APRIL 1 LAST DAY FOR FEDERAL RETURNS

Penalties for Income Dodgers Are Severe—Get Your Return in if You Are Liable.

April 1, 1918, is the final day allowed under the federal income tax law for the filing of federal income tax returns. Persons who are required to file returns under the provisions of law and who fail to get their returns in on time are subject to severe penalties, as follows:

For making false or fraudulent returns, not exceeding $2,000 or not exceeding one year's imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court, and, in addition, 100 per cent. of the tax evaded.

For failing to make return on time, but less than $20 nor more than $1,000, and, in addition, 50 per cent. of the amount of tax due.

If on account of illness or absence from home you are unable to render your return within the time prescribed by law you may obtain an extension of 30 days if a request therefor is filed with the collector of your district before the due date of the return. In this request you must state the reason why the return cannot be filed within the time prescribed by law.

Collectors of internal revenue are not authorized to grant extensions of more than 30 days, but the commissioner of internal revenue has authority to grant a reasonable extension beyond 30 days in meritorious cases. If you desire an extension of more than 30 days your request should be addressed to the commissioner and should contain a detailed statement covering the reasons which make it impossible for you to file your return on or before April 1.

The internal revenue men are now completing their tour of the country, during which they were in touch with the people of every city and town. If you failed to get in touch with the deputy which visited your section it is not too late to get advice. Consult your postmaster as to where the nearest deputy is now. Get your blank form, study the directions and the requirements as shown thereon and make your return without fail if your income was sufficient to come within the bounds named in the law.

It is pointed out by Commissioner Roper that it is important that the people comply with the federal laws as fully as they are complying with the drafts for men and the conservation of foods and fuel. "The war must be just for people of all kinds to win," he says. "The commissioner of the treasury has as much right to collect a just portion of income as it has to conscript our boys. The tax for 1917 is designed to reach moderate as well as large incomes, so that all persons who are in financial position to bear a portion of the heavy government expenses can be assessed in proportion to their ability to pay."

"The man who is barely making a living or barely supporting a family is not affected by the 1917 law. But the man who is able to bear a share of the burden has been reached by the new law, and he should accept his responsibility in the same patriotic spirit that our young men have shown in offering themselves for this great purpose of the country to make the world safe for people of all kinds to live in and to govern themselves."

This tax is one which recognizes women as on an equal basis with men. The unmarried woman or the married woman with a salary must make tax return just the same as any man. Only the woman supporting her mother or other members of her family may take out $2,000 exemption.

Under the law the head of the family is the one whose earning power contributes to the family's support. Similarly a widow with small children to support can take out $2,000 exemption and $200 additional exemption for each of her children under eighteen. Thus it is intended that the law shall work to hardship in women having to struggle to get along that each must file return if her income is $1,000.

A man whose wife dies and who is left with small children to support upon a moderate income may also take full exemption under the new tax law and also claim $200 exemption for each of his children under eighteen.

The widower under the law is a "single man" and must make tax return accordingly. Married men need not file returns unless they are earning $2,000 or more.

"This is as much a national obligation as the reporting for duty of a man drafted for service with the colors," says H. C. Roper, commissioner of internal revenue. "As it stands, it is a matter of the man or woman's own conscience. It is for him or her to determine just how far he is liable to the tax. He must figure his own income and if it reaches the figures named in the law must make faithful report upon it to the proper authority."

"This tax is distinctly a war measure and will be in effect during the war."

"This is a people's tax—it reaches right down into the pockets of the small wage earner; it makes him a partner in the job of winning the war."

22 Million Families in the United States

4 CUPS OF WHEAT FLOUR TO THE POUND
If each family used 4 cups of flour less per week, the saving would be 22 million pounds or 112,244 barrels every week.
The greatest help housekeepers can give to win the war is to make this saving and it can be done by using this recipe in place of white flour bread.

Corn Meal Biscuits
1/2 cup scalded milk
1 cup corn meal
2 tablespoons shortening
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup white flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

Mix 1/2 cup of the measured flour for hard. Pour milk over corn meal, add shortening and salt. When cold, add sifted flour and baking powder. Roll out lightly on floured board. Cut with biscuit cutter and bake in greased pan fifteen to twenty minutes.

FOOD WILL WIN THE WAR

LOVING ENOUGH?

BY ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

Are you loving enough? There is some one dear,
Some one you hold as the dearest of all
In the holiest shrine of your heart.
Are you making it known? Is the truth of it clear
To the one you love? If death's quick call
Should suddenly tear you apart,
Leaving no time for a long farewell,
Would you feel that you had nothing to tell—
Nothing you had said before
The closing of that dark door?

Are you loving enough? The swift years fly—
Oh, faster and faster they hurry away,
And each one carries its dead,
The good deed left for the by and by,
The word to be uttered another day,
May never be done or said.
Let the love-word sound in the listening ear,
Nor wait to speak it above a bier,
Oh, the time for telling your love is brief,
But long, long, long is the time for grief.
Are you loving enough?

MOTHER'S MAN.

BY EDMUND VANCE COOKE.

I got to telling mother about Wilson and T. R.;
I told her Lincoln was a bird and Washington a star;
I cracked up Andy Jackson and I might have run right on
Concerning living statesmen and the wise ones, dead and gone,
But mother says, "Well, yes, but some of 'em were married twice
And other did some things I don't consider very nice,
And Lincoln was a grand old man and yet I've heard his wife
And he were never happy durin' all their married life.
And as for me, I think that marriage is about the croo-cial test,
So, comparin' him with statesmen, I believe my own man's best."

I was dipping into Shakespeare and a little bit of Shaw
With a taste or two of Tolstoi and a portion of Dumas.
From Hugo back to Homer and from Rabelais to Riley
I cied men of letters and I eulogized them highly,
And I might have wandered on in almost endless exegesis,
But mother said, "Yes, some of 'em wrote very pretty pieces,
But up in our old attic, almost fillin' half a chest,
Are some letters of your father's—and—I think I like 'em best."

I started in on Newton and I praised the men of science
From Archimedes to Edison. I called them mental giants,
I mused over Aristotle and Copernicus and Watt;
I called on Galileo and Darwin and I thought
Perhaps I had her wavering, but mother said, "Well, yes,
Such men are necessary and they did some things, I guess,
But most of them were fussy and mussy in their ways,
And missed their meals and sometimes wouldn't go to bed for days,
I couldn't stand a man whose mind just wanders round in space,
And your father's such a comfort just to have around the place."

Well, well, God bless the women! and all women of her kind;
God bless 'em, for He made 'em keen of sight and wholly blind.
While one eye sees such merit as no mortal ever had,
Her other eye refuses to see anything that's bad.
God bless 'em and God help the men, whom loyalty they serve;
God help 'em keep the dauntless love they never quite deserve,
Grant us each sanctuary in one woman's constant breast,
And guard the fine, old-fashioned faith, which knows her own man best.

THE PNEUMONIA SEASON.

The cold, damp weather of March seems to be the most favorable for the pneumonia germ. Now is the time to be careful. Pneumonia often results from a cold. The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger. As soon as the first indication of cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. As to the value of this preparation, ask an

A BILIOUS ATTACK.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter.
