CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

HOW HIS NAME ORIGINATED.

Mr. Lynch and his friend were discussing family names and their history.

"How did your name originate?"

"Oh, probably one of my ancestors was of the grasping kind that you hear about so often. Somebody gave him an 'ynch' and he took an 'L'."—Christian Register.

NO SUICIDE.

"Oh, Miss Smith," said Willie, "may I be dismissed at 11? Father is going to cut his head off, and I want to see him do it."

Miss Smith was somewhat surprised, but not more so than Willie was, when he found that the teacher had not heard about his father going on a hunting trip and shooting a splendid deer.—Youth's Companion.

OTHERS HAVE NOTICED IT.

Uncle Ezra—"So ye just got back from New York. What's the difference between the city and the country?"

Uncle Eben—"Wall, in the country you go to bed feeling all in and get up feeling fine, and in the city you go to bed feeling fine and get up feeling all in."—Life.

In the drama of life there are more thinking parts than there are actors to fill them.

A Letter From Washington

The Food Administrator Writes Us:

"The use of baking powder breads made of corn and other coarse flours instead of patent wheat flour is recommended by the Conservation Division of the Food Administration. The wheat needed for export is thus conserved, and at the same time healthful food for our own people is provided. The circulation of recipes providing for these uses would be of assistance in carrying out our plans."

The following recipes for Corn Bread and Rye Rolls save wheat flour and make attractive and wholesome food for every day when made with

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

CORN BREAD

1 1/2 cups corn meal
1 cup flour
2 level teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1 tablespoon sugar
1 tablespoon salt
1 1/2 cups milk
2 tablespoons shortening

Mix thoroughly dry ingredients; add milk and melted shortening; beat well; pour into well greased pan and bake in hot oven about 25 minutes.

RYE ROLLS

3 cups rye flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 level teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1 cup milk
1/2 tablespoon shortening

Mix dry ingredients together; add milk and melted shortening; beat on flour board; shape into rolls; put into greased pans and allow to stand in warm place 20 to 25 minutes. Bake in moderate oven 25 to 30 minutes.

LONGING.

I often long for the good old days, for the halcyon days of youth. But I don't think much of the good old days, to tell the honest truth! It's only a feeling now and then, a sort of a backward look—I like a snatch of a good old song, or a line from the copybook. It comes sometimes when the stress is strong, when the pace is just too swift—

It comes sometimes when my sky is dark, and the thought is a sunny rift;

And it isn't the good old days I want, but it's just a sense, somehow, That I want to get back to somewhere, to escape the cares of Now.

I've climbed the hill of life, and I'm starting down on the other side—The way lies far to my patron star, and the road is long and wide! I've viewed the valley from Forty Mount, and, taking the Road again, I've glanced back over my shoulder to the miles that my life has lain; And I've seen, in that backward glance, a vision so fair and sweet That the road ahead seems sickly and dead, and I drag my weary feet! And then it is that the longing comes, and my eyes see through a haze, And just for a fleeting moment I wish for the good old days.

And then—I must thank my God for this—the burden seems not so great;

For burden is life's sure armor, and armor is prouder weight, And I draw my gaze from the valley far back on the road I've trod, And I look to the one before me, and I think of my Staff and Rod!

And on toward the Star, and onward as far as the fair road lies, I shall carry my armor proudly, to the dip of the utmost skies— And then, when I've dropped my burden at the end of the sun's last rays, Perhaps I shall taste the sweets again, and live in the good old days!

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:

"From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . . ."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer from pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

THE TRUE WORD

Two elderly New York club-women who have retired spend much of their time gazing out upon the Fifth avenue throngs from their leather rest chairs at a club lounge window.

Charles B. Townes was seated near them the other day. A very stunning woman of middle age passed in a handsome turnout.

"I wonder how old she is?" said one.

"Woman is as old as she looks," was the reply.

There was a pause. "And man is not old until he quits looking," said the first—and both resumed their gazing.

IT DIDN'T FIT.

Young William was evincing much interest in the evening paper but finally a puzzled look came over his countenance.

"Aasher," he said, "what does d—d stand for?"

"Doctor of divinity, my son. Don't they teach you the common abbreviations in school?"

"Sure; but that don't seem to sound right here."

"Read it aloud."

