NOTICE

There will be a regular convocation of Roanoke Chapter 81 R. A. M. in Masonic Hall, every first and third Wednesday evenings.
A. B. STAINBACK, Sec'y.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

The trees are budding out early. It is almost time to gather at the river.

No more porkless days for a while. Some of the peach trees are in full bloom.

The park begins to look green and inviting. Many a sickly fly has spoiled a healthy appetite.

Plant your Irish potatoes this during this month.

The temperature went down to 12 last Sunday night.

Break your Cold or LaGrippe with a few doses 666.

The road to success is paved with good advertising.

Mrs. V. K. Overman is visiting relatives in Goldsboro.

Mrs. Philip Moore left Tuesday morning for New York City.

The race is not always to the swift and it is never to the loafer.

Mrs. C. T. Cordon has returned from a trip to Georgia and Florida.

Mr. Percy Dawson, of Portsmouth, Va., spent Sunday in town.

Women always think they mean what they say at the time they say it.

Many a thief goes to prison because of his lawyer's shortcomings.

Mr. Bernard Holdford spent Sunday and Monday in Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harris, of Emporia, spent Sunday here with relatives.

RUB-MY-TISM—Antiseptic, relieves Rheumatism, Sprains, Neuralgia, etc.

Mrs. J. W. Pierce and Mrs. S. B. Pierce spent last Thursday in Richmond.

Mr. Leonard Trueblood, of Hopewell, spent a few days in town last week.

They used to say that when the dogwood bloomed out was the time to go fishing.

The vagrant law should be enforced in Weldon. Go to the roads or go to work.

In advertising, always say what you believe if you want people to believe what you say.

Eggs are getting cheaper. They were sold on the street Saturday for 30 cents per dozen.

Sergeant Allen Zollicoffer, of Ambulance Corps 317, Camp Lee, spent the week-end at home.

As a general thing the other fellow has no use for your opinion unless it coincides with his own.

Judge a man's true worth by what he has in his heart rather than by what he has in his pocket.

A kind word is never spoken in vain. It has frequently saved a married man the cost of a new set of dishes.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Suiter and Mrs. John Edwards, of Scotland Neck, spent a few hours in town Saturday.

Miss Katherine Ward has returned home from a pleasant visit to Greensboro and the western part of the State.

The trees are putting on the green front, and if they don't look out the March weather is going to do business for them.

ORGAN RECITAL.—The recital given at the Baptist church last Wednesday evening, March 6th, by Morriener Browning, organist, was an occasion long to be remembered by those so fortunate as to have heard him. Mr. Browning is an artist of unusual ability, and in his rendering of a carefully selected program, showed not only talent, but the result of earnest, conscientious work, which is as necessary in producing a good musician, as in any vocation in life.

CELEBRATED THEIR BIRTHDAYS.—Miss Florence Freid celebrated her ninth birthday last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Freid, on Maple street. After a jolly time spent in playing games dainty refreshments were served. She received quite a number of pretty presents.

Little Miss Josephine Freid was hostess to a number of her little friends a few days ago, the occasion being her seventh birthday. After a merry time spent in playing games delicious refreshments were served. Little Miss Josephine received quite a number of presents.

REFLECTED CREDIT UPON THE SCHOOL.—Friday morning, March 8th, the colored graded school rendered a War Saving Stamp program and organized a Thrift Society among the school children. The program, which was almost entirely relative to thrift and economy was well rendered by the children taking part, and reflected credit upon the school.

After the school had finished their part of the program, addresses were delivered by Hon. W. E. Daniel, chairman of the city school board, Supr. A. E. Akers, of the County Schools, Rev. L. N. Taylor, rector of the Episcopal church of Roanoke Rapids, and Supr. W. C. Allen, of the city schools. All of these addresses were along the line of saving money by purchasing War Saving Stamps. Subscriptions to the amount of $72 were taken.

FREE DENTAL WORK.—All registrants who have been placed in Class One (1) by the trial board, examined and found physically fit for first line service can have necessary dental work done free by applying to the following dentists in the county:

At Enfield—Dr. Highsmith.
At Linton—Dr. Perry.
At Scotland Neck—Dr. Keel.
At Roanoke Rapids—Dr. Fields.
At Weldon—Dr. Ward.

Each registrant should apply to the office nearest his place of residence.

DR. W. J. WARD,
DR. E. A. PERRY,
DR. HIGHSMITH,
Committee for Halifax county.
All papers in county will please copy.

MRS. J. S. TURNER HOSTESS.—Mrs. J. S. Turner entertained the Junius Daniel Chapter U. D. C. at their regular meeting on Wednesday, March 6th. According to a general request the president opened the meeting with prayer for the soldiers and sailors and the secretary read several important business communications. The Chapter had already sent a contribution to the endowment of the "Zebulon Baird Vance" bed in an American Hospital in France but funds for another bed in the same ward and this will be done at once.

The ladies were also urged to buy Thrift Stamps and to be ready to buy other Liberty Bonds through the Woman's Committee when the third general sale begins. The women's organizations in Weldon are patriotic to the core and are "doing their bit to win this war" and praying for a speedy righteous peace.

Mrs. Turner served a simple ice course as the chapter decided sometime since to serve only simple refreshments until the end of the war.

Mrs. J. T. Dawson and Mrs. E. T. Zollicoffer were invited guests and the chapter adjourned with their motto to meet in April with Mrs. W. E. Daniel.

WHAT CAIN DID.—When Cain had killed off one-fourth of the people of the earth, leaving only three, then went into the land of Nod and builded a city, it is evident that he did not stir around like a lump on a log and growl about the Nod real estate and people. He was not himself, perhaps, the most exemplary of men, and if he had some reason to emigrate from the land of his birth, he did not mope and whine, but got hold of a piece of ground and went to work to do something. The man who could build up a city under such auspices is the kind of material we want in Weldon; and we will not inquire too minutely into his antecedents, so that he takes hold like a man and can be good at least. But what is more, Cain did not advise his son to "go west" and get out of the dead old town. He named the city after him, believed in it, worked it, bought his goods there and kept his money at home.

NEW CASTLE, IND.—The measles left me run down, no appetite, could not rest at night, and I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs, so I was unable to keep about my household. My doctor advised me to take Vinol, and six bottles restored my health so I do all my household work, including washing. Vinol is the best medicine I ever used.—Alice Record, 43 So. 11th St., New Castle, Ind.

WE guarantee this wonderful cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol, for all weak, run-down, nervous conditions.

DAVID BELL STAINBACK.—David Bell Stainback, oldest son of the David E. Stainback and Minnie Bell Stainback, both deceased, died in New York City, March 1, 1918, of pneumonia, aged 36 years.

David was born in Enfield, N. C., and received his early training here, but when quite a young man he left to make his home in New York, returning occasionally for short visits to his old home. He was the oldest son of the late David E. Stainback, who died April 9, 1917, by his first wife, formerly Miss Minnie Bell, of Enfield, N. C.

After finishing high school here David entered newspaper work and was making quite a success of it when he gave it up to live in New York, where at the time of his death he was employed in insurance work.

His body arrived here Wednesday, March 6th, and was taken to Cedarwood Cemetery, where funeral services were conducted at the grave by Rev. F. M. Shamburger.

Those acting as pall bearers were: J. S. Turner, C. E. Carter, Colie Clark, R. M. Purnell, H. B. Harrell, Jr., and H. D. Allen.
