CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP!
MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Doddson's Liver Tonic" is Harmless to Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels.
Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.
Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crabs into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated, or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, try a spoonful of harmless Doddson's Liver Tonic tonight on my guarantee.
Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50-cent bottle of Doddson's Liver Tonic. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous, I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Doddson's Liver Tonic is destroying the sale of calomel because it is a real liver medicine, entirely vegetable, therefore it can not savorate or make you sick.
I guarantee that one spoonful of Doddson's Liver Tonic will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Doddson's Liver Tonic will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't grip and they like its pleasant taste.

MOTHERHOOD LOST ART.

Declares There Are Many Women Who Refuse to be Women.

Mrs. Catherine Booth Clibborn, daughter of the Salvation Army founder, the late General William Booth, who is an evangelistic worker in London spoke before the International Purify Congress at San Francisco on motherhood, which, she declared, "is the finest of arts—but a lost art."

She said: "Society has developed, especially within the last thirty years, a vast army of women who will not be women; married women who avoid children; incapable mothers who shirk the obligations and responsibilities of motherhood. We have women who are admirable flirts, coquets and talkers, splendidly efficient in all domains—business, science and art. All professions are now open to her. She can act, dance, paint, sing, type-write, keep books, defend a case at the bar, or be a policewoman. She can back horses, drink, gamble and smoke; and, now, be as any man under Miss Col. Charlesworth, who is training troops of women for Lord Kitchener. In fact, she can do anything and every thing except fulfill the highest of all destinies, the bringing forth of beautiful children and the making of them into men and women who will bless humanity."

"Woman's neglect and denial of her highest vocation is bearing bitter fruit. We see it in the white slave traffic more than anywhere else. We see the fruits in the hospitals. We see it in the reformatories. Some of the finest material for the making of useful lives is to be found there, run to seed—all through the lack of mothers."

"Woman is not altogether to blame for her failure to fulfill her destiny. The world has made and worships this false woman."

"Motherhood was the first thing to go in Greece and Rome. The Emperor Augustus saw his empire expire through the white slave traffic. France and Belgium are going in the same way. The same canker is also eating at the core of the national life of America. Since coming to the States I have been struck by the frightful tragedies in young lives—all for the want of a mother who has won the confidence and friendship of her children."

MIXED UP.

A lanky youth entered the cross-roads general store to order some groceries. He was 17 years old and was passing through that stage of adolescence during which a boy seems all hands and feet, and his vocal organs, rapidly developing, are wont to undergo sudden and involuntary changes from high treble to low bass.

In an authoritative, rumbling bass voice he demanded of the busy clerk, "Give me a can of corn" (then, his voice suddenly changing to a shrill falsetto, he continued) "and a sack of flour."

"Well, don't be in a hurry. I can't wait on both of you at once," snapped the clerk.—Pittsburg Telegraph.

Women Everywhere

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Women from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from all sections of this great country, no city so large, no village so small but that some woman has written words of thanks for health restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No woman who is suffering from the ills peculiar to her sex should rest until she has given this famous remedy a trial. Is it not reasonable to believe that what it did for these women it will do for any sick woman?

Wonderful Case of Mrs. Crusen, of Bushnell, Ill.

BUSHNELL, ILL.—"I think all the trouble I have had since my marriage was caused by exposure when a young girl. My work has been housework of all kinds, and I have done milking in the cold and snow when I was too young to realize that it would hurt me. I have suffered very much with bearing down pains in my back and such miserable pains across me, and was very nervous and generally run down in health, but since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my back never hurts me, my nerves are stronger, and I am gaining in health every day. I thank you for the great help I have received from your medicine, and if my letter will benefit suffering women I will be glad for you to print it."—Mrs. JAMES CRUSEN, Bushnell, Illinois.

A Grateful Atlantic Coast Woman.

HOPKINS, ME.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

"Ah! That's what I'm looking for, Grandma" Leave it to "Young Hopeful" to know what not only tickles his palate deliciously but what also satisfies his thirst and refreshes his tired little body. It's Pepsi-Cola. A God-send to the thirsty—old and young. No wonder it has achieved such popularity as a delicious, tempting drink that has a joyful taste in every sip.

