EDITORIAL

NEED FOR FIRING SQUAD.

It must have occurred to a great many people, in reading the newspaper accounts of the latest methods adopted by the government authorities in dealing with the spy question, that the thing of this trade by a German or German sympathizer is far safer than service in the army of the Kaiser. The most serious penalty imposed so far has been against an officer of the United States army, who voluntarily announced that he could not do justice to himself or his men in leading them against his relatives and friends fighting on the German side. A man who is convicted of being a leader in the spy plots against American lives and property is given a prison sentence less than that usually meted out to an ordinary criminal. Other men, engaged in subterranean efforts which might result in the killing of more American boys than could be accomplished by an entire German regiment, are pleasantly interned in quarters where they are provided with creature comforts unknown to the young men who are upholding the Stars and Stripes in No Man's Land. The reason for this state of affairs is hard to appreciate. The country is at war and war is not a "civil" matter. A man who conspires to place a bomb in an American troop-ship or a vessel carrying much needed supplies to our allies is warring against this country as much (even more, we believe) as the private or officer in the German ranks who is exposed to American bullets. Why, then, should we treat these vipers as offenders against the civil law? Let's order out the firing squad!

TRUE CITIZENSHIP

Much as we dislike to admit it, there still exists a distinct apathy toward the war on the part of a great many people in various parts of the country. The reason for this is even deeper than constitutional pacifism or pro-Germanism based upon explicable blood or mental association. The fact is, although we did not realize it until recently, the average citizen of this country has not had instilled in him real responsibility in aid to his government. The extreme development of the democratic idea in America and the ultra-political nature of our form of government has resulted in the almost total disappearance of the appreciation by the individual of what the government means to him.

The changing of this condition is possibly the most serious problem facing the United States today, outside of winning the war. It involves a complete readjustment and revitalizing of our methods of civic instruction. This work must start in the schools of the lowest grade. Many men who have had the advantage of collegiate education in political economy, and even the influence of the discussion of these matters in high school debating societies, appreciate the problem. It must be remembered, however, that by far the greater majority of boys who later make up the citizenry of the nation leave school after passing through only the most elementary grades.

The National Security League, organized at the start of the war as a propaganda propaganda and now devoting its entire efforts to the awakening of the people to a realization of the meaning of the war and the menace of defeat, has undertaken a nationwide campaign on this question of true citizenship which is worthy of attention and support. It has enlisted the cooperation of state, county and city superintendents of schools in all parts of the country to make daily instruction on the war part of actual school tuition. The league has also obtained the release to it on full pay by the Boards of Trustees of a number of the largest colleges and universities in the country of a corps of professors, who are to constitute a "National Patriotic Education Faculty" to carry on this work in the broader field. These men will create a sort of patriotic and civic education personally into all parts of the country to spread this thought of the necessity of awakening citizenship of the country to responsibility to its government. More power to the National Security League and may the nation quickly realize the importance of its work!

UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING VOTES

176 Congressmen and 42 Senators Are Recorded for Measure by Security League.

The National Security League announces today that it has recorded in favor of universal military training 176 members of the House of Representatives and 42 members of the Senate. The figures in the canvass which the League has been conducting stood 179 in the House of Representatives and 45 in the Senate in its last announcement. These figures were reduced by three by the death of Senator Brady of Idaho, Newlands of Nevada and Hughes of New Jersey.

The new thrill is to toil for the necessities of life.

Some Good Advice.

Don't think too much of your own methods. Watch other people's ways and learn from them. This is good advice, especially when bilious or constipated. You will find many people who use Chamberlain's Tablets for those ailments with the best results, and will do well to follow their example.

Spirit of Major Andre: "They treated spies differently in my time, and yet I was a gallant gentleman compared to these reptiles!"

A TOAST.

And here's to the blue of the wind-swept North,
When we meet on the fields of France.
May the spirit of Grant be with you all
As the Sons of the North advance!
And here's to the gray of the sun-kissed South,
When we meet on the fields of France.
May the spirit of Lee be with you all
As the Sons of the South advance!
And here's to the Blue and the Gray as One!
When we meet on the fields of France.
May the spirit of God be with us all
As the Sons of the Flag advance!

NEVER CROSSED.

There's many a sorrow and pain I know,
As we tread the path of life;
There's many a grief and lasting woe,
And the way is toil and strife
But the hardest load we have to bear
Is the labor and strength that's lost,
In building the bridge with toilsome care
O'er the stream that is never crossed.

We have fretting and worry from morn till night
And anguish weighs on the heart;
The stormy way seems hard to right,
And life is a bitter part,
But there is a burden greater yet,
Much peace of soul it has cost,
It is building a bridge with toil and sweat
O'er the stream that is never crossed.

There's looking for crossing all the day
And searching along the shore
For a bridge or ford along the way
We shall never travel o'er.
There's sighing for useless toys in vain
And dreaming of chances lost;
But 'tis hardest to bridge with might and main
The stream that is never crossed.

