DYING FOR ONE'S COUNTRY.

"Death Never Comes Too Soon, If Necessary In Defense of Our Country."--Story.

It was Nathan Hale who said "I regret I have but one life to lose for my country." And it is Horace that makes one of his heroes say: "It is sweet and glorious to die for one's country." There have been many and striking illustrations of this in our country's history.
It is said the untimely fate of Col. Owen Roberts, who fell at Stono, was cause of universal regret. He was an inflexible patriot, and an excellent disciplinarian, and enthusiast in pursuit of military fame. His son, who was in the action, hearing of his misfortune hastened to him. The expiring veteran perceiving in his countenance the liveliest sorrow, addressed him with the greatest composure: "I rejoice my boy, again to see and to embrace you. Receive this sword, which was never tarnished by dishonor, and let it not be inactive while the liberty of our country is endangered. Take my last adieu, accept my blessings, and return to your duty."

COME TO GIT REDEMPTION.

"For De Lawd's Sake," Take Them All.

Some very amusing things happen in the various offices of the local boards of the country, and while some of the claims for deferred classification are meritorious, a great many of them are absolutely laughable.

Mr. A. J. Dunning, Jr., chief clerk of the Local Board of Her-tie county, N. C., tells about an old negro who dropped into his office a few days ago.

"Boss," said the old man,
"I've come fur to git redemption."

"How's that, Uncle?" inquired the clerk.

"Well, you see, it's like dis: You all is 'gwine ter take my boy away from me and sen' him to do war and it'll leave me fur to star ter death, an' I wants ter git redemption for him, yes sah."

"Why, old man," said the clerk, "that boy of yours can send you $15 every month out of his pay and furthermore the government will pay you an additional $10 each month, making a total of $25 per month for your support. Wouldn't that do for your needs?"

"What's dat you say, boss?"

"I see to git $25 every month fur dat boy in de army?"

"That's right."

"Fur de Lawd's sake!" and the old negro became really excited. He began talking to himself and figuring a little.
After a while he turned to the clerk:

"Look er here, Boss," he said,
"You all git dat boy off to war as soon as you all can, and Boss I see got three more boys off. I wants you all to git 'em to do war as quick as--"

"The ducee you have!" exclaimed the clerk. "Where are they?"

"Why de's over in Virginy er somewhere else workin' in de powder plants, sah, dem good-fur-nuthin', triffin' rascals been workin' eber dar all dis time tryin' fur to keep out de war, and ain't sent me a copper cent, no sah, not a red cent, durn dar triffin' time. Yes, sah, you all call dem boys fur to go and fight for dar country jes' like dey ought to. Talk about your patriotism, dem niggers ain't never had it like we had it when we wuz young.
Yes, sah, you get dem niggers in dis war."

SAYS LEMON JUICE WILL REMOVE FRECKLES

Girl! Make this cheap beauty lotion to clear and whiten your skin.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orahard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your greaser has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orahard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is bargain.

HERE'S TO OLD GLORY, GOD BLESS HER!

If Anyone Attempts to Haul Down the American Flag, Shoot Him on the Spot.--John A. Dix.

FOLDS of white and scarlet! O blue field with your silver stars!
May fond eyes welcome you, willing feet follow you, strong hands defend you, warm hearts cherish you, and dying lips give you their blessing! Ours by inheritance, ours by allegiance, ours by affection--long may you float on the free winds of heaven, the emblem of liberty, the hope of the world!

TELL ME SO.

The people who have so much sympathy for those who have gone beyond all earthly help, might use a little of it in every day life to a good and excellent purpose. The idea of kicking people when alive and then for a person to weep over their grave when dead is what too many of us do and is one reason why the world is no better today.
Speak your kind words to the living, and when you are dead you need not care what is said of you.

If you love me tell me so,
Wait not 'till the summer glow Fades in autumn's changeful light, Amber clouds and purple night, Wait not 'till the winter hours Heap with snow drifts all the flowers, Till the tide of life runs low--
If you love me tell me so.