THE BRIGHTNESS OF LIFE.

A thought that it winged from a friend to friend Doesn't seem such a wonderful thing; Yet it carries the prayer for a joy without end, And it throbs with a big, friendly ring.
A mere word of cheer in the shadow of night, When discouragement darkens the way, Will illumine our hearts with the glorious light Of a hopeful and sun-brightened day.
When failure confronts us and darkens our goals, How we long for the clasp of a hand! It is then that we cry from the depths of our souls For a friend who can just understand.
A bright, cheery smile often gives me the strength That we lack in the vortex of strife, For it lightens our load as we travel the length Of the care-laden path we call Life.
So we find, after all, that the things we thought small Loom colossal above all the host; That the best of God's gifts are the friends we can call To our side when we need them the most.

TO WAR ON GLUTTONY.

"We Eat Three Times As Much As We Need," Henry Ford Says.

New York Herald.
"Eat only when hungry, and then eat less than you feel you need," counsels Henry Ford. "Try this for a week, and I'll guarantee you'll feel better and much healthier."

"Firmly convinced that most persons consume three times as much food as they should and that gluttony causes brain sluggishness and an appetite for drink, Mr. Ford has directed Dr. James E. Mead, physician at the Ford Hospital, to establish a department of dietetics. It is declared that the several thousand employees of the Ford Motor Company will be able to save at least $1,000,000 annually by following Mr. Ford's advice.

"Many of the best authorities blame a great deal of the passion for liquor upon gluttony," said Dr. Mead, discussing the scope of the new department.

"This department is in line with Mr. Ford's efficiency propaganda. In his new hospital the men will be taught how to eat. One thousand private rooms will be provided, the charge for a patient to be $2 a day, which will include room, board and nurse attendance. The nurses will work in three shifts of eight hours each.

"Thomas Edison eats less and does more work than any other man I know," said Mr. Ford today. "The best authorities I can find tell me that we eat too much. I myself have tried the theory that less eating is beneficial and I am thoroughly convinced that it is reliable.

"Think of the waste of food-stuffs there is, too. We wouldn't feed an engine three times as much fuel as it needed. Yet we pay out our good money to gormandise at the expense of both our income and our health. Whenever I have any hard problem to think out I don't wait for a healthy meal. I do my thinking on empty stomach.

"I have the greatest sympathy for a man addicted to liquor. His appetite is a disease caused in many cases by unwise eating. That he craves strong drink is often not his fault."

PILING IT ON.

He had been on a hunting expedition for several days in the back woods, roughing it rather severely and on taking a seat in a railway carriage returning homeward he looked as begrimed and weather-beaten a trapper as ever brought his skins into a settlement.

He happened to find a seat next to a young lady—evidently belonging to Boston—who, after taking stock of him for a few minutes, remarked: "Don't you find an utterly passionate sympathy with nature's most incarnate aspirations among the sky topping mountains and the dim aisles of the horizon-touching forests, my good man?"

"Oh, yes," replied the apparent backwoodsman, "and I am also frequently drawn into an exaltation of rapt soulfulness and beatific incandescent infinity of abstract contiguity when my horse stumbles."

"Indeed!" said the young lady, much surprised. "I had no idea that the lower classes feel like that."—Puck.

RATHER PARTICULAR.

Some time ago an automobile party was touring the back counties when hunger seized the crowd. Having a kit with them, they decided to make a Welsh rabbit, instead of going to a local hostelry. To this end a trip was made to the corner grocery for the raw materials.

"We want a couple of pounds of cheese and some large, square crackers for a Welsh rabbit," said the purchaser, going into the store. "Got the cheese all right, answered the groceryman, "but none o' them big square crackers. How 'bout some little ones?" "They won't do," returned the purchaser. "We must have the large ones." "Spese ye must if ye say so," thoughtfully commented the groceryman, "but it strikes me that that rabbit is derved perlic 'bout his eatin'!"—Philadelphia Telegraph.