Then gather the roses along the way:
And treasure the fragrance rare;
Rejoice in the bright and joyous day,
Refusing to borrow care,
For sorrow and pain will surely come,
And your soul be tried and tossed;
But don't be bridging to reach your home
O'er the stream that is never crossed.

ALL SHE COULD BE SURE OF.

Mr. Brown, widower, had advertised for housekeeper. On the applicant's arrival, Mr. Brown was out and his three-year-old daughter answered the door.
"What's your papa's name?" the woman asked.
After a pause the little girl answered: "I don't know what it was before he was married but it's Mr. Brown now."

SELF DEFENSE

DEFEAT BACKACHE AND KIDNEY TROUBLE WITH ANURIC.

Many people in this section, as elsewhere, have suffered from rheumatism and kidney trouble and have found Anuric to be the most successful remedy to overcome these painful and dangerous ailments.
The lucky people are those who have suffered, but who are now well because they heeded Nature's warning signal in time to correct their trouble with that wonderful new discovery of Dr. Pierce's called Anuric. You should promptly heed those warnings, some of which are dizziness, backache, irregularity of the urine or the painful twinges of rheumatism, sciatica or neuritis. To delay may make possible the dangerous forms of kidney disease, such as stone in the bladder.
To overcome these distressing conditions you should take plenty of exercise in the open air, avoid a heavy most diet, drink freely of water and at each meal take Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets (double strength). You will, in a short time, find that you are one of the firm believers of Anuric, as are many of your neighbors.
You can obtain a trial package of Anuric by sending 10 cents to Dr. V. M. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

WHITAKERS, N. C.—"I suffered from backache, frequent, scant urine, rheumatic pains and a hard spasm with my heart and swelling of feet and ankles. I learned of Doctor Pierce's Anuric and used a sample package and then ordered a full-size package. This relieved me and I gained considerably; it also relieved me of headache from which I suffered very much. I think Anuric fine for the kidneys when they are weak or diseased."—MRS. SARAH A. GILKINS.

CHANGED HIS NAME.

This Was the First Time a Bank Ever Busted Right Square in His Face.

A story is told of an old negro who had accumulated his savings in a bank in one of the Southern towns. One day the bank failed. Zeno was the name of the old man, and when told the bank had failed he spent hours around the door, as if he hoped in that way to get his money.
One day the receiver said to him: "Don't you know that the bank has been examined before any depositors can get their money? This is not the first bank that has failed."
"Shore, An knows dat," Zeno answered, "Ah's heered tell of banks bustin' before dis, but dis hear am de de fast time dat a bank evah busted rig' squah in mah face."

At last the examinations were over and the receiver announced that the depositors would be paid in alphabetical order. Some mistake had been made in figuring, and when they got down to W's the money gave out and Zeno lost his savings.
But he did not lose all his courage. He saved for a few months and had a little to put in another bank. He went to the cashier, who said:
"All right, Zeno; we will be glad to open an account for you."
"Zeno, nuthin'," he said. "Mah name ain't Zeno no woth; mah name's Aaron."—Columbus Dispatch.

GEORGE'S FINISH WAS PLAIN.

Jeweler's Clerk Pessimistic Over Future of Bashful Swain Who Was Led to the "Slaughter."

A young couple, evidently from the country, were walking down Market street the other day apparently looking for something very much in particular. At last they stopped at a large jeweler's window in which were displayed a number of wedding-rings. They stood by the window a few moments discussing some urgent question, the big, clumsy-looking fellow, who measured about six feet, apparently hesitating, says Ti-Bits.
"Go on, George," said the girl, who scarcely reached his elbows; "what's the use of backing out, now you've gone so far?"
"I don't half like to, Mary," he replied; "that sleek-looking fellow in there is sure to grin at me, and say I ought to be in the army."
"What difference does it make whether he laughs or cries?" exclaimed the girl. "If you haven't the pluck, I'll go myself."
"That's it, Mary," was the response; "if you'll do the asking, I'll come with you and look on."
Followed by her bashful lover, the little woman marched boldly in and chose the wedding-ring, while her swain twirled his hat, blushed and looked on.
As they left, the assistant gazed after them with a thoughtful air, and remarked: "I admire Mary's pluck, but I would hate to be George ten years from now."

WOMAN WORKS 15 HOURS A DAY

Marvelous Story of Woman's Change from Weakness to Strength by Taking Druggist's Advice.

Peru, Ind.—"I suffered from a displacement with backache and dragging down pains a body that at times I could not be on my feet and it did not seem as though I could stand it. I tried different medicines without any benefit and several doctors told me nothing but an operation would do me any good. My druggist told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it with the result that I am now well and strong. I get up in the morning at four o'clock, do my housework, then go to a factory and work all day, come home and get supper and feel good. I don't know how many of my friends I have told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—MRS. ANNA METERIANO, 36 West 10th St., Peru, Ind.
Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

COULD BE WORSE.

The Woman at the Back Door—"It must be a terrible thing to have to go through life without your limb. You must remember, however, that it will be restored to you in the next world." "I know," said the tramp, "it will, mum, but don't encourage me none. You see, me foot was cut off when I was a baby, and it won't come within a foot of the ground when it's restored."—Puck.
