THE FIRST RULE OF SUCCESS.

He Should Be a Man of Upright Character.

"A very serious question," Thus Cardinal Gibbons characterizes, in a letter to me, a query which I have just addressed to certain representative Philadelphians and a few others:

"If a young man came to you seeking your advice, what would you give him as the first rule of success?"

The answer I received from the great and good Cardinal whom so many thousands of Philadelphians love and revere is as follows:

"A young man should first consider to what vocation he is called by temperament and inclination or rather by divine guidance; and after deciding on the business or profession he is to embrace, he should devote all his energies to reach the goal of his success."

"He should avoid every pleasure and distraction that would divide or weaken his attention to the pursuit of life which he has chosen."

"But he should avoid the common error of imagining that success depends on the acquisition of wealth or fame. No success is attained by doing well what we do mind remaining faithful at the post of duty."

"In short, his aim of life should be to place principle before popularity, duty before pleasure, and Christian righteousness before expediency. He should endeavor, in a word, to be a man of upright character, which is more precious than riches and more enduring than fame."—Philadelphia Ledger.

WANTED ALL THE SPIDERS

An old colored man charged with stealing chickens was arraigned in court and was incriminating himself when the judge said:

"You ought to have a lawyer. Where's your lawyer?"

"Ah ain't got no lawyer, judge," said the old man.

"Very well, then," said his honor. "I'll assign a lawyer to defend you."

"Oh, no suh; no, suh! Please don't do dat," the darkey begged. "Why not?" asked the judge. "I won't cost you anything. Why don't you want a lawyer?"

"Well, judge, Ah'll tell you suh," said the old man, waving his tattered old hat, confidentially. "Hit's dis way. Ah want tah enjoy dem chickens masey."—Chicago News.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA THE BILL KEPT LENT.

Mr. Tucker had unexpectedly come face to face with Mr. Cutting from whom he had frequently borrowed money.

"Er—aw—what was the denomination of the bill you loaned me?" he asked nervously.

"Episcopalian, I guess," said Mr. Cutting. "At any rate, it keeps Lent very well."—N. Y. American.

AGE WON'T MATTER THEN.

The Boy—"I shall be glad when I am old enough to do as I please."

The Man—"And about that time you'll go and get married, so it won't do much good after all."—Chicago Herald.

Too Sick To Work

Many Women in this Condition Regain Health by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Convincing Proof of This Fact.

Idigway, Penn. — "I suffered from female trouble with backache and pain in my side for over seven months so I could not do any of my work. I was treated by three different doctors and was getting discouraged when my sister-in-law told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her. I decided to try it, and it restored my health, so I now do all of my housework which is not so light as I have a little by three years old."—Mrs. O. M. RIMES, Idigway, Penn.

Mrs. Lindsey Now Keeps House For Seven.

Tennille, Ga.—"I want to tell you how much I have benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. About eight years ago I got in such a low state of health I was unable to keep house for three in the family. I had dull, tired, dizzy feelings, cold feet and hands nearly all the time and could scarcely sleep at all. The doctor said I had a severe case of ulceration and without an operation I would always be an invalid, but I told him I wanted to wait awhile. Our druggist advised my husband to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has entirely cured me. Now I keep house for seven and work in the garden some, too. I am so thankful I got this medicine. I feel as though it saved my life and have recommended it to others and they have been benefited."—Mrs. W. E. LINDSEY, R. R. 3, Tennille, Ga.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

FATHER.

He was not the kind of father that you read about in books. He wasn't long on language, and he wasn't strong on looks. He was not the sort of father that you hear about in plays. He was just a human father with a human father's ways.

No, he never balked at working but when he was through at once Right down the grass was father with the children doing stunts. All of us would pile upon him, and he'd welcome all the pack. But I'm wondering after playtime did we stay there—on his back?

Wasn't strong on dissipation; said his "gambol on the green" Was to fill the platter faster than the kids could lick it clean. And the next best game he knew of was a equal one to beat. It was keeping leather covers up to the supply of feet.

