INCONSISTENT.

A lawyer died in an American provincial town, and fellow lawyers wrote over his grave:

"Here lies a lawyer and an honest man."

Not long after, the Governor of the province visited the town, and among other places inspected the cemetery. When he came to the lawyer's grave he stopped, read the inscription and turning to the head inspector said:

"Look here, my friend. We wint at a good many things in this province, but I do object to your burying two men in one grave."—Exchange.

HOW TO REPEL TRAMPS.

"Don't you want to hire a fellow to keep the tramps away, Mrs. Stubs?" asked the small boy.

"How can a little fellow like you keep the tramps away?" demanded Mrs. Subbubs.

"Easy enough," replied the boy, "I kin eat up all the pie an' cake in 'em things wot's left over."—Saint Paul Post.

A man with a high aim in life seldom carries a gun.

Pains Dizzy Spells

Mrs. G. P. Cartwright, of Whitehill, Tenn., writes: "I suffered from bearing-down pains, . . . The dizzy spells got so bad that when I would start to walk, I would just pretty nearly fall. Was very much run-down. I told my husband I thought Cardui would help me. . . . He got me a bottle. . . . It helped me so much that he got me another bottle. I got a whole lot better. The dizzy spells and the bearing-down pains . . . left me entirely."

If you are weak and run-down, or suffer from womanly pains,

LUKE McLUKE SAYS

THOUGHT TOO HIGHLY OF BOTH.

A Few Timely Remarks.

The fellows who haven't any are unanimous in the opinion that the fellows who have automobiles have no right to drive them on the streets.

If you want to give a statement the widest degree of publicity, start it on its way as a secret that must not be repeated.

When an employee gets the idea that he is hired to instruct his boss, it is a sign that the employee will soon be hunting a new job.

Maybe the reason why a man takes sides on a question is because if he doesn't he'll have to listen to arguments on both of them.

You can always depend on the motion to adjourn being carried by a unanimous vote.

Some people do not know where to draw the line between enthusiasm and gush.

We notice that some of the suffs who demand equal privileges are raising mustaches like the men. But we doubt if the suffs will ever insist on the male privilege of being bald.

Women love nice clothes. But there never was a mother who dressed better than her unmarried daughter.

Many a man loses a wad of coin on a sure thing because he was too smart to take a chance.

It must be a relief to some men to know that they will never be talked to death by the voice of conscience.

Some of the June brides have settled down by this time and are wondering what mamma put in their coffee to get them to go to the altar with what they married.

Men have a lot of fool ways of hunting for trouble. But a woman takes the prize when she marries a man to reform him.

HIS THEORY.

"Does your husband subscribe to the theory that kissing transmits germs?"

"No; he thinks germs are mostly transmitted by money, and is very careful not to hand me any."—Puck.

SAME SPIRIT.

"I once knew a man who went hungry in order to buy feed for the horse."

"I can understand his sentiments. Many's the time I have cut down on meat and potatoes in order to buy gasoline."—Washington Star.

Experience the Best Teacher.

It is generally admitted that experience is the best teacher, but should we not make use of the experience of others as well as our own? The experience of a thousand persons is more to be depended upon than that of one individual. Many thousands of persons have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds with the best results, which shows it to be a thoroughly reliable preparation for those diseases. Try it. It is prompt and effectual and pleasant to take.

The wise guy and the fool's money soon get together.