If you love me tell me so,
While the river's dreamy flow Folds the love-enchanted hours, Sleep in music, crowned with flowers, Ere the summer's vibrant days Vanish in the opal haze, Ere is hushed the music flow--
If you love me tell me so.

If you love me tell me so,
Let me hear the sweet words low;
Let me know, while life is fair, While in womanhood's first bloom, Ere shall come dark days of gloom,
In the first fresh dawning glow--
If you love me tell me so.

GENERAL GORDON'S WIDOW REWEWS TROOPS

"They are as fine a body of men as were our boys in the sixteen," was the comment of Mrs. John B. Gordon, widow of the famous Confederate general, after reviewing the troops at Camp Gordon, Ga., named in honor of the Southern soldier.

MUCH IN LITTLE

A London tailor, awed by the dangers accompanying enemy raids, built himself a dugout in the basement of his store with holes of cloth. A war office official inspected it and declared it absolutely bomb proof.

GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY AHEAD.

Will Nations Arise To It When War Is Ended?

It is assumed that when the war ends it will be necessary for all nations to develop as never before their natural resources to make good the wastage of combat and to lift the crushing burdens of debts which will press every people actively or passively involved.
Undoubtedly this will supply the urgent necessity of compelling humanity to attack the desert and jungle regions of the world now left to the possession of the jackal and the savage.

This thought opens a pleasing vista of possibilities. In South and Central America, in Africa, in Asia, lies unused millions of acres, untouched billions of mineral wealth, un-estimated billions worth of timber, which, if tamed, developed and exploited on some international co-operative basis would not only suffice to pay all the war and rehabilitate all the shattered regions, but to make wealth, comparatively speaking, the possession of every family.

Truly, out of the wreck of civilization, on the material side, the world has an open chance to rise in greater splendor and strength than it has ever known, to realize the dream of the prophets of the golden age. But will men and nations rise to the opportunity?

Nature Cures, The Doctor Takes The Fee.

"There is an old saying that 'Nature cures, the doctor takes the fee,' but everyone knows you can help Nature very much and thereby enable it to effect a cure in much less time than is usually required. This is particularly true of colic. Chamberlain's Colic Remedy relieves the tough muscles and aids in its expectoration, allays the rough and aids Nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.

T. R.'S YOUNGEST GRANDSON

Colonel Roosevelt and his youngest grandson, Archibald Bulloch Roosevelt, Jr., photographed at the home of Thomas Lockwood in Boston, where Mrs. Archie Roosevelt and her son are staying until Captain Roosevelt returns from France. It was the first time the colonel had seen his new grandson. "He is a sweetest little thing," was the colonel's comment.

TO RESIST THE ATTACK of the germs of many diseases, such as Grip, Malaria,

Typhoid, Cholera,
Dysentery, etc., which are all at all times in the air we breathe.
The odds are in favor of the germs, if the liver is inactive and the blood impure.

What is needed most is an increase in the germ-fighting strength. To do this successfully fastidiousness is not a healthful, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off these germs, and purify the blood so that there will be no "weak spots" or soil for germ-growth.

We claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself, and is the only it cures troubles caused by torpid liver or impure blood.

This herbal tonic is made up in liquid or tablet form and can be obtained in any drug store in the United States. It contains no alcohol or narcotic, and its ingredients are printed on the wrapper.

Write Dr. Pierce, President Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and 10 cents for trial package of tablets.

HYVARE, TEXAS.--"I have used Dr. Pierce's Medicine in my family and find that it is the greatest medicine known for the diseases of the human race. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' is the greatest medicine I ever used for 'run-down' nerves; the greatest liver medicine known in this country; good for rheumatism. I know this medicine is good for the above complaints for I have used it for them.

I will answer any inquiry from any sick person and gladly tell what this wonderful medicine has done for me."
---BETHLEHEM, CALIFORNIA, Route 2.

NYLACUDA, ALA.--"This is a true statement as to the value of Dr. Pierce's Medicine. I used one of his great remedies in my own family with good results, namely, 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and found it to be all it is claimed to be.
There is no medicine that will come as near doing what it is claimed for. It there's no price too high for it."
