things of others as they do by their own.—Hindu.
Let none of you treat his brother in a way he himself would dislike to be treated.—Mohammedan.
The law imprinted on the hearts of all men is to love the members of society as themselves.—Roman.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live. Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong. "I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."—Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

"I'm looking for a tall man with a long thirst"
—and maybe he won't be glad to see me!
Hope he don't forget I've got some thirst myself for a cold drink of Pepsi-Cola.

To refresh jaded spirits and appetites there's nothing more satisfying.

Drop 'round to the fountain—and prove what we say.

GROWING OLD.

A little more tired at the close of day,
A little more anxious to have our way,
A little less ready to scold and blame,
A little more care for a brother's name,
And so we are nearing the journey's end,
Where time and eternity meet and blend.

A little less care for bonds or gold,
A little more zest for the days of old,
A broader view and a saner mind,
And a little more love for all mankind,
And so we are faring down the way
That leads to the gates of a better day.

A little more love for the friends of youth,
A little more zeal for established truth,
A little more charity in our views,
A little less thirst for the daily news;
And so we are folding our tents away
And passing in silence at close of day.

A little more leisure to sit and dream,
A little more real the things unseen,
A little nearer to those ahead,
With vision of those long loved and dead;
And so we are going where all must go
To the place the living may never know.

A little more laughter, a few more tears,
And we shall have told our increasing years;
The book is closed, and the prayers are said,
And we are part of the countless dead.
Thrice happy, then if some soul can say:
"I live because he has passed my way."

OPEN THE DOOR OF YOUR HEART.

Open the door of your heart, my lad,
To the angels of love and truth;
When the world is full of unnumbered joys,
In the beautiful dawn of youth,
Casting aside all things that mar,
Saying to wrong, "Depart!"
To the voices of hope that are calling you
Open the door of your heart.

Open the door of your heart, my lass,
To the things that shall abide,
To the holy thoughts that lift your soul
Like the stars at eventide.
All of the fadeless flowers that bloom
In the realms of song and art
Are yours, if you'll only give them room.
Open the door of your heart.

Open the door of your heart, my friend,
Heedless of class or creed,
When you hear the cry of a brother's voice,
The sob of a child in need.
To the shining heaven that o'er you bends
You need no map or chart,
But only the love the Master gave,—
Open the door of your heart.

ALL ADMITTED IT. Tired, Aching Muscles Relieved

"Did you ever see a company of women perfectly silent?"
"Yes, once. Some one had asked which of those present was the eldest."—Buffalo Courier.

Wonder why it is so easy for a woman to love a man who is unworthy of her.

IF YOU SHOULD DIE TODAY

The only asset you would leave your family or business that would be worth 100 cents on the dollar is the cash you have in the bank and your life insurance. Did you ever think of that? How much have you of each? Think it over and fix up the life insurance end of it TODAY. Don't put it off----tomorrow may be too late.

EASILY LOST.

The collar button gets away,
And the umbrella is no recluse,
And yet you'll find some men who will say
A ber is the easiest thing to lose.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure.