Always on the job was father, plugging steadylike and strong. Never making any noise, but helping all his little world along. And to think—Lord, ain't it funny you can see things years and years. And yet never know you've seen them till your eyes are blind with tears?

Quit his job one day and left us, smiling as he went away, Eulogy seems all so foolish. What can anybody say? Seemed like even in his leaving he was saving someone bother. For the one word on the granite which lies over him is "Father."

DISAPPOINTED HORSE.

Didn't know the Leaves on Woman's Hat were Artificial.

That a horse, in spite of his "horse sense" can be pitifully deceived by appearances was demonstrated in a telling manner. A young lady was waiting patiently for a car going east, when a horse and wagon owned by a luckster stopped almost before her!

The horse, a friendly looking animal gradually edged up to the curb near the young woman, who smiled graciously and patted him on the nose. As the car approached she walked slowly toward the track and was waiting for the car door to open when the friendly animal slipped up behind her and with a sudden plunge grasped the bunch of green leaves from her new spring hat.

After a brief tussle with hat pins and yellow curls, the horse managed to wrest the hat from the young woman and marched off chewing what he evidently thought a meal of fine green. The horse chewed the milliner's painted leaves, and finding them not to his taste dropped the hat, which was returned to its owner.—Milwaukee Journal.

Has a High Opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have a high opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets for biliousness and as a laxative," writes Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Charleston, Ill. "I have never found anything so mild and pleasant to use. My brother has also used these tablets with satisfactory results."

UTILIZE THE SUN'S HEAT.

Alexander Graham Bell Suggests Conserving It In Oil.

Of course water can only be heated to the boiling temperature, but there are many liquids that can be heated to a very much higher temperature without boiling. I have taken a tumbler of olive oil and heated it by means of a thin iron wire connected with a voltaic battery. I placed in the tumbler of oil a test tube filled with water. In a short time the water was boiling, but the oil remained perfectly quiescent. If you stored up hot oil instead of water, you will have at your command a source of heat able to do your cooking and even produce steam power to work machinery.

We have plenty of heat going to waste in Washington. During the summer time, for the sun's rays are very powerful, and we do not use the roofs of our buildings except to keep off the rain. What wide expanses of roof are available in all our large cities for the utilization of the sun's rays. Simple pipes laid on the roof and containing oil or some other liquid would soon become heated by the sun's rays. The hot oil could be carried into an insulated tank and stored. You could thus not only conserve and utilize the heat that falls upon the tops of your houses but effect some cooling of the houses themselves by the abstraction of this heat.—National Geographic Magazine.

NO JOB FOR A MORTAL.

A man advertised for a hostler, and mentioned that a returned soldier would be preferable. Soon a hard looking fellow put in an appearance seeking the job.

"Do you smoke?" asked the man.

"No," was the reply. "Swear?"

"No."

"Are you a member of the Church of England?"

Seeing that an answer in the affirmative was required, the other said he was.

But when the man asked, "Are you a total abstainer?" it was too close quarters for the returned hero.

"Look 'ere, mister," he said, "strike me if yer know what yer want. You hadverred for an osler, but you bloomin' well wants a harkangel, that's what yer wants," and he walked away in disgust.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Experience the Best Teacher.

It is generally admitted that experience is the best teacher, but should we not make use of the experience of others as well as our own? The experience of a thousand persons is more to be depended upon than that of one individual. Many thousands of persons have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds with the best results, which shows it to be a thoroughly reliable preparation for those diseases. Try it. It is prompt and effectual and pleasant to take.

There are still some vacant lots on Easy street.

Like a Boy at 50 Bubbling Over With Vitality—Taking Iron Did It

Doctor says Nuxated Iron is greatest of all strength builders. Often increases the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous folks 100 per cent. in two weeks' time.

New York, N. Y.—Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the vigor and energy of a young man. He was a man of 50, and I was really wondering how he had managed to do so well. He had been taking Nuxated Iron for some time, and he had been very successful in his business. He had been taking it for some time, and he had been very successful in his business.
