SIR ROSSLYN WEMYSS

Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, who was appointed first sea lord of the British admiralty to succeed Admiral Jellicoe. He is a man of great executive ability.

DAT 'VIATION.

Would Have Nothing to Stand On.

A darkey was being assisted in having his filled. When it came to the branch of the army he desired to serve in, and asked to name it, among which was aviation, he listened, attentively, then remarked: "Dat 'viation, what's dat?" He was told that it was flying in the air, in a machine, he asked: "Is it run by an engine, like a Ford?" Being told that it did, he exclaimed with some feeling: "No, sir, boss; nothin' like dat. Don't want to be up dar. I might be ridin' wid a white man, and sumthin' git de matter wid de machine, and he say, 'Nigger, git out here and crank dis 'merchine,' boss, 'I wouldn't have a darned thing 't stand on. No, sir; not dat."

Another darkey, being asked to select the branch he would like to go into, was faced with the same aviation proposition, and he wanted to know what it was. Being told it was to fly in the air, he remarked: "No sree, I want to stay on the ground." He was told that if he went over to France they might possibly blow him up in the air, and hadn't he better be riding in the air, instead of being blow up in it, replied: "No, sir; no excavation for me. You put me down in de medicine departments."

NOT SO RICH.

"Maud says her face is her fortune."
"Well, she wouldn't be very rich if she were two-faced."

DR. MILANKO VESNITCH

Dr. Milanko Vesnitch, Serbian minister to France, who heads the diplomatic and military mission to the United States. Doctor Vesnitch represented his country at the interallied conference in Paris.

LUZIANNE coffee
Luzianne and Corn Pone
-Yum-Yum!

WHEN you see your mammy, Honey, bringin' in the coffee and the pone, you can tell before you taste it that the coffee's Luzianne—sure-nut—by the whiffs a-stearin', steamin' in the air.

"When It Pours, It Reigns"

SONG OF YOUR LIFE.

Don't let the song go out of your life,
Though it chance sometimes to fly
In a minor strain; it will blend again
With the major tone you know.

"What though shadows rise to obscure life's skies,
And hide for a time the sun,
The sooner they'll lift and reveal the rift,
If you'll let the melody run,

"Don't let the song go out of your life;
Though your voice may have lost its trill,
Though the tremulous note may die in your throat,
Let it sing in your spirit still.

"Don't let the song go out of your life;
Let it ring in the soul while here;
And when you go hence 'twill follow you thence,
And live on in another sphere."

WEEPING FOR A NIGHT.

"Weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning."
—Psalm 30:5. Suggested by a sermon.

Just for the night, the weeping may endure,
Just for the night, the darkness shadows fall;
When morning dawns the light will come again,
And shed its radiant beams o'er all.

Just for the night, the pathway seems so dark,
No glimmering ray to show us where to go;
But daylight comes, the Comforter is near,
And guides us over ways we did not know.

Just for the night, life's seems so full of gloom,
And oft our pillow is bedewed with tears;
But on the morn' new joy will fill our hearts,
And chase away the sadness and the fears.

Just for the night, we sigh and mourn and weep,
And feel that life is more than we can bear;
But when the glad sunshine brightens all
Our hearts rejoice in beauty everywhere.

Just for the night! O weeping one look up:
Earth's shadows soon will flee away,
And joy will come, and we will enter in
The glorious dawn of an eternal day!

BILL'S LAST CHANCE.

The following comes from a reader who is employed on munitions:
There had, it appears, been an explosion at a neighboring factory, and the manager, who was snatching a brief holiday at the time, hurried home to investigate.

"How in the world did it happen?" he asked the foreman as he viewed the wreck. "Who was to blame?"
"Well, you see, sir," was the reply, "it was like this. Bill went in the mixing room, probably thinking of something else, and struck a match in mistake. He—"
"Struck a match?" exclaimed the manager in amazement. "I should have thought it would have been the last thing on earth he'd do."
"It was, sir," was the rejoinder.—Chicago Herald.

FATHER WAS RIGHT.

"I understand old man Simpkins was very much opposed to his daughter marrying Bill Smith; called Bill a fool and all that sort of thing."
"That's all very true, and before he had been married six months Bill admitted the old man was right."—Dallas (Tex.) News.

It is much easier to deceive ourselves than it is to deceive others.

JOHN McCLAIN

Private John McClain of Dayton, O., a member of the American expeditionary force in France, wearing the French Croix de Guerre with the palm awarded him by the French government for saving 50 persons when an enemy aviator dropped a bomb in the village in which he was billeted. McClain quickly picked up the bomb and running to a nearby river threw it far out from shore.

DIPLOMAT.

"Brown is a clever guy, he is."

"What's he done now?"
"Met his wife on the street, dodged her, turned his nose up when she waved at him, and when he finally bumped squarely into her and she wanted to know what he meant by his conduct, hanged if he didn't tell her he didn't recognize her and thought it was some impertinent person trying to flirt with him."

SIR FREDERICK E. SMITH

Sir Frederick E. Smith, who was Great Britain's censor during the first year of the war, is now on a visit in the United States. He believes the censorship should not prevent the publication of the heroic deeds of the troops.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can Be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."
—Mrs. FRANK HANSON, 1318 S. Orville St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," backache, headaches and "the blues" should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