"Witness—I heard the defendant say, 'I'll make you suffer for this. I'll be doctor of divinity if I don't.'"—Harp's.

A woman likes to have a man flatter her even when she knows he is a peevish fabricator.

Dr. Frederic Jacobson Says, 75 per cent. of women need Phosphates to give them Strong, Healthy, rounded figure and to avoid Nervous Breakdown Thousands of women grow strong in Nature's way.

"Consider the Lilies of the Field. How They Grow."

The life of the lily is but a few weeks or months. The life of man is "three score years and ten." But to live one's life in its fullness women like the lily, must be nourished by those same vital elements which nature provides for nourishing every living thing; and these include the valuable phosphate so often lacking in the usual food we eat today. Argo-Phosphate is rich in these wonderful elements. It contains them in concentrated tablet form which is easy to take and quickly assimilated and absorbed into the system, and from youth to old age, builds and rebuilds body and brain in beautiful harmony with Nature's perfect plan. That's why Argo-Phosphate makes good solid flesh and muscles.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Argo-Phosphate contains the Natural phosphates which thousands of physicians are prescribing daily to build up thin, pale, colorless women to give them rosy cheeks, red lips and a beautiful complexion. Many cases have been reported where women have increased their weight from 15 to 25 pounds with a few weeks treatment, and any woman who desires a well rounded and developed form, should secure from her druggist, this new drug which is inexpensive and is dispensed by the W. M. COHEN DRUG COMPANY with or without a doctor's prescription.

VAST GAME PRESERVE.

Uncle Sam Has Created a Paradise for Birds and Beasts.

In another respect this park land stands in a category by itself. By Federal enactment all of the Yellowstone Park proper and some additional territory bordering it has been made a vast national game preserve, something not originally planned. Here, within the park boundaries, deer, elk, antelope, bears, mountain sheep, moose, bison and the smaller game, birds (between 150 and 200 species) and fur-bearing animals have a refuge where no hunter or trapper penetrates and danger rarely intrudes.

There are thousands of these various animals that know they are absolutely immune from harm by man when within the bounds of the park. Most of them have never seen a dog nor heard the sound of a rifle. Under these conditions their natural timidity is greatly lessened, and many of them, even bears, become surprisingly tame. In Gardiner Canyon beside the road the beautiful mule deer and the white tailed deer, touchingly innocent and trustful, and the mountain sheep—the big-horn fellows—stand or lie, eating alfalfa, and enjoying the protecting care of a benevolent, animal-loving government. They become almost as domesticated as barnyard animals. Indeed, at Mammoth Hot Springs the deer actually haunt the kitchen doors and rear themselves on their hind legs against the porch railings or even climb the steps and peer into the doors and windows, mutely begging for food, which they often take from one's hand. At night they lie on the snow under the large trees, or in some cases even sleep in the large cavalry barns, which have been vacant since the soldiers were removed from the park in the fall of 1916.

—St. Nicholas.

LITTLE WAYSIDE SAYINGS

If the sermon "drives home" on a ringin' road, you find folks wonderin' when Amen's comin'.

When you hear a drowinin' man holler "Halleluia" you natchally comes ter de conclusion dat he wants to go whar he's gwine.

It takes wings ter make de Gospel fly, an' some folks has got 'em—jedgin' by de way dey flies when dey hears it comin'.

Don't ax de Lawd ter keep you fum evil, an' den go ter thinkin' dat mebbe de evil ain't bad ez what it's pained.

A SAD MEMORY.

Availing herself of her ecclesiastical privileges, the clergyman's wife asked questions which, coming from anybody else, would have been thought impertinent.

"I presume you carry a memento of some kind in that locker you wear?" she said.

"Yes, ma'am," said the parishioner, "it is a lock of my husband's hair."

"But your husband is still alive," the lady exclaimed.

"Yes, ma'am, but his hair is gone."

A GOOD PROVIDER.

"Well, Dinah, I hear you are married."

"Yas'm," said the former cook, "I've done got me a man now."

"Is he a good provider?"

"Yes'm, but I've powerful skeered dat he's gwine ter get kooched at it."

Give the inchworm time and he will get ahead.

Many a man's empty pockets are due to his wife's fondness for change.

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y., "when suffering from attacks of indigestion and heaviness after eating, one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative. These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion give them a trial, get well and stay well."
