LITTLE ONE SINGS.

When evening comes over the gray shadows fall, Softly my little one sings.

Cuddles and coos to a little rag doll, And babbles of wonderful things. Voice like a linner, and eyes like a dove, Little one rocks in her chair, And tenderly sings, while her motherly love

I want to get down by the side of her, too, And rock-a by back through the years, Voyaging the Slumberland River of blue, Untroubled by doubtings or fears. To drift to a nest in the crook of an arm. And lie in a cuddle of dreams,

Ah, linle one, sing me the wonderful charms

Warms to her little one there.

Up, up from the Lullaby streams. And sing while the heart of you bursts in a song,

Cuddle your little one so. For yours is a fleeting time, age is so long,

And you, little singer, will grow. Age will lay hand on your curly, brown hast, Make you a grown-up too soor Hustle you out of your little red chair-

Sing, sing, while your heart is in tune ! Softly gray shadows come creeping down, Little one journey away Mother and dolly to Siumberland Town. Drawsy-eyed dreamers astray,

Leaving me here where a mist of her song Falls on my heart like a dew. And heaven, I thank you, though uge is so long. May the dreams that come true
