

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body, and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good. To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, from from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try Scott's Emulsion, New York.

HEARD IN THE SANCTUM.

"A Kansas newspaper man sold his outfit last week to join the army," says the Kansas City Star, and The Topeka Pink Rag says the recent advance in the soldiers' pay to $30 a month is going to cut deep into the ranks of newspaper men everywhere.

THE CRITIC AND THE POET

The classic philosopher, J. Fuller Gloom, writes to the Kansas City Star "One way to prevent an unwarranted waste of white paper is to demand that Tennyson J. Draft be compelled to write his poems on soda crackers, and then eat them." And right in the wake of that criticism the poet handed in this:

"What are you knitting, my pretty maid?"
She purred, then dropped a snuff.
"A sock or a sweater, sir," she said.
"And darned if I know which!"

AS THEY FALL IN.

In offering the eleven-billion-dollar bond bill it looked strange to see Claude Kitchen standing up and telling the people that we must have the money and that this was but a starter. Of this eleven-billion-dollar bond issue, four billion of it will be loaned to the allies. Think of the money we will have loaned the allies, and then wonder what they would have done had it not been for Uncle Sam. The Kaiser had figured this all out, but he hadn't figured that we would not only finance the war, but that we would send five million men to help fight it. So it has in fact left to the western world to finish the job. And the western world is responding with all its strength and power. Money by the billion and man by the million—what else could the allies hope for, what else is needed.—Everything.

CAN'T BE DONE.

Commissioner Hoover says he cannot fix the price of meat, and therefore the honest farmer will still look you in the eye and ask nineteen dollars for a trying size pullet and allow that "meat is hard." But it is suggested everywhere, and to one seems to fall for the suggestion, that if the women of the country would organize, nationally, and pull off about thirty meatless days—say, two a week for a few months—the prices would go down. And it seems reasonable. Pull off enough meatless days to stop the slaughter houses for a time. Insist that every loyal woman join the order and on certain days all over America have no meat to eat. The people could stand for it, and to stop the supply of meat in a nation like this for thirty days would mean that there would be an accumulation of live stock that would surprise every mathematician on earth. It is a proposition that can be carried out.

WHY THIS DISTINCTION?

Why drafted dental students should be permitted to finish their courses in England, France and Canada made the mistake, which they now acknowledge, of accepting dental and medical students for life service. As a consequence these countries are suffering greatly for want of dentists in care for both civilian and military needs.

General Crowder issued an order on August 29, 1917, that hospital interns and fourth, third and second year medical students, who were called into service might enlist in the Enlisted Reserve Corps (Regulations for the Enlisted Reserve Corps, Act of June 3, 1916) and permitted to complete their course. Dental service is a valuable and necessary part of the medical service of the army and navy, and dental students are being drafted in as line men.

Why should this distinction be made? X.

WELDON 33 YEARS AGO.

From the Roanoke News, Sept. 20, 1884.

ENTRAINING

Fare thee well, my soldier brothers, Fare thee well, What the future may hold for you None can tell. Hopes were not born to be shattered. Troubles borrowed never mattered. Play your man's part, that is all. Onward sounds the bugle's call.

Prayers go with you, soldier brothers.

Earnest prayers, That, as patriots, forgetting Other cares.

Your high courage may not fail you. When advancing foes assail you, Where your country's flag shall lead, May that be your goal in deed.

Fare thee well, my soldier brothers, Fare thee well, We shall think of you tomorrow. With regret, and maybe sorrow, But today our pride, my brothers, Every other feeling smothered, God above, your cause defend; Play your man's part to the end.

BEST ON THE MARKET FOR MALARIA.

Anyone That Has Chills Should Try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

Person Remedy Co., Charlotte, N. C.

A short time ago I was afflicted with malaria and chills and nothing seemed to do me any good until I tried MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY which quickly gave the desired relief. And I can truthfully say that I think that the Remedy is the best on the market for malaria and chills. Any one that has Malaria I would say try it and be convinced as I have.

Having a wife, with tobacco as currency, is the ideal of Virginia.

For cigarettes, Virginia-Carolina tobacco is the best

The sunny South—where cigarettes were born

The first cigarette ever made was Virginia-Carolina tobacco. All the mellow charm of Southern sunshine itself is in Virginia-Carolina tobacco. And no other tobacco has that "dash" and "go" to its taste that Virginia-Carolina tobacco has.

NOTE: Ten million pounds. That's how much Virginia-Carolina tobacco was used in cigarettes last year—over 4 times as much as any other tobacco. And Piedmont is the biggest-selling Virginia-Carolina cigarette in the world.

AMBULANCE BOYS.

Saw Some of the Hardships of Real warfare in the Beginning at Camp.

The members of United States Ambulance Company, No. 43, are now safely in camp at Petersburg, Va., forming a part of the great army assembled at Camp Lee. This unit was recruited in Raleigh, Kinston, New Bern, Henderson, Oxford and a number of other towns in this section of the State, and this is the only military unit from this State which is assigned to Camp Lee. The units of the National Guard are at Greenville, S. C., and the selected men for the National Army are at Columbia, S. C.

That the men of the ambulance company have undergone at least some of the hardships of war are in evidence from a letter received from one of the members. But the boys are now comfortably quartered and are down to hard training for the very important work which they will have to do along the firing line in France.

The following letter is sent to the News and Observer by Mr. J. O. Temple, and it will prove of interest to the many friends of these boys.

After not having a home since last Monday when Ambulance Co. No. 43, from Raleigh and vicinity entrained, they have been quartered in a real comfortable home.

On arriving at Camp Lee, Va., they saw some of real war hardships by having to sleep on the hard floor with only one blanket. The next morning they were furnished with cots, which they had to carry from the cars for about a mile, to only be moved into another barrack the next day.

But through the efforts of the commanding officer, Capt. Charles

L. Scott, they are now comfortably quartered in a most desirable location. The barracks they now occupy is situated to the rear of the large sand clay roads. Just across the road is situated the officers headquarters together with ambulances, motorcycles, etc. Back of the barracks the men have their bath house, which is very completely arranged.

Of course the change being so different from civil life has made some of the men a little home sick. The main objection is the idea of washing their own mess kits. Guess it is from the fact that after eating so much of that good wholesome meat. Afterwards they were given the typhoid vaccine by Lieutenant Vance Perry, of Kinston. Food they get a little lazy. But they will soon get accustomed to these few hardships, for they are real men ready to die for each other and their country. It is surprising how disciplined these men have been from the start. It evidently shows good home training. Besides the top sergeant, Hubert Hanks, of New Bern, gives his orders in the most commanding way, such as to let the men know that he means everything he says. Although with his way he is one of the boys, has a good word for them and is liked by all.

Yesterday the entire company re given another medical exam-
